STEAMER GUY, OF SKAGWAY, LOST

TACOMA, Jan. 4.—The steamer Guy, according to Skagway advices brought down by the Victorian, was wrecked a mile and a half below Skagway on the afternoon of Saturday, December 22. The Guy was on her way from Skagway to Hays when the disaster occurred.

The news was given out at Skagway by the steamer Mabel, which passed the wreck December 25, 8 1/2 found the Guy's battered hull ashore on the rocks on the west side of the canal. There were no lights or signs of life aboard and the supposition is that Captain E. O. Dickinson and the crew, consisting of the engineer and clerk, were drowned while trying to reach shore in a small boat.

A Happy New Year

To you all, and many thanks to the public for the treatment Friedman's New Racket received at their hands.

The rush for clothing, hats, shoes, velvets, velveteens, pinhees, corset covers, laces and passementerie still continues and we hope it will last until the 15th of January. Never before has the public had such an opportunity where they could buy goods at such sacrifice sales as were made at Friedman's Racket. The firm has lost upwards of three thousand dollars on the amount sold in forty-five days, yet we are satisfied for we expected to make the loss in order to raise the amount of money, and against such odds that we had to contend with, for never in the history of Salem were there so many actual genuine sales by a number of Salem merchants. There were no false pretenses, but everyone meant what they said. Therefore it is but natural that they got a good share of the trade. Our great loss has been the public gain. The people bought at home—it kept them from going to Portland. There were very few packages coming from other towns. New Racket were sold and will continue until the 15th of January at the above prices. We have nothing to say what the new firm will do after that date. Don't miss the opportunity while there is yet time to bring your well-filled purse to Friedman's New Racket. You'll not go away empty-handed when you see the goods and hear the price.

FRIEDMAN'S NEW RACKET

there were no such bargains given as we do, selling Clark's O. N. T. cotton for 25c per dozen, that cost wholesale 50c; a suit of good clothing that cost $15 for $8; an undershirt that cost $15 per dozen for 25c; a yard of plush or velvet that cost $2 for 50c; a pair of overalls that cost 50c for 35c; a pair of shoes that cost $4 for 50c; a pair of kid gloves that cost a dollar for 25c; a corset cover that cost $1.25 for 20c; a yard of genuine silk quilted matting for 40c, in fact, the whole stock of goods at Friedman's New Racket were sold and will continue until the 15th of January at the above prices. We have nothing to say what the new firm will do after that date. Don't miss the opportunity while there is yet time to bring your well-filled purse to Friedman's New Racket.
