

About Mackintoshes

This season we bought an exceptional line of rain coats and bought them so cheap that other dealers' special prices are not in it with our regular price.

Girls' Coats at $2.00 and $3.00
Ladies' Coats at $4.00 to $12.00
Boys' Coats at $2.50
Men's Coats at $3.00 to $7.50

HOLVERSON'S

SHAWKNIT

GENUINE.....

SHAWKNIT

HOSE.....

176 pair

See Window Display. The Genuine have the name on the toe. These are the genuine. Competitors cannot begin to match this value and they're sore about it too. They come in a pretty shade of grey and are well worth twenty-five cents. Another line of the "Middlesex Brand" made by the Shawknit company in Brown and Black, all sizes 10 to 11-12. "We Never Misrepresent our Goods."

J. J. Dalrymple & Co.

SHAWKNIT

Children Going to School

Wear glasses now much more frequently than ever before, because parents are growing wise in knowing that weak or defective eyesight in the young can be cured or remedied by the use of proper glasses worn in time. We fit all kinds of eyes, young and old, after making a scientific test of the eyesight free of charge. Our stock of optical goods of all kinds is complete.

Chas. H. Hinges Scientific Optician
296 Commercial St.
Next Door to Holverson's.

Wheat Market.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 22.—Cash 95.
CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 22.—Dec. 74½.
Salem, 50.

GOLD DUST FLOUR

MADE BY The Sidney Power Co.
SIDNEY, OREGON.

A. T. WALN, AGENT.

PHONE 51.

Bottled Beer

Kilger & Beck, Successors to South Salem Bottling Works.

All orders for bottled beer will be filled at the brewery. Keep on-hand storage. Free city delivery. Telephone 2131.

UNDER THE ROOF.

For the benefit of those who are finishing inside work we must suggest that we are prepared to furnish a clean bright lath at very reasonable figures. Call and see stock and get quotations. Plenty of "Star A Star" shingles for all. Get prices.

D. S. BENTLEY & CO.
319 Front St.

CANTORIA.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

SPECIAL

Dill Pickles in bulk, 35 cents gallon.
Plain Pickles in bulk 35 cents gallon.
Plain, mixed and sweet pickles and Chow Chow in extra large bottles.
The largest bottles ever put up only 25c.
Plain and sweet pickles from 10c and up to 50c.

WE CARRY

A very large line of olives either bulk or bottles. Bottle olives from 10 cents to 25 cents.

SAUCES

Wonderful sauce 15 cents and up. Dorkie's Salad Dressing, My Wife's Best Dressing and many other leading brands too numerous to mention.

Roth & Graber

Phone 611, 124 State St.

GRIDIRON NEWS ITEMS

The First Team at Eugene and the Benefit—The U. of O. to Play Stanford.

The University of Oregon team will on the California trip play Stanford, November 10, and Berkeley, November 17. It is now proposed and arrangements are being made to play the University of Nevada, in San Francisco, possibly November 14.

Berkeley's manager has agreed to attend to the details of the Oregon-Nevada game, so that it is only necessary to arrange preliminary matters.

Saturday Oct. 27 the first football game of the season will be played in Oregon. It is to be between teams from the U. O. and Capital City Athletic Club The Eugene Guard says:

Coach Kaarsberg is steadily working the 'varsity boys into form and in another week they should be in good condition. The second team, in charge of Professor Burden is doing fine work, giving the 'varsity team a lively run every day. The team has not been selected, in fact there is more than one capable candidate for each of several positions and a choice will be hard to make.

The Salem team is composed of experienced players who have been stars on school and club teams, including Clarence Bishop, Spike Young, Gault, Sanders, Olinger, Judd and others who are recognized as among the best in the state. It is very probable that this team will give the U. O. boys the hardest game they will have during the year. The game will be played on the U. O. gridiron and will be witnessed by a large crowd. A car of enthusiasts is expected to accompany the Salem team.

FOR A PRACTICE GAME.

Chemawa Boys Willing to Stand Before the Salem Giants Tomorrow.

D. E. Brewer, of Chemawa, was in the city today to see if the Capital Athletic club would wish to play a practice game of football with the Chemawa team tomorrow.

A definite answer could not be given him today but the Chemawa boys will be notified in the morning.

