THE BATTLE OF NINETEEN HUNDRED

A Few Plain Words With Our Readers About Ourselves.

The Prospect of The Journal and the Line of Battle Where It Will Be Fought Fighting in Front Rank for the People.

We want a few words in private with every reader of THE JOURNAL. The publishers have been able to maintain an independent paper against the schemes of the political ring that bought stock and sought to overthrow the paper. They have appealed to the supreme court, but as they utterly failed to establish a single charge they made against Hofer Brothers of financial mismanagement, we have no fear of meeting them in the highest tribunal.

In the battle for good government by an independent paper the people have also a duty to perform, and we appeal to honest men of all parties who love fair play. We want your personal support this coming winter. We want your renewals of subscription and the names of our neighbors who are reading the paper—who are reading it without paying for it—we want them to become subscribers. We offer them terms that are positively money-savers and, no matter what their politics, our clubbing offers must suit them in some way.

A dollar for the Daily or Weekly Journal now will carry you over the national election, and over the Oregon legislature, which will involve a red-hot fight for the Senate. The position of the Journal on that question is unequivocal. It will oppose sending a man to the Senate of the United States who was a silver man when he thought that would get him the office, and who is now a gold man because he thinks that will get him the office. Oregon should send a man to the Senate who is a positive quality and as this is a Republican legislature we shall advocate the election of a man who will maintain the present standard and currency system as a matter of principle to ensure security and stability in our financial affairs. The gold standard is established in theory only. We still have a credit paper system resting on the fiat and promise of parity, with nearly four times as much currency as there is gold to redeem it with. The money question was the issue in 1896 and should not be disturbed by electing trimmers and uncertainties to the Senate.

The JOURNAL publishers are sending out sample copies of the Daily and Weekly Capital Journal. Both are independent papers and the cheapest published on the coast. We save you money because we do not send papers beyond the time ordered. We give you the net price and employ no agents and pay no commissions. Weekly $1.00 a year, Daily 30 cents a month or four months $1.00.

The Daily at 122 days for 100 cents is the best thing for the money in the way of an associated press newspaper published in the world that we know of. Each day is a complete history by itself.

In politics THE JOURNAL believes in government for the people in the broadest sense. Here are some of the reforms it has carried out and that are still being developed.

It has succeeded for two years with good men of all parties in putting the city of Salem on a non-partisan business basis, saving the people thousands of dollars and will fight to continue it.

The Journal has introduced finance for the people and helped carry out two popular loans at four per cent when the bond syndicates were making the people pay from six to ten per cent. This must be extended. It is wrong to compel the people to pay six per cent on their debts when money can be had at 3 to 4 per cent. The Marion county warrant ring must be overturned and a popular loan used to put the county on a cash basis.

In the coming legislature THE JOURNAL will fight to elect a United States Senator who shall not sell out the rights of the people to the trusts, who stands for the free trade with our island possessions, and who favors putting them under territorial form of self government by the people of the Islands instead of military and commission rule. The constitution provides how they shall be governed and any other form of government will prove a burden to the taxpayer and will not establish peace or prosperity.
