MONEY TO LOAN, TERMS TO SUIT
 Maxwell & Hayden, Moores Block.

the jury in the Bonney-Saltseder case to return.

Judge Hamilton very properly started the case behind closed doors, to the following jury: Grant Davis, C. W. Stege, G. W. Clymer, J. W. Harritt, F. J. Bolter, G. W. Murphy, Fred Steuseloff, Harry Albert, E. A. Crozman, Frank Hollis, H. H. Vandervoort, H. P. McNary.

The prosecuting attorney called Mrs. Zumwalt as a witness, but defendant took advantage of the statute and objected to her testifying against him. The sole witnesses then were the two daughters, who apparently told a straight story and proved strong witnesses against their father.

In department No. 2 of the state circuit court for Marion County, an answer was filed by John Hayes, Sr., through his attorneys, W. T. Slater and W. M. Kaiser, to a suit, entitled the State of Oregon, plaintiff, vs. W. A. Daly, as administrator of the estate of John Hayes, deceased, defendant; in the complaint it is alleged that the deceased, John Hayes died intestate, and that the property of said estate, valued at $285,937, rightfully belongs to the state, and W. A. Daly, as administrator of the estate, the defendant, is in wrongful possession of said property, and demands judgment and decree of the court for the possession of the property of the estate and to recover costs and disbursements of suit and for $300 counsel fees.

John Hayes Sr., a resident of Derrygoolin, Woodford, County Galway, Ireland, in his answer, claims that he is the father of the deceased, John Hayes, and the only heir to the estate, and denies that W. A. Daly, administrator, is in wrongful possession of the estate.

J. N. Harz, district attorney, and Frank A. Turner, special counsel, are the attorneys for the state in the suit.

CIRCUIT COURT

The grand jury filed a true bill against A. Jette, of Chaupoeg, for selling liquor without a license and Mr. Jette has been brought up for trial.

In the potato case of La Follett vs Mitchell for $372 the jury went out yesterday afternoon, returned at 5 o'clock for further instructions, and after eating dinner were again locked up until 10 o'clock, when it was agreed to present a sealed verdict at 9 o'clock this morning. The verdict was for $148.01 in favor of plaintiff.

The case of Bonney vs. Saltseder, to recover damage money amounting to $222.22 on a hop land lease, was tried to the following jury, who were this morning instructed:

George B. Miller, Albert Ives, T. A. Farley, N. F. Herren, L. M. Herren, E. W. Steuseloff, A. D. Palmer, G. A. Ehlen, W. T. Grimm, H. S. Van Valkenburg, Harry Albert.

The jury gave Bonney judgment for $67.22.

The Zumwalt rape and incest case was next taken up and when ten jurors were drawn the panel was exhausted. The defense objected to drawing two from the by-standers, and it became necessary to wait about two hours for

STRAWBERRY SHOW AND DAIRY MEETING

Great Berry and Cream Combination at Salem Saturday

BEAUTIFUL DISPLAYS AND DECORATIONS WILL MAKE IT AN EVENT

Growers, Nurserymen, Shippers, Cannors, and Consumers are Interested—Display of Single Plants in Fruit—French Strawberries and Spanish—Americans Will be There Too.

The Red Front room will be lighted with are electric by the courtesy and enterprise of Supt. Lambrith.

Several of the carriage and bicycle dealers will have surprises in the way of rose decorated pneumatic vehicles.

The Ladies auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. have a strong committee ready to take hold of the decorations for the strawberry show on Friday afternoon.

Growers are requested to bring in fine single plants of named varieties with fruit or in bloom, for display in jardineria.

Roth & Graber will make a special display of the Clarke's seedling berry and expect to walk away with several prizes.

The Red Hills are expected to turn out a surprising display as that soil is said to have the superior qualities for berry production.

Abraham Rich, the importer of French strawberries, will show several of his importations. There will be the first display of Spanish berries.

W. W. Walker will show a crate of shipping berries and about twenty varieties of others.

The committee have secured a cash prize of $5 for best crate of shipping berries, and this will bring out considerable competition, as the berry shipping business is a rapidly growing industry at Salem.

The Yokobama Tea Store will make a display of something new in glass jars.

A sweepstake prize will probably be offered for the best display of canned berries, jellies, marmalade and preserved strawberries.

Mrs. S. R. Foster will exhibit a choice collection of home canned strawberries. She is the State Fair prize taker.

ARGUMENTS MADE FOR BANKRUPTCY

Made Before Judge Bellinger of the United States Court

TWO PETITIONS PRESENTED THAT SUPPLEMENT EACH OTHER

History of Remarkable Case of Bank Suspension and Litigation Over an Estate Variouslly Estimated at From $48,000 to $350,000—New Proceedings.

