

An Old Friend

S. S. S. has been before the public for many years; it has been tried by thousands of people in all parts of the country. Its wonderful curative powers in their own families or among their friends and acquaintances. Careful patients in all parts of the country tell of their restoration to health and happiness, and the testimony of these is the highest evidence of the medicine's worth. S. S. S. is more popular today than ever in its history—no other remedy stands so high, has ever given such perfect satisfaction of its reliability in the cure of Cancer, Rheumatism, Catarrh, Contagious Blood Poison, Scrofula, Eczema, Psoriasis, Salt Rheum, Acne, or any disease that originates in the blood. Being strictly a vegetable preparation, you will find it agrees with you much better than a drug store concoction or any of the widely advertised potash and mercury remedies, which affect the liver, stomach and bowels, causing Rheumatism or Dyspepsia. If you have never tried S. S. S., you will be surprised at the immediate good effects, appetite increases; you grow stronger, and gradually but surely it drives out the poisons and restores the blood to a healthy condition. If there is a sore or ulcer on the body, it begins to heal around the edges, the discharge finally ceases and the place gets well; muscular and bone pains vanish, and the skin is relieved of all itching, irritating eruptions. Nervous run down and anemic people will find S. S. S. just the medicine they need, for blood poverty and ill nourished nerves are responsible for their condition. For old people and children S. S. S. has no equal; being free from all minerals, it does not cause constipation or any injurious effect whatever, and keeps the blood in good condition, thus fortifying particularly to medicine, and S. S. S., a remedy that has retained the confidence of the people for nearly 50 years, must have merit—IT CURES, is the secret of its success. When you get S. S. S. don't be persuaded to accept something else; there is no substitute for S. S. S. It is the only guaranteed purely vegetable blood purifier, and the safest and best for all blood and skin troubles. Do not let them force an inferior mineral remedy on you because there is a larger profit in it. If you have any blood or skin disease, don't hesitate to write us about it; our physicians will carefully consider your case and advise you without charge.

Don't Experiment—
Take S. S. S. for no sooner does it get into the circulation than the blood is purified and the poisons are driven out of the system. It is the only guaranteed purely vegetable blood purifier, and the safest and best for all blood and skin troubles. Do not let them force an inferior mineral remedy on you because there is a larger profit in it. If you have any blood or skin disease, don't hesitate to write us about it; our physicians will carefully consider your case and advise you without charge.

THE GILBERT BROTHERS BANK FAILURE
The newspaper reports undoubtedly make the worst possible showing in any such matter as a bank failure. In one way it is a protection to the public to have no news suppressed. In the great panic of 1903 THE JOURNAL was the first newspaper in Oregon to post bulletins of all the wrecks and suspensions, and in place of adding to the excitement it calmed the public mind to know that nothing would be suppressed.

In the case of Gilbert Brothers at Salem there will no doubt be given the fullest publicity of the actual condition of affairs as soon as an accurate statement can be made up and published. Until that is done there should be no sweeping condemnation or charge of dishonesty. The laws of this state do not require published statements of the condition of private banks. The public have little or no protection by law against dishonest practices or mismanagement of any bank. And the bank examinations of national bankers afford the public no better security. Take the Vancouver bank—numerous examiners went there the past two years, and all found it in perfect order, until a real examination was made by some one, possibly a bank examiner, and an awful state of affairs was revealed to the public. Examinations and reports were only a further means of hoodwinking the public into a false sense of security.

These general conditions must be taken into account. That we are working under a bad and very defective system must be apparent to all, including Gilbert Brothers. Not even they would willfully desire to conduct their business so as to fail. Their pride as citizens as well as the reputations of their families would lead them, as it would all others in the banking business, to desire to succeed honorably. They have been public-spirited and enterprising. They have had many friends and will have much sympathy as they show a sincere desire to do the honest thing and the right thing under the circumstances.

THE JOURNAL regrets, more than all else, the relation of this bank to the public school savings accounts. If this bank has for some time been insolvent and then went on receiving the deposits of the school children, those deposits have gone to pay other claims. The honor of the community and the reputation of the banking business in this community will suffer if those children, who are not business adults, but who acted under the guidance of public sentiment entirely, lose their little deposits. Their minds will be

DISCLOSURES ON THE LEGISLATURE

One of the Democrats Turns on Some Light.

He Could Tell More Facts if They Were Needed.

Statement That Concerns Certain Members From Linn.

ALBANY, Or., April 22.—(To the Editor.)—My attention has been called to some communications and editorials as published in some of the newspapers of this state, calling in question the integrity of some of the members of the late legislature. It looks very much as though this course was being adopted for the purpose of screening the men whose course in said legislature was questionable. The men who did not yield to temptation and were true to their political organization have been criticized more severely than those members who were recreant to their trust and untrue to the political party who elected them. The all-absorbing question of the late legislature and that which was paramount to every other question was the election of a United States senator.

Under fair and honest party discipline every man that was in opposition to the Republican party in the June election last year or should have been retired from the senatorial contest, owing to the fact that the legislature was Republican in politics. A short time after balloting for the election for a United States senator had commenced in the late legislature, Mr. Corbett had received the number of votes which entitled him to a caucus nomination from the Republican members of said legislature, and under all party rules he was entitled to be elected to the United States senate by the votes of the Republican members.

