JULY FOURTH AT BUENOS AYRES

Grand Reception Given by American Minister Lord.

Mrs. Lord writes of life in the Argentine Capital—An Expensive Place to Live—May Return Next Spring.

The JOURNAL is permitted to present to its readers some extracts from a letter recently received from Mrs. Lord, wife of Judge Lord, now American minister to Argentina, by a young lady friend here in Salem:

BUENOS AYRES, Aug. 2, 1900.

We are now in the midst of winter, if one can call it winter when everything looks green and the flowers are in bloom. Still it is quite cool and raw and for the last two weeks have had much rain. When the sun shines it is delightful.

My cook was taken with grip right at the Fourth of July when I was preparing for a big reception. I had to get in a new one who was no account. Some of my American friends lent a hand and we got along all right. We had to get ready for 250 but it was stormy and we only had about 175. But it was quite a brilliant reception. All the government officials came in their gold lace and swords. My lady friends were in evening dress and I wore my black silk and steel lace with violets. We had a cold collation in the dining room which opens into the sala, as they call the parlor here. The flowers were handsome and I had palms in the corners, etc. Many of the callers staid a couple of hours, they enjoyed it so much. Indeed it was said by the old residents to have been the most brilliant reception the Americans have ever had here.

All of the diplomats celebrate their country's days by a reception, and it is surprising how many "days" there are. My husband has now gone to the Swiss legation in the pouring rain. Yesterday he had to go to the Italian minister and say how sorry he was about his king. I will have to do likewise this week and attend mass. There are so many Italians here that there was great excitement and nearly all the stores were closed, but they do that at the very smallest pretext.

Willie can speak Spanish fairly well now and understands French quite a little. I have my French in quite good working order now. The language of the corps is French, though the most of them speak several. Marchioness Malaspina speaks 5 and English so well you would hardly know she was foreign. So she at first talked to me in English, but now they all talk French to me, and I have got all my old faculty back of speaking it. Count Rakofsky does not speak English, and he usually falls to my lot at dinner. He has been a great traveler and is consequently very good company. He tells me all about his life in Persia and Hindostan, and I talk Oregon to him.

This is the most expensive place I ever saw; much more so than New York or any city in the United States. It is possible I may return with the children next May or June, to put them in school, but we have as yet no fixed plan.

From Woodburn.

A visit to Woodburn finds the little city in a prosperous condition. All the stores are well stocked up with up-to-date merchandise, and some improvements are going on. Recently the pumps arrived for the new water works, the main has been laid down Main street and into a number of the leading blocks. The city will soon be supplied with good, clear, fresh water from a drilled well 26 feet deep and will be under better protection against fire.

Company D have recently fitted up neat quarters in the Remington building and will hereafter have a drill room 40x80 feet on the ground floor, and will use the second floor as a public hall. The Company is well organized out of good, sound young men, and has 60 members.

T. S. Townsend, of the Clover Leaf Creamery at Salem, has established a creamery here and it is well patronized by the surrounding farmers.

The new Catholic church that is now under construction and ready for the roof is an elegant building.

Cooley and Whitney have sold their livery stables to John and Charles Whitney.

O. A. Nendal has opened up an up-to-date stock of groceries in his building on Main street.

Barney Oswald has purchased the Oregon saloon and has refitted it with a new bar and fixtures.

O. D. Henderson is now busily engaged in manufacturing to order several sets of heavy team harness.

The many friends of Walter Tooke will be pleased to hear that he is improving from a severe attack of typhoid fever.

Wash. Phillips, of Scio, was a Woodburn visitor between trains on Tuesday.

A social dance was given on Wednesday evening at the Army hall, under the management of P. J. Sharbach.

Many farmers in this end of the county are busily engaged in putting in their fall grain.

Nearly the entire hop crop is still in the hands of the growers, although a few sales have been made.

Mrs. M. E. Arms has sold her entire crop of hops, consisting of 42 bales, to Linn & Co., of Salem, receiving 13 cents per pound.

Quite a force of men are engaged in the Woodburn nursery doing up the fall work.

TURNER LIQUOR CASE.

J. B. Underwood in the Tolls—Examination Tomorrow—Civil Case Postponed.

J. B. Underwood, of Turner, was arrested by Constable Lewin yesterday on a charge of selling liquor without license, the complaining witness being Josh Lindsay who has just been called upon to answer a similar charge. Mr. Underwood keeps a livery stable in Turner, and the offense with which he is charged is alleged to have been committed about a year ago. He was arraigned before Justice of the Peace O'Donald this morning, and by mutual consent the examination was postponed until 2 p. m. Saturday. It is rumored on the street that the dogs of war will be called off now, and our sister city up the track will settle back to its usual studied calm.

The civil case of E. C. Minton vs. W. V. Hurst, which was set for today has been postponed until Wednesday, Oct. 10 at 2 p. m.

Political Challenge.

