CAPITAL RELIEF CORPS REPORTS

Work of This Charitable Organization at Salem.

Saved the County and City Expense and Rescued Families From Want.

At a recent meeting of the Capital Relief Corps, held at the home of the president, Mrs. Z. F. Moody, on Court street, the appended report prepared by Mrs. Moody and the secretary of the society, Mrs. E. Y. Chase, in which a year's work of the organization is reviewed, was read and adopted.

In response to a call by the president in a meeting of the Capital Relief Corps, a few ladies met at the residence of Mrs. Z. F. Moody on the afternoon of last Friday.

Outstanding bills were credited and ordered paid and work done by committee reported.

A short statement of what this society may be of interest:

When the Capital Emergency Corps disbanded in August, 1898, the funds on hand, $2,12, were turned over to this new society.

The Capital Relief Corps since its organization has afforded relief to 30 families, in which were 60 children; also to several men and women who needed a helping hand.

Money has been spent for wood and provisions, chiefly. Clothing and food have been freely donated by generous friends. Work has been found when possible for those who were able to work. The aim of the society has been to afford temporary relief; when there was a demand or necessity for continued aid, the county must be called upon. Funds given to aid in this work will be gratefully received, and the county saved much unnecessary expense. Each application is investigated by a committee before relief is given.

The bank account of the society shows:

Cash receipts from all sources... $138.89
Cash expended... 90.35
Balance... $48.47

The society has done much charitable work and in its operation has saved the county many dollars on its pauper account. The organization was effected in the summer of 1898 under the name of Capital Emergency Corps for the purpose of providing the volunteer soldiers of this and other states with home-made necessities for their limited wardrobe and supplying the army hospitals with the needed articles. The women were merged into the Capital Relief Corps for charitable work in this city, although an opportunity to render assistance to some transient soldier boy in need of aid, has never been overlooked. Many a penniless soldier, through the agency of the Corps, has been provided with the comforts of a home for a day and furnished a small sum of money to help him on his way. The society raised all the money it has disbursed, in the giving of balls and entertainments, to which the Salem public has always readily responded.

The good and unselfish women constituting the membership of the Corps, propose to maintain the organization while their funds last and, in fact, as long as the good people of Salem render assistance and should continue to be, as it has been in the past, liberally supported by the residents of Salem. Through this organization much temporary aid is given dependent persons who are unable to work by the county. In this way, many destitute persons are relieved, who otherwise might suffer before their wants could receive the official attention of the county.

THE DEPARTED EX-PRESIDENT

Sketch of the Late General Harrison.

His Most Notable Utterances on International Law and Republicanism

General Benjamin Harrison was born in North Bend, Ohio, August 20, 1833. He was a grandson of General W. H. Harrison, a former President of the United States. He was graduated at Miami University, Ohio, in 1852, studied law in Cincinnati, and in 1854 removed to Indianapolis, where he has since resided. He was elected Reporter of the State Supreme Court in 1870, and in 1862 entered the army as a second lieutenant of Indiana volunteers. After a short service he organized a company of the Seventieth Indiana regiment, was commissioned colonel on the completion of the regiment, and served through the war, receiving the brevet of brigadier-general of volunteers on the 23d of January, 1865. He then returned to Indianapolis, and resumed his office of Supreme Court Reporter, to which he had been re-elected during his absence, in 1864. In 1866 he was the Republican candidate for Governor of Indiana, but was defeated by a small plurality. President Hayes appointed him on the Mississippi River Commission in 1878, and in 1880 he was elected United States Senator, taking his seat on March 4, 1881. He was nominated for President of the United States by the Republican National Convention, in Chicago, in 1888, and was elected, defeating Grover Cleveland. In 1892 he was re-nominated, and was defeated by Grover Cleveland. Since he retired from the Presidency he has practiced his profession. During the spring of 1891, General Harrison, then President of the United States, made a tour of the country and visited the Pacific coast. He at that time stopped at Salem and was tendered a reception at the Capitol. This was on May 5, 1891. Thousands of Salem's citizens remember the President's visit with pleasure.

THURSDAY—Mar. 14. A. G. Field's Minstrels at the opera house.

FRIDAY—Mar. 15—Opera for the patrons at Luciola School house at 3:30 o'clock.

Estimate of Minstrel's Tonight.

