Mr. Balley received a letter from Washington county some little time ago, in which the statement was made that the pie was not what it should be. The dealer made complaint that the so called famous mince meat had made several of his customers sick, and when the company was notified of this fact, they issued an order requesting him to return the unsold cans. This he did and Food Commissioner Bailey secured a can of it. Mr. Bailey caused a portion of it to be examined by a chemist, and the expert pronounced it adulterated and dangerous to health,

Mr. and Mrs. Fernando Shanks, formerly of Mt. Angel, but now of Arlington, Oregon, met with a great loss in the death of their only child, little Kenneth, which occurred last Sunday at II o'clock a. m.

On the 14th the little one complained of not feeling well and soon symptoms of illness developed, which proved to be a severe case of measles. The little fellow seemed to be animated by a heroie determination to conquer the disease and with careful treatment and nursing succeeded, but before health was restored he was stricken with spinal meningitis. Slowly and sadly hope for the little one's recovery grew less, until almost midday, when the sun was filling the world about him with bright radiance, in which he had been wont to play with glad beart and happy mind, he quietly ceased to breathe, and the The Missiouri Penitentiary is self-suslight of his young life went out from the taining.
