

HAY-PAUNCEFOTE TREATY PASSED
Adopted in the Senate by a Vote of 55 to 18.

Both Oregon Senators Recorded in Favor of the Measure.

After spending the greater part of last week in considering the Hay Pauncefote treaty for a modification of the Clayton-Bulwer convention of 1850, the senate consumed only one hour and 10 minutes in amending it, and ratifying it as amended. During that time there were several roll calls and viva voce votes.

The first vote of the roll calls were on amendments offered by individual senators, and the last one on a resolution to ratify the treaty as amended. All the amendments, except those offered by Senator Forsaker and reported by the committee on foreign relations, were voted down by majorities averaging about 10. The ratification resolution was adopted by a vote of 55 to 18.

The vote upon the treaty itself is as follows:

Yeas—Aldrich, Allison, Bacon, Beveridge, Burrows, Carter, Chandler, Clay, Cullom, Deboe, Dillingham, Elkins, Fairbanks, Forsaker, Foster, Frye, Gallinger, Hale, Hanna, Hansbrough, Harri-son, Hawley, Hoar, Jones (Nev.), Keam, Kenney, Lindsay, Lodge, McBrigg, McComas, McCumber, McHenry, McLaurin, McMillan, Mallory, Morgan, Nelson, Penrose, Perkins, Pettus, Platt (N. Y.), Pritchard, Proctor, Charles, Scott, Shoup, Spooner, Stewart, Sullivan, Tallator, Thurston, Turner, Warren, Wetmore, Wolcott.—55.

Nays—Allen, Bard, Bate, Berry, Butler, Cockrell, Culberson, Daniel, Holtfeldt, Mason, Money, Pettigrew, Teller, Tillman, Turley, Vest, Wellington.—18.

Pairs on the treaty vote were as follows: Two Senators for the treaty being paired with one against it, in accordance with custom:

Depew and Sewall for, with Rawlins against; Clark and Simon for, with Chilton against; Dooliver and Baker for, with Towne against; Caffery and Platt (Conn.) for, with Jones (Ark.) against; Kyle and an unpaired. He was for the treaty, but no pair could be secured for him.

The pairs on the votes on the amendments were as follows:

Chilton for with Simon against; Rawlins for with Depew against; Kenney for with Sewall against; Allen for with Dooliver against; Jones (Ark.) for with Platt (Conn.) against; Holtfeldt for with Kyle against; Harris for with Clark against; Caffery and Baker absent and unpaired.

The text of the treaty as amended, follows:

Article 1.—It is agreed that the canal, under the auspices of the Government of the United States, either directly at its own cost or by gift or loan of money to individuals or corporations, or through subscription to or purchase of stock or shares, and that subject to the provisions of the present convention, the Government shall have and enjoy all the rights incident to such construction, regulation and management of the canal.

Article 2.—The high contracting parties desiring to preserve and maintain the general principles of neutralization established in article eight of the Clayton-Bulwer convention, which convention is hereby superseded, adopt as a basis of such neutralization the following rules substantially as embodied in the convention between Great Britain and certain other Powers, signed at Constantinople October 29, 1858, for the free navigation of the Suez Marine Canal, that is to say:

"1.—The Canal shall be free and open, in time of war as in time of peace, to the vessels of commerce and of war of all nations, on terms of entire equality, so that there shall be no discrimination against any nation or its citizens or subjects in respect of condition or charges of traffic or otherwise."

"2.—The Canal shall never be blockaded nor shall any right of way be exercised, nor any act of hostility be committed within it.

"3.—Vessels of war of a belligerent shall not be allowed to take any stores in the Canal, except so far as may be strictly necessary, and the transit of such vessels through the Canal shall be effected with the least possible delay in accordance with the regulations in force, and with only such intimation as may result from the necessities of the service. Prizes shall be in all respects subject to the same rules as vessels of war of belligerents.

"4.—No belligerent shall embark or disembark troops, munitions of war or warlike materials in the Canal, except in the case of accident and hindrance of transit, and in such case transit shall be resumed with all possible despatch.

