HARVEST HYMN.

Lord of the Harvest! Thee we hail! Thine ancient promise doth not fail; The varying seasons haste their round-With goodness all our years are crowned Our thanks we pay

If Spring doth wake the song of mirth If Summer warms the fruitful earth; When Winter sweeps the naked plain, Or Autumn yields its ripen'd grain; Still do we sing

To Thee, our King; Through all their changes Thou dost

As homeward all their treasures bear; We, too, will raise Our hymn of praise, For we Thy common bounties share.

THE TEXTBOOK FIGHT IN OREGON.

The passage of the textbook commislaw by the last legislature, giving the Governor five men to appoint to adopt textbooks for four years, leaves Oregon open for a struggle between the great school book publishing firms. The books adopted will be used in the private schools and colleges as well as in the public schools, and involve cont a te running up into the hundreds of thourands of dollars.

In the past the adoption of textbooks has been shaped up by the State Supt, past eighteen years was the creation of a textbook corporation acting through the state superintendent, and its attorneys. For eighteen years Oregon has had highprized textbooks, in some respects inferior textbooks, and they have have keet festened mean the state by been kept fastened upon the state by
