Dear Sirs—In the course of my travels I have been closely watching the progress of the present war, and I am glad to report that the losses on both sides are heavy.

I have been a constant reader of your paper, and I am sure that your readers will appreciate the details of the war as I have reported it.

Yours truly,

A Woman in the Case

Whether she be the housewife or the woman of a more elevated station in life, the dress of the woman is the most important part of her attire.

There is no other item of expense which takes so much of our time and energy as the selection of the best dress fabric.
