

Weak Girls

Parents, look to the health of your daughters as they approach that perilous period of their lives when they undergo that marvelous transformation from girlhood to womanhood. Guard them closely, their whole future depends upon the care you give them. In fact, the system is weakened by the changes that are taking place, and it is because of this that the deadly consumption fastens upon its victims. The cause of the majority of weaknesses of women can be traced to this critical period of the girl's life.

ABOUT two years ago my daughter, who was then in her sixteenth year, was in best health. She was pale and thin, without strength or vitality, in fact her condition was that which is generally called an run down. We were, of course, worried about her, and employed the best physicians to attend her. They studied her case and although they did everything possible, gave her no relief which was permanent. The late Dr. Angel had first called my attention to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and my wife had heard that these were the primary cause of her trouble was removed and she showed a decided gain in health, strength and flesh.

A great many people will buy a medicine and take a few doses. Then if they are not cured they throw it aside as no good, or take it spasmodically. We believe in a fair trial in strict accordance with directions and our faithfulness was rewarded, for she is now a healthy, robust girl, and her color came to her cheeks and she continued to gain in weight and strength. So you see both myself and my wife believe in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and have found them a wonderful medicine. We have told a great many people about them and have been glad to do so.

GOVERNMENT MUST MEAN SOMETHING.
Our point is overlooked by many in discussing the merits of the present Salem Citizens' administration. That is that it has done something. Republicanism or Democracy are meaningless terms unless they can show works in the way of better government, reducing expenses, improving the public service, or adopting new policies that give increased satisfaction to the citizen who pays the bills.

A Republican administration that could show the record of works that the Businessmen's city government has accomplished for the past two years in Salem would have no trouble in being returned to office. So it is not politics that stands in the way of a Republican party victory at the polls here next month. Republican party administration went out of power here because the then Republican mayor said the city could not be run for less money, because it was a fact that the city debt was piling up at a rate of about ten thousand a year, and the city bosses showed no alarm about this state of practical insolvency.

Shrinking from such a confession of incapacity in public affairs the people turned the Richardson government out of power and put in a non-partisan administration upon distinct pledges of reforms that have been kept to the letter. Now they are asked to return that regime and close their eyes to the facts of the case, that a deficit has been replaced by a surplus, that a dwindling income gives way to increased revenue, and that a mountain of debt is rapidly disappearing before the onslaught of sound finance and common business honesty.

Business men and young men who have some pride in progress and some reliance on processes of ordinary intelligence want government to stand for something. The empty honor of voting a party ticket merely to give some fellow partisan a pull at the public test does not inspire them to the highest civic enthusiasm. Because an applicant is in debt to hundreds of people who would vote for him to get their bills paid, a man might be elected as an object of political

Large Petition For Present City Council

Also Acceptances From the Gentlemen to Serve Another Term on the Old Conditions

The Petition.

To Hon. C. P. Bishop Mayor; N. J. Smith, Recorder; D. W. Gibson, Marshal; John Blair, Treasurer; E. P. Walker, Alderman First Ward; S. A. Riggs, Alderman Second Ward; George Oritz, Alderman Third Ward; George Oritz, Alderman Fourth Ward, Salem, Oregon.

Gentlemen—Your careful, prudent and economical conduct of our city affairs for the past two years, meets with the unqualified endorsement of the taxpayers of Salem.

Instead of an $8000 deficit as heretofore, you have by your prudent management saved to the tax payers more than that amount annually.

You have kept your pledges to the property owners in every particular and by a continuation of your methods we are hopeful that in due time we may liquidate our incumbrance of indebtedness and be free from the former certainty of municipal bankruptcy.

Having begun the good work, we do not wish to turn back until we realize its full consummation.

The absurd cry of politics should deceive no one, any more than in the management of another corporation.

Politics in this matter is the cry of the self-seeker.

We have already tried that and it led us to the verge of financial ruin.

We desire in the interest of every taxpayer in Salem, to continue the methods which you have pursued for the two past years, and we hereby solicit your candidacy for re-election to the same positions in our city government which you have so honestly and ably filled for the last two years.

To the Hon. Gideon Stots and John Krasnow:

GENTLEMEN—The undersigned citizens of the city of Salem, Oregon, regardless of political affiliations, having an abiding faith in your competency, honesty and regard for proper economy, hereby petition you to serve as councilmen of the 3rd ward for the coming year.

OREGON VS NEBRASKA

Wait of an Immigrant who Don't Like Rain.

A Potato Story From the Country Where it is dry Sometimes Reply to Webfoot Land.

A Salem real-estate man has received a Nebraska newspaper containing the following poem. Evidently it was sent to some one at his old home town by an immigrant from that section who struck the rainy season in Oregon and has not been here long enough to thoroughly appreciate its merits as a feature of our climate:

Webfoot Land.
Tunk, Webfoot Land.

I've reached the land of mud and rain,
I've struggled long to find a gain,
And now that I have reached the spot,
I often wish that I had not.