The election of Mr. Corbett was sought and claimed as a matter of right from the party that Mr. Corbett was a member of. This was honorable and right, and all the Corbett men asked of the opposition to the Republican party was to keep out of the then political contest and let the Republican members of the legislature settle the senatorial election as they had a right to do, without any interference by men elected in opposition to the dominant party. There was no act on the part of Mr. Corbett or his friends or supporters that came to light or was even hinted at, so far as my knowledge goes, that would in any way compromise the honor or the success of the Republican party or this state. It was plain to be seen from the beginning that Mr. Corbett had but one rival or opponent in the senatorial race, which fact was well known early in the session. It was also well understood that Mr. McBride's candidacy was being pushed by the opposition to Mr. Corbett for the purpose of putting up a combine that would defeat Mr. Corbett, McBride and all opposing candidates. The pretended friends of McBride were steering from the beginning, and all the time in the direction of the election of John H. Mitchell.

An organization was effected and entered into by the men who were secretly supporting Mr. Mitchell, but pretending to be supporting Mr. McBride, that after its organization largely controlled legislation and appropriations which were then pending before the legislature. Said legislation and appropriations did not, under all circumstances, stand upon their merits, but were voted down or passed in accordance with who was asking for the legislation or appropriation, and they were as a rule supported, whether such legislation or appropriation was right or wrong, providing the parties asking for the passage of said measure or measures or the appropriation were in line with the "combine," and were numbered among those that could be relied upon to support Mr. Mitchell for the Senate.

The word went out from Mitchell's headquarters that they were "fixed to do business," and members of the legislature were invited to call, and some of the men who did call were told that if they wanted money it was there for them, providing they would assist in the election of Mr. Mitchell to the Senate. It looked as though the men were willing to enter into any kind of deal or

NERVE INFLUENCE

Is the subtle force which controls the different organs of the body. It makes them strong or weak, healthy or diseased, according as the brain and nerves are strong and vigorous or weak and diseased. Weak nerves cause headache, nervousness, neuralgia, indigestion, heart trouble and many other forms of chronic weakness. Make the nerves strong, the brain clear and active and the body will be healthy and vigorous.

"For some years I was troubled with nervousness and pain at the base of the brain. My head often felt as though it was in a vise and was being squeezed. I got so bad I could scarcely sleep at night and my head would palpitate and pain me a great deal. I began taking Dr. Miles' Nervine and grew steadily stronger until my trouble was entirely removed."
—RAY M. CAMPBELL, Blair, Neb.

Dr. Miles' Nervine

soothes and rests the tired brain, strengthens the nerves and supplies the nerve impulses so necessary to build up health of body and vigor of mind. Try it.

UNITED EVANGELICAL CHURCH CONFERENCE

Ministers Assigned to the Willamette District.

The Annual Conference of the United Evangelical church at Corvallis the most successful session in its history. The reports from the various fields show marked success. The finances of the church are reported in a prosperous condition. Over $500 was raised for home missionary work at the missionary meeting Sunday afternoon.

Four thousand dollars was appropriated for mission work in the state. Three thousand dollars was voted towards the Endowment Funds of Dallas College.

On Sunday morning Bishop R. Dubs, D. D., L. L. D., delivered an eloquent and powerful address, after which the following ministers were ordered as deacons:

A. A. Winter, C. T. Hurd, G. L. Lovell, S. Ed. Launer, S. Wood, Portland First Church—H. L. Pratt, Portland Second Church—H. A. Deck, Portland German—P. Pittner, Salem—C. A. Ishing, Sodalville and Sweet Home—S. E. Launer, St. Johns and Warren—M. J. Jalantyne, Troutdale—Thos. Cowling.

who is "not doing well"—the condition occurs now and then with all children.

Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil is a food that begins to build you up at once—of course, it don't show at once.

"Not doing well" means that the child is not getting the good of his food. Not today, or this week; it may have been going on for a month; before it begins to show in the child's condition.

You want him to get back to turning his usual food into strength.

You want the food that begins to build, up at once.

SALEM ROSE FAIR IS TALKED ABOUT

The president of the Salem Floral Union, will issue a call within a few days for a meeting of that organization when the matter of conducting another rose fair this year will be determined. The society has on hand about $300 which it was proposed last summer to expend in the erection of a public drinking fountain on Church street on the grounds of the court house. County court agreed to supply the fountain with water and to keep the same in repair but the members of the Union were not entirely agreed as to what plans to adopt and the erection of the fountain has been continually deferred until the public expects to see some developments in the near future. The Union has sufficient funds for the erection of a drinking fountain that would be an ornament as well as a public benefit. Some members of the organization desire that another rose carnival be held this summer by which their funds may be augmented and a more imposing structure erected. The agitation in behalf of a rose fair is suggested by the prospect of a large crop of fine roses this season.

PULLMAN ORDINARY SLEEPERS

The tourist travel between the East and the Pacific Coast has reached enormous proportions in the last few years, and calls for a special class of equipment. To meet this demand the Pullman Company has issued from its shops what is technically called the "Pullman Ordinary Sleeper." These cars appear similar to the regular sleeper, being built on the same plan but not furnished with the same elegance. They are equipped with lower mattresses, blankets, sheets, pillows, cushion seats, towels, comb brushes, etc., requiring nothing of the kind to be furnished by the passenger. Each car has a stove for making tea and coffee and doing "light housekeeping," and each section can be fitted with an adjustable table. An uniformed porter accompanies each car, his business being to make up berths, keep the car clean and look after the wants and comforts of the passengers. In each of the trains which are dispatched daily from Portland by the O. R. & N. Co. is to be found one of these "Pullman Ordinary Sleepers." The car attached to the "Chicago Portland Special" goes through to Chicago with change, and the one in the "Atlantic Express" runs to Kansas City without change. Passengers in this car for Chicago change to a similar car at Granger.

Much of the first class travel is being carried in these cars, the rates being lower, and the service nearly equal to that in the palace sleepers.

For rates and full information, including folders, write to A. L. CRAIG, General Passenger Agent, O. R. & N. Co. Portland, Oregon.
