CONGRESS CRIMINAL
If Policy Toward Philipines is not Declared
IN THE OPINION OF PRESIDENT SCHURMAN
President of the Commission In an Address Delivered at New York

New York, Feb. 28.—President Jacob G. Schurman, of Cornell University, in an address in New York last night on "The Philippines: a retrospect and a forecast," declared: "Congress will be guilty of a criminal act if it does not pass the bill defining the rights of the Philipines."
Speaking of the future of the Philipines, he said: "The situation over there has improved wonderfully within the past three months, and is continuing to improve. General MacArthur has sent the most encouraging reports, and he is a good soldier and a thoughtful man."
In conclusion he said: "It is certain that we must maintain a large army in the Philipines, and for a long time to come. The Philipines must be impressed. They have no respect for anything so much as force. "We shall hold the Philipines and the Philipines must be either our partners or our proteges. It is not a question of holding on in the Philipines; it is a question of letting go and we cannot afford to let go. Promises do not settle the policies of nations, and that applies to Cuba as well as to the Philipines."

BOTHA'S CAPTURE

Converging on Boer Forces --Enormous Cost of the War to Date

London, Feb. 28.—The Sun says it is officially announced that Gen Botha, commander-in-chief of the Boer forces, has surrendered to Kitchener. The war office at 2:30 p. m. had not confirmation of the report.
De Aar, Feb. 28.—The latest advices indicate that Dewet, Steyn and the bulk of their force, are camped on the South bank of the Orange River, awaiting opportunity to cross. The indications are that Dewet intends moving eastward.
Thorneyerott is pushing from the west while several columns and they ready to meet the Boers in every direction.

London, Feb. 28.—A deficit of at least £50,000,000 must be provided for by Parliament with the war still unfinished. This is the estimate made on the Liberal side without official information but unless the increases from the various sources of revenue are greater than any body has ventured to forecast, the figures are not liable to be reduced in the budget speech. The total cost of the Boer war has been concealed by various devices but it will exceed £150,000,000. A prominent Liberal has asserted that the aggregate would be over £140,000,000 if the accounts could be closed at once. For this reason the supporters of the government are now awaiting the budget speech with a spirit of optimism. The effect of that speech will, however be less discouraging if they can assert that the bottom has been reached and that the war has ended.

MAYOR OF NEW YORK
Declares He Has no Use for National Guards
POLICE CAN CARE FOR THAT CITY
But for the Militia Last Year New York Might be Without Water

New York, Feb. 28.—Mayor Van Wyck has informed members of the army board that the National Guard will never be called out by his orders.
Brigadier Generals Butt and McLeer resented the mayors reflection on the guard. General Butt had asked for an appropriation for a rifled range for the Thirtieth regiment, of which Col. David Austin is the head. Gen. Butt explained that soldiers who could not shoot were of no use.
"They don't need to shoot in this city," said the Mayor. "With our excellent police force there is no use for a militia. General McLeer turned quickly toward Mayor Van Wyck and said: "There have been strikes when the services of the guard were called for."
"Not since I have been mayor of New York," was the retort.
"You are any one else will have to call them out while I am the chief executive of the city. The police force is capable of handling any and all disturbances, and there will be no shooting."
When the remarks of the mayor were repeated at National Guard headquarters officers of Gen. Roo's staff were amazed.
"I cannot understand how the Mayor would stand for such a statement," said Col. N. B. Thurston. "But for the services of the militia last year at Croton's Dam, the whole of New York might have been without water. A little dynamite would have done the work."

FORMER GOVERNOR
St. John of Kansas Upholds Mrs. Nation
SHE IS ANOTHER JOHN BROWN
Says It Is not a Crime to Destroy Property Used in Violation of Law

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 28.—Ex-Governor John P. St. John, of Kansas, in an interview vigorously defended the course of Mrs. Carrie Nation in her crusade against the joints in Kansas.
He said that Mrs. Nations position on the liquor question was like John Brown's position on the slavery question and although her methods are unusual and unrefined she is a true reformer and is justified in using any means to abate the joint nuisances in Kansas.
While she may be technically guilty of trespass in destroying the jointists property, he said the destruction of property which is being used notoriously in violation of the law is no crime.
The ex-Governor said that the actions of Judge Hazen and County Attorney Nichols in presenting Mrs. Nation while the jointists go unpunished, is a disgrace to the State of Kansas.
