Shapely Married Women

Every woman covets a shapely, pretty figure, and many of them deplore the loss of their girlish forms after marriage. The bearing of children is very destructive to the mother's shapeliness. This can be avoided, however, by the use of MOTHER'S FRIEND before baby comes, as this scientific liniment prepares the body for the strain upon it, and preserves the symmetry of form. MOTHER'S FRIEND also obviates all the danger of child-birth, and carries the expectant mother safely through this critical period without pain. It is woman's greatest blessing, and thousands gratefully tell of the great good it has done them. Sold by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle.

Oregon Officeseeker's Prayer.

Oh for a pair of blacksmith bellows lungs
To eulogize Mark Hanna's ways;
Oh for a thousand Tom Tongues
To sing McKinley's praise.

Billy Westacott will be able to give better meals if Bryan is elected, as trust prices will be broken and all supplies will be cheaper. Billy will excuse his patrons for voting for bigger rations for two-bits.

People will eat, live, sleep and do business no matter who is president and the wise business man will conduct his business so as to have customers in all parties.

Col. Hofer can do nothing to please the mercenary brigade. They could not enjoy his presence in the Republican party and they are not satisfied because he isn't in it. The Hessians can't be happy while he is on earth. What will they do in the next world?

No one can censure the Portland Telegram for supporting McKinley if it wants to. This is a free country and it needs more independent papers.

Here's a hot one from Judge Kincaid's paper on Til. Ford. It will make him sweat:

Hon. Tilmon Ford, farmer-lawyer of Salem, now candidate for McKinley presidential elector, and previous to 1896 one of the most extreme free silver advocates in Oregon, spoke in the court house, Eugene, Thursday night, October 18.

There is a persistent rumor current on the streets that Hi Smith has become a Bryan man. No good Republican ever refuses an office.

If there are any women in Oregon foolish enough to address the alleged Chicago bachelor who advertises for some one to be kind to, they had better be bunco'ed at the distance of 1,000 miles. If the animal got right near by he would eat them along with other green things.

A reader who cannot conscientiously vote for Bryan or McKinley wants to know whether he had better vote for Wooley or for Debs? Well, there we are again. Both are good men and represent great principles. Our inquirer is a good man and he should ask his good wife or the Good Lord to help him make up his mind.

The next senator from Oregon may or may not be a Republican. But he will stand with Senator Simon for free trade with Porto Rico, Hawaii and all over our possessions, and for a territorial form of government for all the Island possessions according to the constitution. That is the only road to peace and prosperity in the Philippines.

The safety of this country lies in the fact that there are honest, independent men in all parties who will not condone wrong doing by one of their own partisans. They prefer the welfare of their country to the success of their own party by resort to dubious and questionable means, and they will sit down hard on the man who engages in practices that they will not bear the fullest light of publicity.

Mark Hanna's office-holding gang all look "down in the mouth." They don't see just how they can renew their graft on the federal offices even if McKinley is re-elected.

Pennoyer will be a picturesque element in the legislature. "There is life in the old dog yet," and his admirers will enjoy seeing him back in public life. They all know that, whatever he does, it will be something original. Later: He has refused.

The Portland horse cannery is to shut down.

A prominent Salem Republican defends Mark Hanna for three columns. Defense of Mark and abuse of Aguinaldo constitutes two-thirds of the Republican campaign. The other one-third is promises of prosperity.

Wonder if Bentley & Co. of Washington will build the Salem postoffice. It is charged they get nine-tenths of all the government contracts.

One day the Statesman had the Salem Woolen Mill closing down because it had so much stock accumulated that unless McKinley was elected it could not run. That statement would not bear investigation so it announces that the mill will run whether Bryan is elected or not.

"Threatened with an attack," and "threatened with a complication of diseases" are phrases the medical doctors find it very profitable to employ at times. These words carry an impressive weight of wisdom that helps out the bill immensely.

If liberal promises can carry Oregon for the Republicans, McKinley will get a big vote. Here is one from the Salem Statesman: If McKinley is elected three weeks from next Tuesday, Tillamook County will probably get a railroad next year, and Southeastern Oregon three or four of them. And Salem will surely not be missed by all of the new roads.