Mr. Brewer says the Chemawa team is lighter than it was last year, and has not practiced enough to put up the strongest game of which they are capable, but they would be pleased to give the Salem team a practice game if it is desired.

THREE LAWYERS ARE ON TRIAL

Judge Bennette of The Dalles Defending Them on a Serious Charge.

The case of the state vs. D. W. Sheehan, Walter G. Hayes and J. V. Luther is on trial before Judge Robert Eakin at Enterprise, Wallowa county, Oregon.

On the executive order of Gov. Geer, Dennis Whitmore has been released from imprisonment and escorted to Enterprise to give his testimony against these three lawyers who are prominent members of the profession in Eastern Oregon. Whitmore is serving a term in the pen for perjury. On his trial he testified the defendants above named paid him to perjure himself and Judge Eakin issued an order for their arrest in the courtroom. His statement was that they paid him about $20 to swear falsely. Judge Bennette of The Dalles is defending the men.

HE SEVERED TWO ARTERIES

R. E. Allen, one of the attendants at the Milliee bowling alley slipped Saturday evening, falling through a pane of glass and cutting his arm, completely severing two arteries. The arm was dressed by a physician and he now carries it in a sling.

TOMATO AND APPLE MARKET

The Salem cannery is working this week on apples and tomatoes. For the latter $9.00 per ton is paid. Hand-picked apples bring $10.00 a ton and $8.00 for those picked up. Winter apples are canned mostly.

THE POTATO MARKET SOLID

Don Mc Kinley Mitchell of Gervais is in town supervising some shipments of potatoes. He pays 2 cents a bushel for good shippers, and furnishes sacks and thread.

PERSONAL

R. T. Ray of Marion was in town today. He says he cleared $600 on 1750 prune trees in bearing, the second crop. Two years ago they brought him $1000.

Sheriff Durbin and Attorney Kaiser were at Hubbard today to conduct some reinvest proceedings.

Deputy Sheriff John Estes was in Scotts Mills today on official business.

Mrs. Pete Becket left today for a winter visit with relatives in California.

Geo. Thurston is a guest of his grandfather, General W. H. Odell.

Hon. Ralph Moody, of Portland, was in town today.

SUDDEN DEATH IN CHINATOWN

Hate On, a "Very Good Honest Man." Turns Up His Toes.

There was a sudden death in Salem Chinatown Sunday night, Hate On passing in his checks some time between 7 and 10 o'clock.

He was aged about 40 years and had been in the country about 25 years. Ten months ago he came to Salem from Roseburg, where he had worked as a section hand on the railroad. He was suffering from the effects of an injury received some years ago when a falling woodpile hurt him internally and his death resulted from a hemorrhage.

He had been staying at the establishment of Hoey Wing Yen, on Court street, and the other Chinese had helped him. At 7 p. m. he went out, and at about 10:30 a search was instituted and he was found dead in an out-house.

The Chinamen say he was "Very good honest man—boys all like him—all help him."

An inquest is not considered necessary, and the remains will probably be buried tomorrow.

BROOKS EVANGELICAL CHURCH DEDICATED

Presiding Elder C. C. Poling of Dallas conducted dedicatory services Sunday of the new Evangelical church at Brooks. Rev. Lanner is the local pastor and a number of members have been added to the church rolls. The structure cost $800 complete. Only $60 were needed to pay all debts and $90 was raised.

RAILROAD WRECKS.

Thomas A. Scott Used to Handle Them Without Gloves.

"When that wonderful railroad genius, the late Thomas A. Scott, was building up the Pennsylvania system, the work he did was superhuman, the results he accomplished marvellous," said an old railroad man. "Scott was essentially a man of action. For example, at one time there occurred on the line a freight wreck that piled up scores of cars in a confused heap in a cutting, thus completely barring the main line."

"The local authorities were beside themselves for they could not figure out how the wreck could be cleared away and the line reopened in less than two weeks. At this juncture Scott arrived on the scene and after a survey of the wreck sent for a great quantity of coal oil, with which he had the pile thoroughly drenched. It was then touched off, and the god of fire soon removed all traces of it, and traffic was resumed on the line in 24 hours."

"A bridge fell, and it was feared a long delay must ensue, but Scott put more than 2,000 men to work on that one structure and thus eliminated the question of delay. Those were the days when such things counted and were not only possible, but necessary. Today railroading is reduced to such a fine point that the need for them no longer exists. The roads are too safeguarded for that."

