SOCIAL EVENTS.

SATURDAY, April 6 .- "The Telephone Girl' at the Grand opera house.

There is Truth in Science. Mrs. O. S. Fowler, widow of the emiment phrenologist, Prof. O. S. Fowler of New York will give a scient'fic course of five free lectures at the Grand Opera House, beginning April 8, 8 p. m. Mrs. Fowler is an educated woman and thoroughly slive in all the problems of human life. She is interested in all the lines of reform, and especially that of motherhood, for "woman." says she, "has gestated every criminal that came into the world. Let America have good mothers and she will have good sons, and I understand the law how able mothers can have good children that will be a law unto themselves." It will be a grand opportunity to have with us Mrs. Fowler who has been engaged for the past twenty years for the betterment of mankind. All are invited.
