EDITORIAL NOTES.

If the report that roughs at Fort Wayne stoned Governor Roosevelt be true it is an outrage that cannot be too severely condemned. It should be punished by law as rigorously as the Democratic administration in Kentucky is dealing out justice to the Gobel murderers. The American people should throttle interference with freedom of speech and political liberty for all parties. Neither Republicans, Democrats, Populists or Socialists believe in such methods.

Ex-Prest. Harrison declared the Porto Rico tariff was a grave departure from the constitution. But he soothes his soul with the plaster a great many lawyers apply when caught in a tight place—the supreme court will decide whether it is right or not. The supreme court once decided slavery was right, but the people went right on deciding the matter themselves. There is only one consolation and that is Harrison is not on the court.

Binger Hermann was sincere in opposing Dolph in 1895 because Dolph was not a free silver man and had the temerity to renounce the Republican platform that declared for free coinage at sixteen-to-one. Hermann went the platform one better and proposed to recoin all the silver at the ratio of twenty-to-one. He is as sincere in these things as Mitchell, McBride and others who fought Dolph as a matter of principle.

ple in 1895 and have had to eat humble pie ever since by confession that Dolph was right and they were wrong on the money question.

There is one thing the Oregon Republicans cannot afford to trifle with, and that is the money question. If the country had everlastingly a gold currency it would be different. But it has not a gold money system. There are about a dozen kinds of currency, and the greenback alone of the paper notes is specifically redeemable in gold coin. All the rest is interchangeable in various ways. Oregon should not elect a senator who is not himself a tower of stability and of sterling convictions.

A man gets back from the world what he gives the world. Roosevelt believes in the conquest of the world by physical force and he is getting back some demonstrations of that style of carrying on a campaign.

The ideas of expansion entertained by such men as Corbett and Hermann radically differ. The latter believes in any policy that leads to expansion of Republican offices.

The first appearance of the Aeolian and Pianos, automatic piano and organ playing inventions, will be an interesting event in this city. The high character of the music rendered must convince anyone who hears the programs that they are calculated to popularize the best music and bring it within the reach of the masses. The introduction of these instruments stimulate the study of music and the sale of musical instruments.

Doubleday, Page & Co., 34 Union square, New York, announce a new magazine to be ready Oct. 20, "THE WORLD'S WORK." It is to be radically different from all magazines in existence. It is to deal with conditions not theories, to present recorded achievements of the time not speculations, and will seek to be entertaining and dramatic without travelling in the rut of existing magazines, that are presenting an altogether too hotch potchy cheap boarding-house style of a bill of fare. The name of the new venture is a parody on Kipling's "The Day's Work."

COURAGEOUS DECLARATION FOR JUSTICE AND EQUITY

A TRUE AMERICAN EXPANSION POLICY
ADVOCATED BY A REPUBLICAN STATESMAN

Hon. H. W. Corbett Takes the Same Position as Hoar Towards the Filipinos—Porto Ricans Would Be Justified in Rebelling Against a Tariff.

"The time will soon arrive when we must determine on a distinctive policy for these newly acquired possessions, and in determining that policy, we must be JUST, EQUITABLE AND FAIR, as between the United States and these island possessions, which should be uniform with that of every other territorial possession acquired or held by the United States. IF WE EXPECT PEACE and prosperity with them, WE MUST BE JUST. IF WE LEVY TAXES UPON THESE PEOPLE, NOT LEVIED UPON OTHER STATES OR TERRITORIES belonging to the United States, WE MUST EXPECT THEM TO REBEL against such taxes. THE SOONER JUST AND EQUITABLE LAWS are enacted and executed THE SOONER WE WILL INSPIRE these new possessions with confidence in our integrity, that WE INTEND TO DEAL JUSTLY and equitably with them; as with all other portions of the country over which our flag floats. These people are dealt with with the same even-handed justice as all other portions of the country, AND THE SOONER THEY KNOW THAT WE ARE DOING THIS, THE SOONER THEY WILL BE WILLING TO LAY DOWN THEIR ARMS. When they are allowed a representative in congress to plead their case, even without a vote, as other territories are allowed, they will enlighten their community of the justice and equity with which their representative and their interests are treated at the National capital. In the practical solution of this question, it must be done in a statesmanlike, just and equitable manner, making the load equally light for all to bear."