"The last instance I remember of such railroad work as that was at the Johnstown flood in 1880, I think it was. Frank Thomson, by great work and the use of one line of men, was one of the first to arrive upon the scene. Once there, he took full control, the division superintendents from all over the line were summoned, and a particular task was given to each one to do instantly. They one and all responded as best they could to the spur, and the line was reopened with incredible swiftness. There were one or two failures, however, and those men, while they were kept on as superintendents of unimportant mountain divisions, were never again promoted."—New York Tribune.

"I WIN" AND "I LOSE."

Sporting Men Ignore Their Tenes and Seem Pleasid.

"Have you ever noticed the satisfied manner of gamblers while twisting their tenes into the 'I win' and 'I lose' common to the fraternity?" remarked a man who has a fondness for investigating the peculiarities of his fellows. "I have thought of that for a long time—ever since that form of expression came into common use among gamblers. Watch the first sport you hear talking in that style and notice the pleasure he seems to take in rolling his method of expression. The more he uses evidently carries him back, and he enjoys again in the present the pleasures of the act when he speaks of it. Even if he says he 'lose' it gives him gratification, according to the philosophy of Charles Fox, who is authority for the statement that the greatest pleasure in the world, next to winning money, is to lose it."

"The ungrammatical fashion among gamblers dates back about 15 years. It seems impossible to conceive any reason for the custom other than the one I have mentioned. That form of speech is still growing in popularity. The so-called 'sporting men' have extended the scope of the present tense to all their verbs. It jars on me sometimes, but even then I find consolation in the knowledge that if the 'sports' did not affect that particular style of speech in 100 of them would do even worse, and their present picturesque defiance of grammar is a relief from the possibilities of such expressions as 'I seen' and 'I done.'"—New York Times.

HOW HE KNEW.

A ragman who was gathering up worn-out clothing in the country purchased a pair of discarded trousers at a farmhouse and remarked to the man of the house as he paid for the stuff he had bought:

"I see, sir, that you are about to lose your land on a mortgage."

"Guess you are right," said the discouraged looking farmer, "but will you tell me how the San Hill you found that out?"

"Easy enough," said the cheerful ragman as he settled back on the seat of his peddling wagon. "I notice that these old pants are completely played out so far as the part of 'em you sat down on is concerned, but they show mighty little wear anywhere else."

—Buffalo News.

THE SILENT CASHIER

Is what the busy business man terms the latest improved Cash Register. As is sometimes said of this marvelous piece of mechanism, it cannot talk or pay the bill, but to the busy man it can and does things of easily more importance. It is an infallible cashier—a rare thing by the way—a seven-day wonder. We press the button, turn the crank, and it "does the rest" namely: registers the kind and amount of your purchase, prints, dates and issues a ticket containing these facts, and the further information that the holder thereof is entitled to a rebate of 5 per cent. on cash purchases, and this is a point careful buyers do not and others should not lose sight of. We were the first to introduce this system in Salem, but all good things have imitators, and which we are told is the sincerest form of flattery. However this may be, we had and are content to have others follow. But when you want the best in the drug line, always go to the reliable, the progressive, the up-to-date, the leading drugstore of DAN'L J. FRY, 310 Commercial St.

Spend a few Minutes

Looking over our line of Furniture and our prices will convince you that we have the right goods at The Right Prices yours for bargains.

F. W. HOLLIS & CO.

FIRST DOOR NORTH OF POSTOFFICE.

A PRESBYTERIAN FOR BRYAN

One Preacher Who Will Not Stop at the Prohibition Half-Way House.

Rev. Joseph Brown Turner, pastor of the Dover Presbyterian church, Dover, Del., who has announced his intention to forsake the Republican party and support the Democratic ticket, said in an interview on Wednesday:

"I shall vote for Mr. Bryan in November, though I never before voted the Democratic ticket. While I am somewhat reticent to talk about my political relations, I see no reason why I should not candidly state some of the reasons for my personal convictions and my change of political alignment at this time."

"The ax is laid at the root of the tree under whose shadow we have sat with delight. It is a time for every man who loves free institutions and true democratic principles to speak and keep on speaking. No more precious legacy ever came to any people than that bequeathed by our forefathers to all succeeding generations of Americans. This generation is in danger of bequeathing that legacy and of casting it wholly aside."

