LET SOMETHING GOOD BE SAID

When over the fair fame of friend or foe
The shadow of disgrace shall fall; instead
Of words of blame or proof of thus and so,
Let something good be said.
Forget not that no fellow being yet
May fall so low but love may lift his head;
Even the cheek of shame with tears is wet
If something good be said.
No generous heart may vainly turn aside
In ways of sympathy; no soul so dead
But may awaken strong and glorified
If something good be said.
And so I charge ye by the thorny crown
And by the cross on which the Savior bled,
And by your own soul's hope of fair renown,
Let something good be said.
—James Whitcomb Riley.

DIRECTOR CHAMBERLAIN DISCUSSES THE SCHOOLS

Thinks the Time Has Come for Progress All Around.

Favors Mroe Use of Vocal Music and Addition of Grades.

Hon. M. L. Chamberlain, chairman of the committee on revising the course of study and arranging the grades to increase the efficiency of the Salem public schools, was asked what changes or improvements in the management would be attempted and discussed the general situation as follows:

"You ask if there are changes contemplated by the Board in the management of the schools for the coming year?

"No doubt there will be in some particulars. An act of the recent legislature provides for, and enlarges the duties of school directors, but not having carefully read this law, I am unable to say what it proposes to do, or the changes to be made.

"I can only speak for myself on these matters; but one thing seems important and necessary at this time, and that is to advance the work and increase, if possible, the interest in the school room.

"For several years past the Board have had their hands full in looking after the finances of the district, almost losing sight of all else. The supporters of the schools have nobly come to our relief. As witness the prompt action in taking up some $30,000 of the indebtedness against us, and the willingness to vote at our annual meetings any tax levy the Board might ask for. I am beginning to think, if our schools are not up to the standard of excellence they should be, it is not the fault of the taxpayers and patrons who contribute to them.

"It is said that some of our neighboring towns boast of having superior and more advanced school than the capital of the state can or does afford. But one can hardly believe this to be true.

"Many causes of late years have contributed to give educational institutions a backset, especially in Salem. The large overhanging debt contracted years ago has been our stumbling block. However, affairs are assuming better shape now, and the clouds are rolling away. I do not mean by this that because of this evidence of returning prosperity we should begin to plan for an extra outlay of money, or increase in our expenses, but rather let us give better attention to the work already in hand.

"It would be hard to find a more competent and faithful class of teachers than at present is employed in the schools. Still, it does not follow that improvements cannot be suggested or new ideas gain a foothold.

"Many are of the opinion that one or more grades can, and ought to be added to our present course of studies without additional cost, which I think can be done. We have the room, the teachers and the scholars; what more is wanted?

"A party was taken to task the other day for suggesting that music should be introduced and made more a feature of the schools. Indeed, it is considered an indispensible adjunct to the studies of the school room. Can this be done without extra expense? Most certainly it can. I would employ more teachers capable of giving instructions in that line, if nothing more than to start and carry through familiar tunes. The better the teachers can introduce vocal music, the quicker and oftener would I vote to them, other things being signal. Our scholars might not develope into sweet singers, the first year or so, but the seed is sown and it will astonish one to see how quick the elevating influence is felt in the school room and the community.

"Yes, the idea of establishing libraries in the public schools, is a good one. It has the tendency of uniting the parents and children in one common effort to gain knowledge. Just how this is to be successfully carried out, without becoming burdensome to the taxpayers, I am not now prepared to say. However, it is a step in the right direction. There is no halfway ground in the pursuit of knowledge. We are either going forward or backward. It is by constant effort that perfection is attained in anything.

"There appears to be a demand for practical men and women of experience and progressive ideas in educational affairs to lend a helping hand Indications point toward a renewed interest in our schools. This appears to be general. Those who are expected to move first should not stand in the way of others.

It is suggested that the supporters of the schools meet in their respective school buildings at stated times, and discuss proper methods to adopt in advancing the work. To do this, will cost some effort. But is the reward not equal to the labor? Let there be more enthusiasm among the leaders. Then the children will catch the spirit.

"There must be no unnecessary outlay of money to bring about great results. I am satisfied the school board will gladly accept and follow out suggestions that tend to improve and elevate the school system.

AFTER EFFECTS OF GRIP

Are Often More Serious Than the Grip Itself.

Physicians and grip sufferers alike are agreed that the after effects of the disease are more to be feared than the acute attack; you can never be sure that the disease has left the system completely.

LaGrippe naturally attack the weakest organ and leaves it still weaker.

Not only pneumonia, consumption, bronchitis and throat trouble follow the grip, but kidney, liver and stomach troubles are as liable to result, provided any of these organs should happen to be in a weak condition at the time of attack.

To get rid of the grip germ, to get it entirely out of the system and blood, few remedies are so good and none safer than Stuart's Catarrh Tablets; they are not a compound of powerful and dangerous drugs, but a pleasant, palatable, convenient remedy in tablet form, composed of the wholesome antiseptic principles of Eucalyptus bark, blood root and similar germicide remedies which are perfectly wholesome and harmless to the system, but death to the germs of grip, catarrh, consumption and disease of the throat and air passages.

Mrs. Chas. Gormley of Memphis says: Last winter an attack of the grip left me with a weak back, a persistent cough and loss of flesh and appetite and after using various remedies for several months with little or no improvement I finally bought a 50 cent package of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at my drug store and as they were pleasant and convenient to take I used them at all times of day or night and I was astonished to secure such fine results from so pleasan and convenient a medicine. In two weeks my cough disappeared, my appetite returned. I improved in flesh and no one would now think that I had ever had such a thing as the grip.

My druggist sold more of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, for the cure of grip, colds and catarrh, than any other similar medicines. 3 19 21 23

MINING NEWS FROM DETROIT

Detroit will undoubtedly yet become a very popular mining center.

Ike Hiser and George Cox, of Gates, came up on Monday going into their mines north of Detroit. Their ore runs $143 to the ton. Considerable excitement is evidenced over the matter.

Considerable work is now being done in the Detroit mines. The sound of blasting is heard resounding through the hills, which is not at all unpleasant.

Fred Stahlman and Lon Smith are busy at work on their mines, also John Smith and father.

Work recently done on the Scorpion mine ten feet from the surface shows free milling ore which runs $4.35 per ton which will undoubtedly improve deeper. This latter mine is owned by H. Jacobs who feels highly flattered over his possession.