"5.—The provisions of this article shall apply to the waters adjacent to the canal within three marine miles of the opposite ends. Vessels of war of a belligerent shall not remain in such waters longer than twenty-four hours at any one time, except in distress, and in such case shall depart as soon as possible. A vessel of war of one belligerent shall not depart within twenty-four hours of the departure of that of another belligerent. It is agreed, however, that none of the immediate foregoing conditions and stipulations in section 1, numbered one, two, three, four and five of this article shall apply to measures which the United States may find it necessary to take for securing for its own forces the defense of the United States and the maintenance of public order.

"6.—The plant, estimates, buildings and all works necessary to the construction and operation of the Canal shall be deemed to be a part thereof, for the purposes of this convention, and in time of war as in time of peace shall enjoy complete immunity from attack or injury by belligerents, and from acts calculated to impair their usefulness as a part of the Canal.

"7.—No fortifications shall be erected commanding the Canal or waters adjacent. The United States however, shall be at liberty to maintain such military police along the Canal as may be necessary to protect it against lawlessness and disorder.

"8.—Section 1. The canal shall be free and open in time of war, as in time of peace, to the vessels of commerce and of war of all nations, on terms of entire equality. Sec. 2. The canal shall never be blockaded, nor shall any right of way be exercised, nor any act of hostility be committed within it.

"9.—Vessels of war of a belligerent shall not be allowed to take any stores in the canal, except so far as may be strictly necessary, and the transit of such vessels through the canal be effected with the least possible delay. Prizes shall be in all respects subject to the same rules as vessels of war of belligerents.

"10.—No belligerent shall embark or disembark troops, munitions of war or warlike materials in the canal, except in case of accident and hindrance of transit, and in such case transit shall be resumed with all possible despatch.

"11.—Vessels of war of a belligerent shall not remain in waters within three marine miles of either end of the canal longer than twenty-four hours.

The Davis amendment, adopted by the Senate, is as follows:

"It is agreed, however, that none of the immediately foregoing conditions and stipulations in sections numbered 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 of this article shall apply to measures which the United States may find it necessary to take for securing by its own forces the defense of the United States and the maintenance of public order."

Always follow the use of Newbro's Herpicide, the new scientific cure for dandruff and falling hair. It possesses certain properties that kill the germ or microbe that causes all the trouble by sapping the oil out of the hair bulb. With this parasite destroyed, dandruff and the falling hair cannot exist. A thick, soft growth of hair springs forth where formerly thin, brittle hair, or perhaps total baldness held sway.

A little coughing is nothing—the tickling, that makes you cough once, is some dust; not the least harm. You scratch an itch, and forget it. This cough is scratching an itch.

But the cough, that hangs on and comes back, is the sign of an itch that hangs on and comes back. There is something that makes that itch.

Inflammation: a germ perhaps; it's alive; like a seed in moist warm ground; it will grow if you let it, especially in children.

SECRET SERVICE AT THE GRAND

Military plays always seem to please the public, and the combination of what is generally admitted to be the best one ever written, and the popular Frawley Company, ought to prove irresistible. This is the attraction which comes to the Grand Opera House, Saturday evening, Dec. 23d, "Secret Service," by William Gillette, is the play to be offered, and T. Daniel Frawley's splendid company will be seen in its various characters. The Frawley force this season are larger than ever before. Thirty people, all told, are on the list. This number constitutes an extraordinarily large dramatic company, and when it is remembered that many of them draw very comfortable salaries, it will be seen that there are few traveling organizations so costly as this. Uniformly good business is necessary to the support of such a company, and, fortunately for Mr. Frawley, it has prevailed so far throughout his present road tour. Crowded houses every where have testified to the general interest in Gillette's great war drama, and also the equally widespread confidence in Mr. Frawley's ability to select and manage a dramatic company. "Secret Service" created a furore when it was produced in New York, and ran without a break during an entire theatrical season. It is said to be the most intensely interesting drama ever staged in this country, and also the most meritorious, from a purely technical view, ever written by an American author. It departs in many ways from time honored theatrical traditions. There is not an aside or a soliloquy in the piece, and the action all takes place without any lapses of months, days or even hours. The time which passes in the progress of the story is the same as that occupied in its performance, and in many other ways stage license is not invoked. A complete scenic accompaniment is carried, and no detail of the production is slighted.