"We have outgrown the principles of our fathers," we are told, "and we may safely discard them." We cannot keep to the old lines and continue to expand. We cannot keep inside of constitutional limitations and be a world power. Then we had better not be a world power. They one and all responded as best they could to the spur, and the line was reopened with incredible swiftness. There were one or two failures, however, and those men, while they were kept on as superintendents of unimportant mountain divisions, were never again promoted."

THEY PREFER OLD WEBFOOT

Mr. and Mrs. John Craig of Macleany who rented a piece of property in California and paid $100 cash rent down have returned to Oregon. They have concluded not to go back to California for the present.

THE HIGH STANDARD HOUSE

Better meals and for less money can be had at Strong's than at any other place in the city.

NEW TODAY.

FOR SALE—A Washburn Guitar in good order. Can be seen at 473 Front street. 10 22 31

FOR SALE—A good saddle pony for sale cheap. Enquire at No. 15 Court street. 10 22 11

FOR SALE—Well-matched span of black mares and a new Bain wagon, also range nearly new, heating stove, furniture etc. Inquire Christ Horn, 1 mile northeast of asylum. 10 22 31*

STRAYED—Light brown horse, line backed, reached forefoot star in forehead, weight 1000 pounds. Reward Address W. R. New, Salem, 10 22 31*

TO TRADE—160 acres of land in Southern Kansas to trade for a stock ranch or fruit farm. A good part of it is river bottom land. Apply to J. C. Mills, Salem, Or. 10 22 11

Have Your Piano Tuned.

Mr. Soule of Soule Bros Piano tuners arrived today. Any one wanting their piano tuned leave their order immediately at Geo. C. Will's music and sewing machine store.

Quinces in Market.

And all other fruit, groceries and provisions that you require for your table can be bought at fair prices from good BARNES & RADAN.

The Pioneer Bakery

Has been enlarged, has a new oven, and we are serving our customers with the best of bread, biscuits, pies and cakes baked fresh each day.

WESTCOTT & STOLZ.

Don't Forget

When you are going East to take the best road. That means to go via the Northern Pacific.

This company runs two through vestibule trains daily between Portland and St. Paul. Leaves Portland at 2 p. m. and 11:30 p. m. 10 16 14

Cider Barrels.

I have a lot of barrels and kegs suitable for cider, wine or vinegar. Call on J. F. Rogers, 218-222 Comm., St. 10 9 11

For Sale.

100 cords ash wood delivered in quantities to suit. Apply to, Crystal Lake Works, 19th and State streets. Telephone 2971. 10-12 11

New Military Department.

Mrs. D. L. Fleisher has opened up a military department in Greenbaum's Dry Goods Store, where she will be pleased to see all her old friends and patrons.

F. A. WIGGINS

307 Commercial Street.

Carbide for your gas lamp, two pounds for 25 cents.

which we have been led to an ambitious leadership, lusting for power and hiding its purpose behind a wordy fog of pious and patriotic cant.

"This is why I am willing to speak. This is why I shall cast my ballot for William J. Bryan against William McKinley."

"They say that Mr. Bryan is not a safe man. Possibly he is not. But when I find one man engaged in breaking the furniture of my house, while another is setting fire to the house itself, I will attend to the fire first. I do not believe, though, that Mr. Bryan is an unsafe man. His utterances during the whole of this campaign have been statesmanlike and every word has rung true. His Indianapolis speech is the noblest utterance this nation has ever heard since Lincoln spoke at Gettysburg."

If he is elected we will be spared the repetition of the shameful spectacle of an administration endeavoring in an official capacity to perpetrate itself. He says he will not accept a second nomination, and I believe him. He speaks like an honest, straightforward, God-fearing man.

which we have been led to an ambitious leadership, lusting for power and hiding its purpose behind a wordy fog of pious and patriotic cant.

"This is why I am willing to speak. This is why I shall cast my ballot for William J. Bryan against William McKinley."

"They say that Mr. Bryan is not a safe man. Possibly he is not. But when I find one man engaged in breaking the furniture of my house, while another is setting fire to the house itself, I will attend to the fire first. I do not believe, though, that Mr. Bryan is an unsafe man. His utterances during the whole of this campaign have been statesmanlike and every word has rung true. His Indianapolis speech is the noblest utterance this nation has ever heard since Lincoln spoke at Gettysburg."