Oh, Webfoot Land, webfoot land,
As in my home I findly stand
And gaze without, thro' dripping rain,
And long to see the sun again,
I surely wish that I could fly
To lands where it is sometimes dry.

It rains at noon, it rains at eve,
It rains at noon, there's no reprieve;
Day after day it's just the same,
I wonder why I ever came.

It does no good to kick or swear,
To throw your boots or tear your hair,
To sky to blue a single day,
You wish to go and see a friend,
It always rains, on that dead end,
And if you wish to go to town
You need to wear a rubber gown.

Sometimes the mud is rather wet
And so you think a cab you'll get;
And when you've rode miles or two,
You wish you'd walked, indeed you do.

And if you stop an hour or two,
And old King Sol the clouds beat thro'
The people say, "Well, I'll allow
We're going to have good weather now."

They wouldn't lie, oh mercy no!
They simply have forgot, you know,
And when dry weather comes again
They say, "I think we're needing rain."

They fold their hands upon their knees,
And laugh and talk and take their ease,
They leave their apples in the trees,
And dig potatoes when they please.

People ride about in packs
With green moss growing on their backs
And umbrellas on their nose,
And rubber coats down to their toes.

With green moss hanging on their clothes,
And on their feet, so I've been told,
(Perchance I'm true, perchance I'm sold)
A sort of weedy substance grows.

I'm tired and sick and very cross,
I hate the sight of mud and moss;
My bones ache, my joints they swell,
'Tis rheumatism I know full well.

If ever I do get the cash
For eastern land I'll make a dash;
I'll live where I the sun can view,
And have my clothes look nice and new.

THE BEST Washing Powder

In mind of where we first heard that song sung.

A Reply to "Webfoot Land."

This tenderfoot he had it bad:
If he's gone East, I don't make up sad,
We've seen too many of his kind,
And heard the way they kicked and whined.

They see so little where they're raised
That can be loved or even praised,
That pessimism holds them fast,
And they'll be hussies to the last.

No matter where their homes may be,
The good at hand they never see;
But always sigh with mournful face
The prison of some fair place.

To this fair land they sometimes come,
With fretful tones and faces grim,
And e'er they eat their first square meal
They're looking for a chance to squel.

If they arrive in early spring
It is for them a fearful thing,
For half a year there's no excuse
This lovely country to traduce!

The climate is the very best
In all this nation; East or West,
North, South or middle—where you please,
You neither roast, nor do you freeze.

The soil is rich; crops never fail;
No blight or blizzard, giant hail,
Cyclone or lightning, drought or flood,
Makes harried farmers sweat their blood.

Cattle upon a thousand hills
Range free from famine and the ills
Which sorely beset less favored climes.
The farmer seldom feels hard times.

As e'er our critic, in one verse,
Acknowledges in language terse:
"They'll have their apples on the trees,
And dig potatoes when they please."

Contagious sickness, fevers, "shakes"
And such, are here less considered lakes.
Employment plenty; wages fair;
Hope permeates the very air.

The "chronics," coming to the West,
Month after month keep up their quest
For something about which to howl
And whine and caterwall and yowl.

Their search is fruitless, efforts vain,
"Till winter comes and ebbs the rain.
At last, at last! Their faces thin
Are lighted with sardonic grin.

With one accord they tune the lyre

STOLE WHILE UNDER BONDS

Frank Boydston, of Independence, is again in the clutches of the law. It will be remembered that he was arrested here a few weeks ago and taken to Dallas and there given a preliminary examination on a charge of uttering a forged check. He was bound over to the circuit court at that time, but bonds were furnished. He was arrested again in Salem and on Friday was taken back to Independence to answer the charge of stealing $25 belonging to his father. The young fellow is about 20 years of age.

PLAY FOOTBALL AT MONMOUTH

A crowd of students went to Monmouth this morning to play a game of football with the Normal school boys. They went in the four-horse carry-all from the Basey stables, driven by Tom Fokhart.

How Will She End?

Just landing into womanhood, so fresh, so fair and fine that we turn to watch her as she passes, she trips along the street a picture of health and beauty. Among the passing crowd of worn and wrinkled women, she looks a being from another world. Will she ever be like them? Could they once have been as fair as she? No beauty can last under the strain and drain of female weakness, from which the majority of women suffer in a greater or less degree. They might preserve their fairness of face and form if they would cure the disastrous diseases which affect the womanly organs. Women are cured of such diseases by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It stops the interfering drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures bearing-down pains, strengthens the nervous system, and restores the general health. It contains no opium, cocaine or other narcotic.

"I had been a great sufferer from female weakness," writes Mrs. J. B. Wallace, of Muskegon, Mich. "I tried five doctors and none did me any good. I suffered six years, and at last I got Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and took eight bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and four of his 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I now feel like a new woman. I have gained eighteen pounds."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure biliousness.