Women Who Want to Vote.

should be on the tail of all the tickets when the votes are counted. It was an insult to the common schools of the state to put a trust attorney on the Republican ticket.

The Porto Rico tariff is all wrong but we will have to swallow it. That awful man Bryan would do so much worse if he were President than McKinley HAS DONE, don't you know.—Ben Harrison.

Albany Democrat.—The Salem Journal boasts of two laundries for that city. It will take more than that during the meeting of the state legislature to wash the dirty senatorial politics that will prevail.

The next man who works off a plugged coin on the X Ray man will be publicly executed in this column.

Let the American Royalists and Imperialists to take hope. The party of the Lords and Kakhis won in England.

The colored women of the big cities east are being organized into Republican clubs. They will be organizing equines next.

It is a mighty mean kind of a man who will talk about himself when you want to talk about yourself.—Albany Democrat.

The State Pest Ass'n is represented on the Pan-American Commission the governor has appointed by Mr. Edythe Tozier Weatherford of Portland.

Oregon Republicans don't want a senator of interchangeable financial views, or who advocated twenty-to-one or any old ratio, but they may have to take Binger Hermann.

All the corporation lawyers in the Democratic party are flocking into the Republican party. They rise to the duty of the hour nobly and the people weep to see them go.

DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION

"I had been a sufferer for many years from nervousness with all its symptoms and complications," writes Mrs. O. N. Fisher, 1861 Lexington Ave., New York, N. Y. "I was constantly going to see a physician or purchasing medicine. In the spring of 1897 my husband induced me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. After taking one bottle and following your advice I was so encouraged that I took five more bottles, and then stopped for several weeks as I felt so much better, but still I was not completely cured. I commenced taking it again and felt that I was improving faster than at first. I am not now cross and irritable, and I have a good color in my face; have also gained about ten pounds in weight and one thousand pounds of comfort, for I am a new woman once more and your advice and your 'Favorite Prescription' is the cause of it, coupled with the 'Pleasant Pellets' which are not to be dispensed with. I took eight bottles of the 'Prescription' the last time, making fourteen in all, and will not take any more unless you so advise, for I do not see as I need it."

The Stimulus of Pure Blood

That is what is required by every organ of the body, for the proper performance of its functions.

It prevents biliousness, dyspepsia, constipation, kidney complaint, rheumatism, catarrh, nervousness, weakness, faintness, pimples, blotches, and all cutaneous eruptions.

It perfects all the vital processes.

W. P. Keeton, Woodstock, Ala., took Hood's Sarsaparilla to make his blood pure. He writes that he had not felt well but tired for some time. Before he had finished the first bottle of this medicine he felt better and when he had taken the second was like another man—free from that tired feeling and able to do his work.

A Test of Accuracy.
Drawing from memory is one of the most difficult things in the world to do. Even professional artists find that they must rely largely upon hasty jottings made upon the spot as suggestions for their pictures. Those who are not artists need to look keenly and closely at what they wish to recollect, for they must depend upon their memory to bring details back to them. It is an excellent corrective of superficial observation to sketch a scene as we think we saw it and afterward return to the scene and take another view. It is a training both in accuracy and humility, for we learn how easy it is to deceive ourselves as to what we have remarked.—Florence Hull Winterburn in Woman's Home Companion.

She Got a New Pair.
Sarcensticus and his wife were going to the theater.
"Will you please go in and get my gents off the dressing table?" said Mrs. S.
"Your gents?" queried the puzzled Sarcensticus. "What fangle have you women got now?"
"I'll show you!" snapped the wife, and she sallied away and soon returned putting on her gloves.
"Are those what you mean? Why, I call those kids."
"I used to," replied Mrs. Sarcensticus. "but they are getting so old I am ashamed to any longer."