If he is elected we will be spared the repetition of the shameful spectacle of an administration endeavoring in an official capacity to perpetrate itself. He says he will not accept a second nomination, and I believe him. He speaks like an honest, straightforward, God-fearing man.

which we have been led to an ambitious leadership, lusting for power and hiding its purpose behind a wordy fog of pious and patriotic cant.

"This is why I am willing to speak. This is why I shall cast my ballot for William J. Bryan against William McKinley."

"They say that Mr. Bryan is not a safe man. Possibly he is not. But when I find one man engaged in breaking the furniture of my house, while another is setting fire to the house itself, I will attend to the fire first. I do not believe, though, that Mr. Bryan is an unsafe man. His utterances during the whole of this campaign have been statesmanlike and every word has rung true. His Indianapolis speech is the noblest utterance this nation has ever heard since Lincoln spoke at Gettysburg."

If he is elected we will be spared the repetition of the shameful spectacle of an administration endeavoring in an official capacity to perpetrate itself. He says he will not accept a second nomination, and I believe him. He speaks like an honest, straightforward, God-fearing man.

which we have been led to an ambitious leadership, lusting for power and hiding its purpose behind a wordy fog of pious and patriotic cant.

"This is why I am willing to speak. This is why I shall cast my ballot for William J. Bryan against William McKinley."

"They say that Mr. Bryan is not a safe man. Possibly he is not. But when I find one man engaged in breaking the furniture of my house, while another is setting fire to the house itself, I will attend to the fire first. I do not believe, though, that Mr. Bryan is an unsafe man. His utterances during the whole of this campaign have been statesmanlike and every word has rung true. His Indianapolis speech is the noblest utterance this nation has ever heard since Lincoln spoke at Gettysburg."

If he is elected we will be spared the repetition of the shameful spectacle of an administration endeavoring in an official capacity to perpetrate itself. He says he will not accept a second nomination, and I believe him. He speaks like an honest, straightforward, God-fearing man.

which we have been led to an ambitious leadership, lusting for power and hiding its purpose behind a wordy fog of pious and patriotic cant.

"This is why I am willing to speak. This is why I shall cast my ballot for William J. Bryan against William McKinley."

"They say that Mr. Bryan is not a safe man. Possibly he is not. But when I find one man engaged in breaking the furniture of my house, while another is setting fire to the house itself, I will attend to the fire first. I do not believe, though, that Mr. Bryan is an unsafe man. His utterances during the whole of this campaign have been statesmanlike and every word has rung true. His Indianapolis speech is the noblest utterance this nation has ever heard since Lincoln spoke at Gettysburg."

If he is elected we will be spared the repetition of the shameful spectacle of an administration endeavoring in an official capacity to perpetrate itself. He says he will not accept a second nomination, and I believe him. He speaks like an honest, straightforward, God-fearing man.

which we have been led to an ambitious leadership, lusting for power and hiding its purpose behind a wordy fog of pious and patriotic cant.

"This is why I am willing to speak. This is why I shall cast my ballot for William J. Bryan against William McKinley."

"They say that Mr. Bryan is not a safe man. Possibly he is not. But when I find one man engaged in breaking the furniture of my house, while another is setting fire to the house itself, I will attend to the fire first. I do not believe, though, that Mr. Bryan is an unsafe man. His utterances during the whole of this campaign have been statesmanlike and every word has rung true. His Indianapolis speech is the noblest utterance this nation has ever heard since Lincoln spoke at Gettysburg."

If he is elected we will be spared the repetition of the shameful spectacle of an administration endeavoring in an official capacity to perpetrate itself. He says he will not accept a second nomination, and I believe him. He speaks like an honest, straightforward, God-fearing man.

which we have been led to an ambitious leadership, lusting for power and hiding its purpose behind a wordy fog of pious and patriotic cant.

"This is why I am willing to speak. This is why I shall cast my ballot for William J. Bryan against William McKinley."

"They say that Mr. Bryan is not a safe man. Possibly he is not. But when I find one man engaged in breaking the furniture of my house, while another is setting fire to the house itself, I will attend to the fire first. I do not believe, though, that Mr. Bryan is an unsafe man. His utterances during the whole of this campaign have been statesmanlike and every word has rung true. His Indianapolis speech is the noblest utterance this nation has ever heard since Lincoln spoke at Gettysburg."

