My Specialty
My specialty is fitting glasses scientifically. All of my spare moments are devoted to the study of that one thing. I do not fit the eyes by guess, but by careful actual measurements. If there is a weak muscle, a defective nerve or an irregular focus, I have the glasses ground especially for those conditions. I also devote a good deal of attention to replacing lost and broken parts of spectacles.

LITTLE WHIRLWIND WRONGFULLY IMPRISONED

Case of a Young Indian Chief Suffering Confinement for Crimes of Another.

A TOBACCO TRUST IS BEING ORGANIZED WITH TEN MILLIONS CAPITAL

May Become a Competitor of the Present Existing Corporations That Have Proven Very Profitable—As Consumption Increases There is Room for More Capitalized Corporations to Absorb Profits.

New York, May 21.—At a meeting of the New York City Indian Association it was decided to send a letter of protest to Governor Joseph K. Toole of Montana, asking the release of Little Whirlwind, the young Northern Cheyenne Indian who, it is claimed, is unjustly enduring a life sentence for murder. A letter signed by Philip C. Garrett, president and Herbert Welch, corresponding secretary of the Indian Rights Association read at the meeting contained a rehearsal of the story.

The letter concludes by saying: "When the newly elected governor was installed in his office at the beginning of the present year, application was made to him on behalf of the Indian Rights Association to pardon Little Whirlwind. This appeal was reinforced by a formal request of the Secretary of the Interior, he having been convinced, as the result of an investigation made by one of the inspectors of Little Whirlwind's innocence. The governor courteously promised to look into the matter as soon as he could, but thus far no action has been taken and Little Whirlwind, with his health much impaired as a result of the confinement continues to suffer for the crime of another."

Miss E. Louise Hoppeck, president of the Southern California Indian Association, made an interesting address on the missing Indians of Southern California. Many of the Indians of that section, she said, are very indignant because of recently published reports that they are starving. Their feeling is illustrated by the exclamation of an Indian youth in one of the reservation schools who upon reading the statement said: "It is a lie. We are not starving and we won't have help." Miss Hoppeck spoke of the work of the Ferris School, the brass band of which escorted President McKinley from the station in Redland to the hotel on his recent visit there and furnished the only music in the celebration on that occasion. She read an essay written by one of the girls in the school.

[This journal has written to Governor Toole for further details in the case of Little Whirlwind.]

New York, May 21.—The Journal of Commerce says: It is currently reported that the Universal Tobacco Company, which increased its authorized capital last week from $100,000 to $10,000,000, is to be an active competitor of both the American and the Continental Tobacco Companies. It may be worth noting that two of the proposed directors of the new company were directors of the Union Tobacco Company.

The Union Tobacco Company was incorporated in the latter part of 1898 with $12,000,000 authorized capital, later increased to $24,000,000. The new concern was spoken of as a prospective competitor of the American Tobacco Company in that it was to combine interests which were credited with being considerably opposed to the American Tobacco Company. Moreover William H. Butler had only a short time before resigned from the directorate of the American Tobacco Co. which gave further to color the report that the Union tobacco company would be a generally independent concern. But about three months after its incorporation it was merged with the American Tobacco Company.

In view of these circumstances it now appears somewhat probable that the new company is being organized in the interest of the Continental Tobacco Company or of the Continental and American Tobacco Companies jointly.

Governor With Ohio Party.
The Governor and Mrs. Geer returned yesterday from their visit in California, and the Governor left in Portland today in company with Ohio Congressional party, who are being entertained there. They are viewing the sights of the Columbia river and will probably proceed on their journey tomorrow night.

The property is valued at $5000, and Mr. Snyder is appointed without bonds. He was also appointed administrator of the estate of Anna M. Rapps, sister of Michael Rapps who acted as such during his life.

In Salem Justice Court.
The attachment and replevin suits instituted in Justice O'Donald's court by C. A. Townsend versus Bertha Maguire were heard this morning and dismissed. Townsend being required to pay cost of suit.

The trouble arose out of an effort on the part of Townsend, to remove machinery belonging to creamery plant of the Clover Leaf Creamery.

LUTHERAN SYNOD CLOSING SESSIONS
Farewell Sermon at the State Street Church Monday Evening

At the seventh session of the Lutheran Synod, discussion of the 5th thesis was continued. To what extent should the Synod cooperate with a congregation calling a pastor. It is an ecclesiastical arrangement that the one called be installed by a representative of the Synod, which body thereby acknowledges the legality of his call.

This thesis was adopted by the Synod after a long and exhaustive discussion. Sixth thesis: In the discharge of his duties as prescribed by the call, the bearer of the spiritual office acts in the name and stead of God, as well as he also represents the congregation. In this connection a number of casual questions with regard to marriages, burials, etc were discussed. The sixth thesis was then adopted.

Seventh thesis: Concerning the requirements of such persons who are to be called to the holy ministry the Lord clearly gives his church directions in His word, as 1 Tim. 3. Scripture in this place describes the ideal minister.

At the eighth session the committee on Mission matters made its report. It was recommended that the honorable mission board give the congregation of Rev. G. Finke at Astoria its support in erecting a church edifice. Further that the field of Rev. C. Hopf at Cameron, and Beaman, Idaho, having become too large, be supplied with an additional man. Also that the individual missionary report personally before the Synod concerning their work, having first been adopted, the Synod resolved to at once hear the report of the missionaries. Rev. Benzin's report was heard today, after which the 9th session adjourned.

Regular services are being held today, the eighth and ninth sessions being heard. Rev. C. Hopf preaches the farewell sermon for the session. Theme and parts: "Be strong in the Lord." The meaning and how it is to be accomplished.

SALEM HOSPITAL SUPERINTENDENT RESIGNS
Portion of Man's Stomach Removed and He Prospers

Miss Lillian McNary, who has been superintendent at the Salem Hospital for the past eighteen months, has resigned her position at that institution, the resignation to go into effect June 1st. Her successor has not been appointed. After a short rest to allow for a complete recovery of health, Miss McNary will accept a similar position at Portland. Since she has been there nearly two hundred patients have been subjected to surgical operations and only one of these did not recover.

One case of great interest to local surgeons has been the operation removing about one-third of the stomach of Frank Morgan, a resident of this city. The operation was performed by Drs. Morse and Pierce and was one of the most successful ever conducted here and reflects much credit on the work of the hospital. From the nature of the operation it was feared he could not recover but when only a few weeks have elapsed he is able to walk about and can eat the most substantial foods.

A Grand Step Mother
The good people of Salem enjoy one luxury that they don't fully realize, but all who know her merit fully appreciate her inestimable services. Reference is made to Mrs. C. H. Walker, of the Salem Dye Works, who is always the first person thought of when there is to be a party on hand, or after a picnic, when there are grease spots to remove or other misdemeanors to wipe out of wearing apparel. At that establishment you can get anything set to rights, from a pair of soiled gloves, to the most elaborate silk gown. A gentleman can get his trousers cleaned, his hat cleaned or his whole suit rejuvenated to suit the queen's taste. Last week a Portland belle had a glass of citric acid lemonade spilled over her best party dress, and it was turned from a delicate tint to the violet black wherever the counterfeit beverage touched it. The young man who perpetrated the careless act thought it would take his month's salary to replace it, but to their great surprise Mrs. Walker restored the dress to its original beauty and cleanliness. And so it goes. Every day has its new demonstrations that the best kind of a step mother is the Salem steam dye works.
