BOILED CABBAGE.

The Czar's condition continues favorable. Prince Alexander Imeritinsky, governor General of Warsaw, died yesterday at St. Petersburg.

British had five killed and 50 wounded in the fighting with Vlijfen and Erasmus Commandos near Beitlenhof, November 29.

Fulton, Ky., was visited by a fire early this morning that destroyed twenty establishments and caused a loss of $250,000.

The award of the Swiss government in France Brazilian boundary dispute gives Brazil 147,000 square miles north of the Tuncne Hoemne range.

"Nosed Him Out." In "The Arguments of California" Dr. C. W. Haskins tells a good story of snarkism. In one of the maling districts near Sacramento a storekeeper received a barrel of provisions which seemed to be spoiled, to judge by the smell. Instead of throwing it away, he thrust it into one corner of a shed, where waste and rubbish were piled upon it.

One day a burly, dust covered Dutchman entered the store.

"I want me some dot," pointing toward the shed.

"What is dot?" inquired the storekeeper.

"I shows you," said the miner. "You must come mit me." And to the shed they went, where, pointing to the rubbish heap, the Dutchman explained.

"Some of dot is dese was at I wants." Boxes and barrels were removed, and the condemned barrel was exposed.

But when the miner eagerly pointed to it the trader told him it was spoiled meat, not fit to eat.

"I knows better as dot," said the Dutchman. "You bust him in und I shows you."

An ax was brought and the barrel "busted in," when, instead of spoiled meat, there was revealed some good, old fashioned sauerkraut, made in Holland and shipped around Cape Horn.

"I knows it," said the delighted miner. "I nose him out!"

The sauerkraut sold readily at a dollar a pound and was in great demand. The Dutch miners heard of it and walked 10 and 15 miles to get a taste of the dainty.

A Slave's Cargo. From the time we first got on board the slave, says J. Taylor Wood in The Atlantic, had we heard moans, cries and rumblings coming from below, and as soon as the captain and crew were removed the hatches had been taken off, when there arose a hot blast as from a charnel house, sickening and overpowering. In the hold were 300 human beings, crisscrossed, struggling for breath, dying, their bodies, limbs and faces all expressing terrible suffering.

In their agonizing fight for life some had torn or wounded themselves or their neighbors dreadfully; some were stifled in the most unnatural positions.

As soon as I knew the condition of things I went the boat back for the doctor and some whiskey. He returned, bringing also the captain, and for an hour or more we were all hard at work lifting and helping the poor creatures on deck, where they were laid out in rows. A little water and stimulant revived most of them. Some, however, were dead or too far gone to be resuscitated.

The doctor worked earnestly over each one, but 17 were beyond human skill. As fast as he pronounced them dead they were quickly dropped overboard.

The "King of Rome." What became of Napoleon's son is a question often asked, as little mention is made in history of the young prince, the desire of his father's life, who was born March 20, 1811, amid great rejoicing in Paris and hailed as the "king of Rome."

In January, 1814, Napoleon embraced his wife and child for the last time, and this really ended the reign of the little king "who never saw his kingdom." He was reared in the Austrian court under the name of Duke of Reichstadt and grew to be a handsome young fellow and quite a brilliant scholar.

He had one short year of military life, and then contracted pulmonary disease, from which he died in his twenty-second year. He worshiped the memory of his father and always spent the anniversary of his death, July 22, in his own rooms. He is buried in the Capuchin monastery of Vienna, which is the Austrian Westminster abbey.

How Masks Are Made. Paper masks are made by doubling one sheet of a specially prepared paper, wetting it and molding it by hand over a face which it is then dried by artificial heat. Openings are cut for eyes, nose and mouth, and it is painted and decorated by hand as desired.

Wire masks are made by stamping a piece of wire netting about a foot square over a face mold in a large machine, including the rough wire edges in a narrow strip of lead. Then it is painted. The painting is done by hand in oil colors.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Most Discriminate. "For mercy's sake, Mildred," exclaimed Mrs. Highmore, shocked at the ungilded attire of her youngest daughter, who had gone to the front door to look at a fire on the other side of the street. "don't you know you never ought to appear in public with your call unbought and your sleeves rolled up except when you are playing golf?"—Chicago Tribune.

FILIPINO CONDITIONS DISTRESSING.

As Miserable As Cuba Before the United States Took Hold.