If he is elected we will be spared the repetition of the shameful spectacle of an administration endeavoring in an official capacity to perpetrate itself. He says he will not accept a second nomination, and I believe him. He speaks like an honest, straightforward, God-fearing man.

which we have been led to an ambitious leadership, lusting for power and hiding its purpose behind a wordy fog of pious and patriotic cant.

"This is why I am willing to speak. This is why I shall cast my ballot for William J. Bryan against William McKinley."

"They say that Mr. Bryan is not a safe man. Possibly he is not. But when I find one man engaged in breaking the furniture of my house, while another is setting fire to the house itself, I will attend to the fire first. I do not believe, though, that Mr. Bryan is an unsafe man. His utterances during the whole of this campaign have been statesmanlike and every word has rung true. His Indianapolis speech is the noblest utterance this nation has ever heard since Lincoln spoke at Gettysburg."

If he is elected we will be spared the repetition of the shameful spectacle of an administration endeavoring in an official capacity to perpetrate itself. He says he will not accept a second nomination, and I believe him. He speaks like an honest, straightforward, God-fearing man.

which we have been led to an ambitious leadership, lusting for power and hiding its purpose behind a wordy fog of pious and patriotic cant.

"This is why I am willing to speak. This is why I shall cast my ballot for William J. Bryan against William McKinley."

"They say that Mr. Bryan is not a safe man. Possibly he is not. But when I find one man engaged in breaking the furniture of my house, while another is setting fire to the house itself, I will attend to the fire first. I do not believe, though, that Mr. Bryan is an unsafe man. His utterances during the whole of this campaign have been statesmanlike and every word has rung true. His Indianapolis speech is the noblest utterance this nation has ever heard since Lincoln spoke at Gettysburg."

If he is elected we will be spared the repetition of the shameful spectacle of an administration endeavoring in an official capacity to perpetrate itself. He says he will not accept a second nomination, and I believe him. He speaks like an honest, straightforward, God-fearing man.

which we have been led to an ambitious leadership, lusting for power and hiding its purpose behind a wordy fog of pious and patriotic cant.

"This is why I am willing to speak. This is why I shall cast my ballot for William J. Bryan against William McKinley."

"They say that Mr. Bryan is not a safe man. Possibly he is not. But when I find one man engaged in breaking the furniture of my house, while another is setting fire to the house itself, I will attend to the fire first. I do not believe, though, that Mr. Bryan is an unsafe man. His utterances during the whole of this campaign have been statesmanlike and every word has rung true. His Indianapolis speech is the noblest utterance this nation has ever heard since Lincoln spoke at Gettysburg."

If he is elected we will be spared the repetition of the shameful spectacle of an administration endeavoring in an official capacity to perpetrate itself. He says he will not accept a second nomination, and I believe him. He speaks like an honest, straightforward, God-fearing man.

which we have been led to an ambitious leadership, lusting for power and hiding its purpose behind a wordy fog of pious and patriotic cant.

"This is why I am willing to speak. This is why I shall cast my ballot for William J. Bryan against William McKinley."

"They say that Mr. Bryan is not a safe man. Possibly he is not. But when I find one man engaged in breaking the furniture of my house, while another is setting fire to the house itself, I will attend to the fire first. I do not believe, though, that Mr. Bryan is an unsafe man. His utterances during the whole of this campaign have been statesmanlike and every word has rung true. His Indianapolis speech is the noblest utterance this nation has ever heard since Lincoln spoke at Gettysburg."

If he is elected we will be spared the repetition of the shameful spectacle of an administration endeavoring in an official capacity to perpetrate itself. He says he will not accept a second nomination, and I believe him. He speaks like an honest, straightforward, God-fearing man.

which we have been led to an ambitious leadership, lusting for power and hiding its purpose behind a wordy fog of pious and patriotic cant.

"This is why I am willing to speak. This is why I shall cast my ballot for William J. Bryan against William McKinley."

"They say that Mr. Bryan is not a safe man. Possibly he is not. But when I find one man engaged in breaking the furniture of my house, while another is setting fire to the house itself, I will attend to the fire first. I do not believe, though, that Mr. Bryan is an unsafe man. His utterances during the whole of this campaign have been statesmanlike and every word has rung true. His Indianapolis speech is the noblest utterance this nation has ever heard since Lincoln spoke at Gettysburg."