Poor Crop in Egypt.
CAIRO, Dec. 21.—The crops, it is feared, will be poor. The early and rapid falling of the Nile river is a serious factor in the matter, and causes apprehension as to the next cotton crop. The department of irrigation has decided to throw dams across the Nile branches in the hope of saving it.

Deafness Cannot be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; also cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars to any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

DON'T COUGH
Stop it with Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil.

A little coughing is nothing—the tickling, that makes you cough once, is some dust; not the least harm. You scratch an itch, and forget it. This cough is scratching an itch.

But the cough, that hangs on and comes back, is the sign of an itch that hangs on and comes back. There is something that makes that itch.

Inflammation: a germ perhaps; it's alive; like a seed in moist warm ground; it will grow if you let it, especially in children.

exercised no any act of hostility be committed within it.

"2.—Vessels of war of a belligerent shall not be allowed to take any stores in the Canal, except so far as may be strictly necessary, and the transit of such vessels through the Canal shall be effected with the least possible delay in accordance with the regulations in force, and with only such intimation as may result from the necessities of the service. Prizes shall be in all respects subject to the same rules as vessels of war of belligerents.

"4.—No belligerent shall embark or disembark troops, munitions of war or warlike materials in the Canal, except in the case of accident and hindrance of transit, and in such case transit shall be resumed with all possible despatch.

"5.—The provisions of this article shall apply to the waters adjacent to the canal within three marine miles of the opposite ends. Vessels of war of a belligerent shall not remain in such waters longer than twenty-four hours at any one time, except in distress, and in such case shall depart as soon as possible. A vessel of war of one belligerent shall not depart within twenty-four hours of the departure of that of another belligerent. It is agreed, however, that none of the immediate foregoing conditions and stipulations in section 1, numbered one, two, three, four and five of this article shall apply to measures which the United States may find it necessary to take for securing for its own forces the defense of the United States and the maintenance of public order.

"6.—The plant, estimates, buildings and all works necessary to the construction and operation of the Canal shall be deemed to be a part thereof, for the purposes of this convention, and in time of war as in time of peace shall enjoy complete immunity from attack or injury by belligerents, and from acts calculated to impair their usefulness as a part of the Canal.

"7.—No fortifications shall be erected commanding the Canal or waters adjacent. The United States however, shall be at liberty to maintain such military police along the Canal as may be necessary to protect it against lawlessness and disorder.

"8.—Section 1. The canal shall be free and open in time of war, as in time of peace, to the vessels of commerce and of war of all nations, on terms of entire equality. Sec. 2. The canal shall never be blockaded, nor shall any right of way be exercised, nor any act of hostility be committed within it.

"9.—Vessels of war of a belligerent shall not be allowed to take any stores in the canal, except so far as may be strictly necessary, and the transit of such vessels through the canal be effected with the least possible delay. Prizes shall be in all respects subject to the same rules as vessels of war of belligerents.

"10.—No belligerent shall embark or disembark troops, munitions of war or warlike materials in the canal, except in case of accident and hindrance of transit, and in such case transit shall be resumed with all possible despatch.

"11.—Vessels of war of a belligerent shall not remain in waters within three marine miles of either end of the canal longer than twenty-four hours.

PLEASEN RESULTS
Always follow the use of Newbro's Herpicide, the new scientific cure for dandruff and falling hair. It possesses certain properties that kill the germ or microbe that causes all the trouble by sapping the oil out of the hair bulb. With this parasite destroyed, dandruff and the falling hair cannot exist. A thick, soft growth of hair springs forth where formerly thin, brittle hair, or perhaps total baldness held sway.