Salem lawyers interested in the various suits brought in connection with the Gilbert Bros. bank suspension are in Portland today to agree the question of the propriety of bankruptcy proceedings before Judge Bellinger.

On petition asking bankruptcy was presented by Attorneys Carson & Jeffrey. A second petition of depositors, setting forth additional facts to show why a petition in bankruptcy, will be presented by Attorney Biggie. Attorneys for Ford, Gatch and Gilbert Bros. will contend there is no cause for bankruptcy.

GILMAN ESTATE DIVIDED

Members of the Family Don't Want a Lawsuit.

Claims of Miss Helen Hall Will be Provided For.

New York, June 13.—Frazier Gilman, the half brother of the late millionaire tea merchant of Bridgeport, George Francis Gilman, has reached this city from Georgia to confer with certain full blood relatives with a view to settling the disensions among the various members of the family upon the subject of the deceased merchant's estate.

Alfred Gilman who had not before appeared upon the scene but who under the Connecticut laws would have rights of considerable moment has been in consultation with Frazier Gilman.

"We have reached a virtual agreement, according to which the estate is to be divided equally among the full blood and half blood heirs. The Connecticut laws may administer the estate in one way, but the family will divide up the money in its own way, after the lawyers get through. We don't want to have any lawsuit in this matter. We find that the estate is worth about $5,000,000. "As to the relations of Mrs. Helen Hall in this case, I will say that her claim is not considered seriously. We all know that she has no legal claim upon the estate, but I think both branches of the family are disposed to make allowance for her. I have no doubt that some annuity will be by mutual agreement settled upon Mrs. Hall, although we are satisfied that she has no claim before the law. I believe the whole matter will be settled in a very short time and that we will avoid any litigation."

A LARGE FIRM IN NEW YORK

Would like to open a business in Salem. They asked S. Friedman, of Friedman's New Racket, what they could do with a good stock of general merchandise; whether the place would pay to run on American plan; by selling goods without any hocus pocus or strict cash things with each article they sell and make all the other customers pay for it in a roundabout way.

Friedman's Answer

There is room for a good general store, for a good grocery store, which would give the customers all they can afford for the money, and not cater to the low trade which expects a chromo, a wheel, a fan, a ticket to a church supper, and a clergyman to preach his funeral sermon after he is dead, with each 25c purchase. I speak for myself. Have done business in Salem for over thirty five years. Have run a general store, a grocery store, a drug store; always had a good trade; the people all know me throughout this country from Ghemawa to Pringle's school house, and from Eola to Rickreall bridge; have had some trade from below the Fair Grounds, but my business has been conducted on the American plan. No hereafter. When a customer buys an article it becomes theirs, but we have many merchants in Salem that are incapable of selling a paper of pins or a tin whistle, or a towel, without giving them something in the bargain. As an instance, a number of years ago Marlene Cori gave a slight of hand entertainment audience she would be all deceit from the top of her head to the soles of her shoes. After playing for ten days in

Salem to a 10 and 15 cent house, they offered to present a silver trumpet to the Fire Company who would get the most votes at $1 a ticket. Her manager showed me her bill for the trumpet, which was $60. The two companies—Capitol No. 1 and Tiger Company No. 2—the members of which paid out over $400 and the citizens nearly $600 more. The superintendent of the penitentiary, then Wm. Watkins, paid $30 for tickets to help his company get the trumpet; while Joe Meyers, who occupied the same place that I am in now, gave $25 that his company should get it. In that way the citizens and fire companies were duped $900 for a silver trumpet that cost $60, and had the privilege of seeing a 10 and 15 cent play-out show at a dollar each. Now we have such fakirs in Salem who style themselves as merchants that throw in something and they get other fools who haven't sense enough to know that they are injuring their own business by becoming cats paws to help advertise the fakirs. Among them you will find apparently some sensible men that bite at it—some barbers, jewelers, grocers. What will be the result at the end of five or six months? Some society will get a tin whistle or some old rattletrap, and the citizens will pay from 15 to 20 per cent more on every article they purchase of the fakirs than what they could buy in a legitimate house, and there are many in Salem who do a legitimate business. Friedman likes competition. Is not afraid of any one coming here with a large stock of goods; it would only help business. Those who want a good suit of clothes for a man or boy, or a hat, or ladies' and gents' furnishings, will save money by buying at

The Military Trolley party was postponed from last evening to Saturday next, owing to the disagreeable weather. The Car Company not being notified of the fact, had the decorated cars sent to the armory about nine o'clock, and the Military and the Band took a short ride about the city. The Band played several selections, and the militia boys, did their share of singing and hurrahing.