Denver Post, Feb. 11:—Two densely crowded houses were present at the Tabory yesterday afternoon and last night. A minstrel show always draws well in this city, and when, as in the case of the Field entertainers it is a good show, the crowd is delighted and that means a week of prosperity for the enterprise. A. G. Field's Minstrel is really a good one. It is better this year than it was last, and while most of the fun is of the horse, knockout order, it has an up-to-date manner about it that touches the political and current events of the time with a good deal of zest. The take off in the second part last night of McKinley, Hanna and Teddy Roosevelt, while a little crude, was certainly funny and was enjoyed hugely by all classes of people, no matter what their political faith. Mr. Nauman and her hatched was also introduced quite cleverly, and Teddy's hunt for a mountain lion in Colorado was illustrated by a huge Newfoundland dog riding madly across the stage with Roosevelt, with glaring eyes and teeth hot on his trail.

There is also a particularly clever contortionist, a pair of nimble and graceful pantomimists and a funny fellow who evolves some capital music from the violin. The first part is gorgeously dressed, the singing is excellent and some of the jokes by the end men are brisk, fresh and merry. Take it all in all, A. G. Field's Minstrel offer a capital entertainment and is well worth going to see.

Two Lodges Entertain.

An interesting entertainment was given last evening under the auspices of Salem lodge No. 19, D. O. H. and Protection lodge, No. 2, A. O. W. and was attended only by the lodge members and a few invited guests. The program was of a literary and musical nature and consisted of vocal and instrumental solos, select readings and addresses. The affair was presided over by the Chief of Honor, Mrs. Villa A. Davey, and was enjoyable throughout.

Asher Agon of Roseburg is visiting his sister, Mrs. C. A. Kurtz of this city.

Mrs. Carry Willie went to Albany last evening to spend a few days with friends.

Mrs. F. B. Southwick, Mrs. R. H. Leabo and Miss Nellie Southwick spent the afternoon in Woodburn yesterday.

WHY SO MANY FAIL.

The Reason So Many Catarrh Remedies are Unsuccessful.

There are few troubles for which there are so many remedies and so-called "cures" for catarrh and it may be added there are few diseases so difficult to really and permanently cure.

Inhalers, sprays, powders and douches are all applied locally and give temporary relief, often for only a few hours, and it is doubtful if anything like a real cure of catarrh has ever accomplished by the use of local applications.

Catarrh is a constitutional disease; it is in the blood like rheumatism and to cure it requires an internal medicine to act upon the blood, to drive out the catarrhal poison from the system entirely and anyone can readily see that a saline or powder or inhaler which simply cleans off the mucous membrane of the nose and throat can have no effect on the real cause of catarrh disease.

The remarkable success of the new catarrh remedy, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets is because it drives out of the system the catarrhal poison, the germs of grip, bronchitis and consumption, and causes the hawking, spitting and gagging because the excessive secretion is no longer supplied when the blood is made healthy by the use of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

The remedy is in the shape of 1 large 20 grain lozenges, pleasant and palatable composed only of wholesome antiseptics and so safe to use that little children use them with perfect safety and benefit if the little one is suffering from colds, croup or cough from any cause.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets have been on the market scarcely one year, yet they have met with such popularity and success that druggists everywhere in the United States and Canada now have them in stock and report a constantly increasing demand for them. 3-12-11-16.

Mr. Graber, falling with his face in the road, was badly shaken up and his face skinned, otherwise no injury was done.

Lieutenant G. W. Jones left this morning for Chicago and will be absent three and four months. He was accompanied to Portland by Mrs. Jones who will visit relatives in the metropolis until her husband returns. It is understood that the purpose of Prof. Jones' visit to Chicago is to acquaint himself with a system of instruction for the education of a class of unfortunate, preparatory to assuming the superintendency of such an institution upon his return. It is understood that Prof. Jones, former superintendent of Marion county school has been offered the superintendency of the Blind Institute in this city.

IT MAKES WOMEN HAPPY.

"I had been a sufferer for many years from nervousness with all its symptoms and complications," writes Mrs. G. N. Fisher, of 1861 Lexington Ave., New York, N. Y. "I was constantly going to see a physician or purchasing medicine. My husband at last induced me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. After taking one bottle and following your advice I was so encouraged that I took five more bottles of Favorite Prescription. I continued taking it until I was in perfect health, and when I feel that I am not so well as I wish to be, I take a few more bottles. I have a good color in my face, my hair is growing again, and my weight has increased. I am now a healthy woman, and your Favorite Prescription is the cause of it."