New York, Dec. 1.—Sixty Lopez, the former private secretary of Senor Aguinaldo, who was the Philippine Commissioner to the United States in the city, Lopez has had several conferences with prominent men since his arrival from Boston concerning the situation in the Philippines.

"The war in the Philippines will continue," he said last night, "until some declaration of definite policy looking toward an independent government for the islands is made in the United States. The condition of the people in the Philippines is deplorable. It is as miserable as that of the Cubans before the United States went to their rescue."

SUNDAY SCHOOL CENSUS.

City Will Be Canvassed Next Wednesday Afternoon by the Sunday School Union.

On next Wednesday afternoon the Salem Sunday School Union will make a house to house canvass of the city and take a complete census of its inhabitants, similar to that taken last year. This year, however, advantage will be taken of last year's experience, and it is expected that by the system employed, the complete census will be taken in about five hours. The city has been divided into small districts and active canvassers assigned to each.

A meeting will be held Monday evening, in the parlors of the First Presbyterian church, when the final arrangements will be perfected.

GRAND OPENING GRAND-OPERA HOUSE

C White and Miss Pelland of Gervais, Mr and Mrs J. C. Thompson. One box was occupied by a Portland party: Mrs John F. Cordray and Mrs Oliver Season; A. D. Charlton, N. P. Ry; H. C. Powers, Hotel Portland; W. H. Mead, C. & N. W. Ry; Mr Vogt.

Manager Cordray is highly pleased with his first experience with a Salem audience, and speaks in glowing terms of the appearance and the perfect decorum of the people. There was no confusion, no running out and in, and what aroused Mr. Cordray's admiration most was that the people kept their seats at the last until the curtain was down, courteously refraining from marling the pleasure of others by jumping up and preparing to leave before the curtain had reached the stage.

Tonight the "Little Tycoon" will be given. The prices will be: Orchestra $1; dress circle 75c; first two rows in balcony circle 75c; last two rows 50c; gallery 25c.

Mass at Brooks.

DOCTORS USE PE-RU-NA.

DR. J. W. PENCE, NEWARK, OHIO.

NEWARK, OHIO.
S. B. Hartman, M. D., Columbus, O.:
It is now seventeen years since I received the first edition of your book entitled "The Ills of Life." I received it in the evening mail, and before I retired I read and pondered over every word in the book. I was greatly impressed with your candor and sincerity. The book left no doubt in my mind as to the remarkable virtues of your Pe-Ru-NA. It was because of this impression that I resolved I would test your assertions, and test them in a way that could leave no doubt.

I began prescribing Pe-Ru-NA, as recommended in your book, and prescribed it precisely as you directed. As you know, the prevailing diseases are inflammations or irritations of the internal organs of the body, either of the head, the throat, the lungs, bowels, etc. I prescribed it hundreds of times for these diseases during all the following seventeen years, and I have never lost a single case during all this time, although I have often related this to my medical associates, who at first expressed their doubts, and sometimes very emphatically, but after I had treated a large number of cases that had been given up, and cured them, they began to believe what I said.

I rely so wholly upon Pe-Ru-NA in every disease that affects the mucous membranes lining the internal organs, that I never for a moment think of prescribing anything else. Since using Pe-Ru-NA, I have never had a patient die from inflammation of the lungs, bladder, bowels, stomach or kidneys. Every case recovered in a very short time. In other words, I prescribed Pe-Ru-NA for all cases of catarrhal diseases. I believe you are right in classing all irritations and inflammations of the internal organs as catarrh. Catarrh means irritation and inflammation of some mucous surface, and also that such irritation and inflammation are caused either by taking cold, or by some local cause.

I see that you generally use a portrait when you publish a certificate, and as I have just had some pictures taken, I enclose you one. You can use it and this letter, one, or both, just as you wish, if you think it will promote the use of Pe-Ru-NA. If you would like special cases that I have treated with Pe-Ru-NA, I can give you hundreds of them.

Very truly yours, Dr. J. W. Pence.

A. W. Perrin, M. D., 980 Halsey street, Brooklyn, N. Y., in a recent letter to Dr. Hartman says the following:

"I am using your Pe-Ru-NA myself, and am recommending it to my patients in all cases of catarrh, and find it to be more than you represent. Pe-Ru-NA can be had now of all druggists in this section; at A. W. Perrin, M. D., in the time I began using it, it was unknown."

Send for winter catarrh book. Address The Pe-Ru-NA Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio.
