DETAILS OF PROGRAM FOR THE PRESIDENT

Committees Getting Down to the Details of the Work.

At a meeting of the presidential reception committee Thursday afternoon in the matter of decorating the city on in the United States, both real and per- gists and shoe stores. By mail for 25c the day of President McKi ley's visit. It was decided to suspend at each intersection of the streets covered by the line of march, a ten-foot flag. The program of decorations at the postoffice building is to be of a most elaborate c'iaracter. Company F, Fourth Regiment, O. N G , has been invited to participate in the exercises. The committee voted $100 for carriages. The same amount will be expanded for a reviewing stand and platform, the same to be beautifully decorated. The committee has engaged the Silverton Marine band for the occasion and they will receive $50 for their services.

Major O F. Cramer left for San Francisco today where he will consult with t ie Presidential party and acquaint them with the program of exercises planned Lar Mr. McKiuley's visit to Salem. To the end that no corfusion may result. Mr. Cramer also has business in San Francisco and will be gone about a week.
