YOU WON'T NEED A MAP OR A CANDLE

We don't claim to be better than others, but we do claim to understand this particular branch of our business, that's fitting the eyes properly with glasses when needed and when not needed we will tell you frankly so. We have the latest up-to-date scientific instruments and thousands to testify to our giving of satisfaction. We receive letters every week requesting us to visit nearby towns, but we cannot neglect those who come for miles to see us daily. Before buying come and see us. Eyes tested free.

OREGON'S HOMEWARD COLORS

Gov. Geer has received a communication from the officers of the Battleship Oregon, informing him that the crew of the ship has unanimously voted to present the state with the "homeward bound set of colors," composed of silk Ensign, Jack and Pennant, flown by the Oregon on her homeward bound voyage from Hong Kong to San Francisco. The letter asks as to whom and where it would be agreeable for his excellency to receive the same from the hands of the committee of the crew. The Oregon is now in the port of Bremerton, where she will probably remain for some time repairing, but as it is not known how long the present personnel of the ship's committee will stand it is urged that the matter be acted upon as soon as possible.