A. W. Prescott special to Oregonian.

Chairman W. S. Mott, of the Marion County Democratic Central Committee, published a letter, challenging Chairman F. T. Wrightman, of the Republican County Central Committee, to furnish speakers for a joint political discussion, October 6, as a suitable time for such a discussion. Mr. Wrightman said when his attention was called to the challenge that the Republicans are willing to meet their Bryanite opponents in joint debates on the issues of the coming election, and he will see what can be done to arrange for such a discussion.

The great difficulty will be to find a suitable hall. The armory is now the largest public hall in the city but it would not be nearly large enough to hold the audience that would try to crowd in to witness a battle of argument between the Republicans and the Bryanites. Another difficulty is that some of the leading Republican speakers have already arranged dates for addresses in distant parts of the state. Dr. Mott said this evening that his idea is that the debate should be confined to local speakers.

The Paulist Mission.

The opening sermon of the Mission at St. Joseph's church will be preached at the High mass next Sunday morning at 10:30 by Rev. Father Smith, superior of the Paulists in San Francisco, who is to conduct the Mission here. He will be assisted by Rev. Father Moran. Both these fathers, who are able and eloquent speakers, have just come from New York City to assist in the great missionary work designed both for Catholics and non Catholics, which the Paulist Fathers have been doing on the Pacific coast. The order and the hours of the Mission service will be announced in tomorrow evening's issue and also at the masses on Sunday morning.

First Blood for Football.

Herbert L. Junk, a member of the college foot-ball team, had his collar bone broken yesterday while the team was practicing, and will be laid up for some weeks.

Guardian Appointed.

Ella Fishburn has been appointed guardian of the person and estate of Joseph Fishburn, a minor heir of the late Joseph Fishburn.

Assessment Roll.

The Marion County Court has extended the time for completing the Marion County assessment roll to November 12.

Where Did That Headache Go?

If there was no cure for that headache there would be some reason for tolerating it. But there is a cure. It is safe, swift and sure. It goes right to the throbbing, tearing pain and soothes it and quiets it, until in a few minutes you straighten up and say:

"Where did that headache go?"

Never mind, it is gone. It will not trouble you again. And then the medicine is so easy to take, no bad taste, no bad smell, no big capsules or nauseous powders, but just a little tablet that is easy to take. And it costs so little. A box will cure a dozen headaches. Costs only a quarter. Two cents is pretty cheap for so much relief, eh? People who don't enjoy headaches should keep a box in the house—the name—"Fry's Headache Cure"

In Selecting Furniture

Our solicitation is ever for the staid and sensible home buyer, and not for the frivolous, transient butterflies of fashion. Those who seek to imitate the surface appearance of aristocracy, generally wish to do so for about one-tenth the cost of that which they wish to show forth, and about half the cost of their own wholesome and original needs. "Reciprocity to our trade" is our rule both in selecting and making prices.

F. W. HOLLIS & CO.

FIRST DOOR NORTH OF POSTOFFICE.

Bishop Turner for Bryan.

Bishop Turner, who is at the head of the African Methodist church in the United States has declared himself for Bryan for President. In a letter which gives his reasons for this action he says "I am for Bryan for president because he represents the same broad principles that Abraham Lincoln espoused, and I believe it will be for the benefit of my people to vote for him. As Abraham Lincoln was a friend to the colored race so is William Jennings Bryan."

"All of this ally sentiment of adhering to the Republican party because of Lincoln's proclamation of emancipation is misplaced. The Republican party of Lincoln and the Republican party of Hanna are distinctly things apart. Lincoln is dead, but his principles of personal liberty still live and verily the mantle of Elijah never fitted the shoulders of Elshah as perfectly as Lincoln's mantle fits the broad shoulders of Bryan. Lincoln never harbored a trust. He never believed in governing without the consent of the governed. He never believed in grinding down the rights and privileges of the common people. He never failed to accord honor where honor was due. Now, how can any one reconcile the party principle of Hanna and Roosevelt.

"In its treatment of the colored man the Republican party has always masqueraded as a wolf in sheep's clothing. Since that party claims to have freed the slaves its managers have constantly lied to the colored man. When Lincoln died Republican honesty to the colored race was interred with his bones and an era of Republican moral degeneracy began. We are told that we were emancipated for humanity's sake. Yes, and I believe Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippine Islands were freed from the same inexcusable, O, humanity, what crimes are committed in thy name.

"The Republicans have lied about our freedom and our citizenship. Our freedom was a war necessity and was dearly bought with colored arms, 200,000 strong

Organs, Too, Remember

Those Kingsbarys, already low, marked down 75c under price, and mind you those instruments sell in a big town in Washington for $50 more than we ask originally. Then that fine mahogany Ludwig with $75 chopped off; the big English oak Fischer $125 less than usual, and the fine walnut Fischer cut $100, and so on all through. It's a cut that counts.

There are two people after the big oak Fischer—it's a question who comes first—takes a day or two sometimes to decide on as weighty a purchase as that of a piano. Some customers wait a year or more—and wisely too—till there's a good snap offered them. Several have decided in the last week that have produced largely by waiting.

At all sorts of ways. That big six-octave Chicago Cottage oak will go next. That $19.50 second-hand one has a customer after it, too. Oughtn't to take long at that price, though, to decide. This sale won't last away.