If he is elected we will be spared the repetition of the shameful spectacle of an administration endeavoring in an official capacity to perpetrate itself. He says he will not accept a second nomination, and I believe him. He speaks like an honest, straightforward, God-fearing man.

which we have been led to an ambitious leadership, lusting for power and hiding its purpose behind a wordy fog of pious and patriotic cant.

"This is why I am willing to speak. This is why I shall cast my ballot for William J. Bryan against William McKinley."

"They say that Mr. Bryan is not a safe man. Possibly he is not. But when I find one man engaged in breaking the furniture of my house, while another is setting fire to the house itself, I will attend to the fire first. I do not believe, though, that Mr. Bryan is an unsafe man. His utterances during the whole of this campaign have been statesmanlike and every word has rung true. His Indianapolis speech is the noblest utterance this nation has ever heard since Lincoln spoke at Gettysburg."

If he is elected we will be spared the repetition of the shameful spectacle of an administration endeavoring in an official capacity to perpetrate itself. He says he will not accept a second nomination, and I believe him. He speaks like an honest, straightforward, God-fearing man.

Our Specials Note these extremely low prices and tag of them: A good Mackintosh for $1.50. Gentleman's latest styles of Box Coats for $3.00. All Wool Serge suits $8.50 and up. A splendid line of suits at $5.00, $6.00 and $6.50. We are headquarters for overcoats and can give them to you from $4.50 to $18.00. Ask to see them. Just finishing our lot of Campaign Hats, are offering them at extra low prices and the way they are going it will be hard to judge which way the election will turn. We are now offering the remains of our capes and jackets at prices that will pay you to investigate. A well line of skirts in all the latest colors. Some nice ones for $1.50, $1.75 and up. You will find a splendid assortment of dry goods, furnishing goods, etc., at Friedman's New Racket Store.

Cor. State and Com. Sts. Salem Or.

WE ARE SELLING

High grade dry goods at low grade prices. The store is being rapidly depleted. We have good all wool dress goods. Fine Silks, rich velvets, good underwear, hosiery, corsets and gloves, nice lines of ribbons and laces, umbrellas and mackintoshes. Hats, caps and shoes.

ISADORE GREENBAUM

First Door South of the Postoffice.

STOVES

Prepare for Winter

By buying a new stove or having the old one relined. We have a large assortment of Heaters and Steel Ranges which we offer at low prices. Repairs made, pipes supplied and stoves set up on short notice. Your patronage solicited.

STEINER & BERGER

140 STATE ST.

MT. ANGEL COLLEGE AND SEMINARY

Conducted by the Benedictine Fathers. The Ideal Place for Your Boys. WILL REOPEN SEPTEMBER 5, 1900

BUSINESS Education

AT THE CAPITAL BUSINESS COLLEGE, SALEM, OREGON.

The present year, you will find here skillful teachers, correct methods and modern equipment. Students admitted at any time. Visitors welcome. For illustrated catalogue address, W. L. STALEY, Principal, Salem, Oregon.

MISS EVA F. COX

Teacher of PIANO AND ORGAN

Also classes in sight reading. Studio No 333 Front Street, Salem, Oregon.

MISS BEATRICE SHELTON

Teacher of PIANO AND ORGAN

Also classes in sight reading. Studio, 478 Front street, Salem, Oregon, 9 1911

Miss Bertha H. Hubbard

PIANIST

Pupils accepted at any time. Residence 1 block west of North School, Salem, Oregon.

N. W. N. COLLEGE OF MUSIC AND ART

A. J. Garland, Pres. Literary Dept. Z. M. Farvin, Mus. Dep. Director of Department of Music.

Full courses in the principal branches of music and art. First term begins Monday Sept. 5. Send for circular to Miss Ida M. F. D. Music room No. 7, Pastors Bldg.

Northwestern Normal School and Business College

Salem Oregon
Term opens Sept. 24.

Complete courses of study Normal, Business, Common School, High School, Education, Music and Art. Full Faculty. Satisfactory work. Send for circular.

A. J. GARLAND, A. M. Principal.

American Laundry

Owned and operated by American Work first class. Give it your patronage. Main office and laundry at 100 Church street. Telephone Main 224. Branch office, Winnet Clear Street. Fair Ground Store, New Park Green. Allen & Bowersox, State Street.