Hon. Frank Paxton is a proper man to present the Republican cause as elector. He has been attorney of the textbook trust that has robbed the people of Oregon for the past twenty years to the deteriment of taxpayers, and schools.

If McKinley is re-elected Oregon will want to elect a sound-money senator. If Bryan is elected the Republican legislature will need to elect one. In either event there is no room for a Mitchell.

After Charley Moores called his brother federal office-holder traitors for electing the fusion ticket at Portland, he must now get in good graces by eulogizing Mark Hanna.

WOMEN WILL DECIDE IDAHO

Male Voters Are Wrapped Up Over the Question of Union and Non-Union.

Idaho will go for Bryan, in the opinion of Albert Tozier, but in any event the result will be close.

"It is the women who will decide the fate of Idaho," declared Mr. Tozier, in a Portland interview. "The male population is so evenly divided that whatever side the women espouse will win.

"I have just returned from mining in Idaho, 12 miles from the famous bullpen at Wardner. There the distinction of Republican and Democrat is not talked of at all scarcely. The whole center of conversation is union and non-union. The union men will vote for Bryan, while the people against unions will support McKinley. Excitement over the union question is running high. In fact it is scarcely worth while for a man to express an opinion there. Each side can only see the situation in its own light, and simply looks upon the other side as composed of a collection of blockheads.

"When two opposing sides will not argue patiently with one another, there is no use being drawn into the controversy one way or the other, especially when you are an outsider. It is difficult to say what vote Bryan will have in Idaho, but I believe he will carry the state, although the outcome will be close enough to show the people there has been a fight."

TWO REPORTS ON TIL FORD

A Republican and a Democratic Paper on the Great Salem Spellbinder and Globetrotter.

The Republican Paper.

There was a big minstrel show, a rousing temperance meeting and a social dance last night coupled with a heavy down pour of rain yet there was a big turn out to hear Hon. Tilmon Ford, one of the republican presidential electors discuss the pending issues. A notable feature was the number of ladies who braved the elements to show their loyalty to republican principles. Mr. Ford began by saying he was willing to accord to every man and woman a right to their honest convictions on political and religious matters. He then touched on the financal question, compared conditions under Cleveland with those that exist today showing that under the Wilson bill the balance of trade went against us while under Protection and reciprocity the balance of trade is in favor of the United States. The trusts and Imperialism were discussed in a fair and impartial manner.

He gave a splendid explanation of the Clayton-Bulwer and Hay-Ponce forte treaties with reference to the Nicaragua canal and made the point if Bryan is elected the canal will not likely be built.

He injected anecdotes into the discussion that were both pleasing and amusing.

Honest old Til Ford is one of the plain people full of homely philosophy.

A Democratic Paper.

Hon. Tilmon Ford held forth Tuesday evening, and the Republicans are now boasting of its success. After the band played, probably 250 persons—children and adults—gathered to hear the noted Republican orator.

Mr. Ford began his speech by stating that he wished to be fair with his political opponents; that he believed they were honest and he wanted them to grant him the same privilege of being honest, and during his speech we shall give Mr. Ford credit for at no time stooping to abusive language. After these few remarks he launched out upon the tariff question, and as his thoughts were so ponderous, his audience began to melt away. After a re-hashed and some farfetched ideas upon this question, in which the wonderful increase in the price of steer hides during the past four years predominated (utterly forgetting they are upon the free list) he launched out upon his old free silver speech we have heard him make so many times in Marion county. Here the crowd again began to melt away and could not be stopped by his declaration that the Republican party had declared for the gold standard in 1896.

Here, in order to stop his audience from all leaving or falling asleep, he started in to tell a yarn which he tried to make appear as original, and after ponderous efforts to build a mountain he succeeded in creating a very small mole hill although most of his audience failed to see the point, and painfully waited for applause. He then launched out upon the question of trusts. Admitted there was such things but failed to tell the people anything about the trusts that were hurting them or any remedy for their suppression. Here again the audience made a break for the outside and the vacant seats brought a look of anxiety to his face. When he launched out upon the "Fillepene" question scarce 60 people were in the hall and nearly all —even unto Keene—had a sleepy look, or that resigned composure of those who have determined to "grin and bear it." But like all things it came to an end, without that brilliant peroration which was duly expected, but like the ship, never came in.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup furnishes most substantial comfort and relief to consumptives; it works most remarkable cures. Don't despair. Relief can certainly be had; a cure is possible with this wonderful remedy.

Forewarned, Forearmed.

The liability to disease is greatly lessened when the blood is in good condition, and the circulation healthy and vigorous. For then all refuse matter is promptly carried out of the system; otherwise it would rapidly accumulate —fermentation would take place, the blood become polluted and the constitution so weakened that a simple malady might result seriously.

A healthy, active circulation means good digestion and strong, healthy nerves.

As a blood purifier and tonic S. S. S. has no equal. It is the safest and best remedy for old people and children because it contains no minerals, but is made exclusively of roots and herbs.

No other remedy so thoroughly and effectually cleanses the blood of impurities. At the same time it builds up the weak and debilitated, and renovates the entire system. It cures permanently all manner of blood and skin troubles.

Mr. E. E. Kelly, of Urbana, O., writes: "I had Eczema on my hands and face for five years. It would break out in little white pustules, crusts would form and drop off, leaving the skin red and inflamed. The doctors did me no good. I used all the medicated soaps and salves without benefit. S. S. S. cured me, and my skin is as clear and smooth as any one's."

Mrs. Henry Biegfried, of Cape May, N. J., says that twenty-one bottles of S. S. S. cured her of Cancer of the breast. Doctors and friends thought her case hopeless.

Richard T. Gardner, Florence, S. C., suffered for years with Boils. Two bottles of S. S. S. put his blood in good condition and the Boils disappeared.

CONSUMPTION

is, by no means, the dreadful disease it is thought to be—in the beginning.

The trouble is: you don't know you've got it; you don't believe it; you won't believe it—till you are forced to. Then it is dangerous.

Don't be afraid; but attend to it quick—you can do it yourself, and at home.

TRAVELING MEN AND THE TRUSTS

A Baltimore Ass'd Press dispatch says: Theodore Marburg, the Mrs. Malaprop of the Republican trust party, made another bad break today and one that has thrown the leaders into a stew.

Mr. Marburg's firm is one of the biggest in the tobacco trust and Mr. Marburg is an official in that organization. He is also a theoretical politician and has just finished a series of articles on expansion. Mr. Marburg spoke at a meeting of the commercial travelers' organization today. He said:

"I have little consolation to offer the traveling man. There is nothing that at present indicates his rehabilitation.

"To talk of abolishing trusts is as idle as to talk of abolishing newspapers or of breaking up the great trunk lines and restoring the many small systems that previously existed.

"The trust was born primarily of the fierce competition between American manufacturers. If the tariff in any way conduced to it, it was only by building up manufacturers in America and providing the conditions for the competition. It was the competition, not the tariff, which produced the trust.

"The saving of the salaries of traveling salesmen is only one of the many economics affected by these great business consolidations. I have been a traveling man myself and know the economic waste involved in devoting one's time to the sale of a particular article in competition with hundreds of others whose time is exclusively employed in the offer of similar articles."

Careless Hunter.

From Jefferson Review.

Some careless hunter fired a load of shot through an open door of Lee Miller's residence the other day, barely missing a little son of that gentleman, who was standing in the doorway, and shattering a mirror hanging on the wall. Hunters have also killed a $20 sheep and crippled a fine cow belonging to Lee.

A fine Jersey cow owned by Geo. Elliott was shot by some one, though not badly injured. Is it any wonder the farms are covered with trespass notices and numerous arrests are being made? The only thing to be regretted is that the law provides no punishment adequate for such criminal carelessness.

Leaves Detroit	12:10 p. m.
Arrives Albany	5:45 p. m.

One and two connect at Albany and Corvallis with Southern Pacific trains, giving direct service to and from Newport and adjacent beaches.
Trains for the mountains arrive at Detroit at noon, giving ample time to reach camping grounds on the Breitenbush and Santiam rivers the same day.
