GREATEST DAY OF SALEM

When the Colors of the Battleship Oregon Will Be Turned Over.

Pride of Our State Will Be Exalted and Next Tuesday Will Become Memorable.

Chairman Gatch and the young men marshaled under him are working hard to make next Tuesday a great event in the history of this state. There will be fireworks and patriotism, by day and by night.

Reports of Committees.

A telegram, received by the Governor from the battleship Oregon at the Bremerton Naval Station, gave the information that the party of petty officers, consisting of five men, would leave the vessel in time to reach Salem on Tuesday, at 11 a. m., and the committee purposes to have everything in readiness by that time, so there will be no hitch in the program.

Chairman Gatch appointed a reception committee to meet the visitors at the train and escort them to the hotel, consisting of F. W. Durbin, N. J. Judah and George H. Burnett.

The services of Miss Margaret Barry, the eulogist, who will be in Salem on next Tuesday, were, by her managers, offered the committee to read the poem on the "Launching of the Battleship Oregon," by the late lamented Sam Simpson, and were gratefully accepted. The finance committee reported great success in securing funds, $150 having been collected in a few hours work among the business men.

A program committee, consisting of Capt. M. W. Hunt, N. J. Judah and Jefferson Myers was appointed, and a committee consisting of F. W. Durbin, D. J. Fry and T. Holverson, was named to call on the business men of the city and ask them to close their doors for two hours on Tuesday afternoon during the time of the ceremonies.

The committee on band music reported that the Salem Military Band of twenty pieces had been secured.

Other Cities Invited.

Chairman Gatch reported sending out invitations to the Mayors of all the cities of the state, urging them to take part in the ceremonies and to send a large delegation of citizens as possible, this being done for the purpose of interesting the entire state, as this matter is one that interests the whole people. The letter of invitation sent out by Chairman Gatch followed:

"Dear Sir: Acting under instruction from the subcommittee, heretofore appointed by His Excellency, T. T. Geer, Governor of the State of Oregon, I most cordially invite you, the officers and the citizens of your city, to be present in this city Tuesday, July 16, 1901, at 2 o'clock p. m., to witness the ceremonies incident to the bestowal and reception of the Colors of the Battleship Oregon, the gift of the crew of that famous vessel to the State of Oregon.

"This is a matter of great importance and of great significance to every loyal citizen of Oregon. It is earnestly hoped your city will be largely represented on the occasion.

"With great respect, I am, Sir, your obedient servant.

"CLAUDE GATCH, Chairman.

"T. Holverson, Jefferson Myers, Frank Daver, D. J. Fry, H. D. Patton, F. W. Durbin, M. W. Hunt, G. A. Murphy, N. J. Judah, committee."

Grand Army Turn out.

The following order has been issued to the Salem Post and all members of the G. A. R. who are in the city on that date:

HALL OF REDWICK POST No 10 G. A. R. July 13, 1901.

The Post Commander desires all members of the G. A. R. and all other old Veterans to meet at our Post Hall at 1:45 p. m. sharp, Tuesday, July 16, to form in column and march to the front of the Willamette hotel to take part in the reception of the pennant carried by the noble warship "Oregon," in which our state takes so much pride.

B. H. BRADSHAW, Acting Commander. A full musical program is provided for including Miss Ethel Raymond with several solos.

MONEY TO LOAN, TERMS TO SUIT Maxwell & Hayden, Moores Block.

TRIBUNES this season have outstripped all former records in sales, due wholly to the fact that they have quietly proved themselves to be a critical public. What the streets these days, the number of dainty blue streaks thereon, tells the tale. It's in the perfect bearing. In the perfect fitting chains. In the "hang" of the wheel that the easy running qualities are found.

SECOND HAND WHEELS, a big bunch of them at your own prices. Gents' Sentinel, $5.00. Gents' Gladiator, $7.50. Gents' Remington, Cactus tires, almost new, $7.50. Gents' Reliance, one new tire. Gents' '99 $40 Victor, $10. Gents' Imperial, $7.50. Boy's Crescent—new, tire $8.00.

And a number of others in equally good condition all ready to ride.

ROADSTERS CHAIN WHEELS $35 and $40 RACERS, $50. CHAINLESS, $60 and $75.

And a number of others in equally good condition all ready to ride.

MARION CIRCUIT COURT

In department No 2, of the circuit court, Judge Boies has filed his decree dismissing the amended complaint in case of Jefferson Meyers, administrator of the estate of S. P. Costello, vs. Mary Costello et al, suit to set aside deed, the decree being upon finding of facts and conclusions of law formerly found by the court.

In the case of Tilmon Ford, executor, vs. A. T. Gilbert, et al., the stipulation of the intervenor was withdrawn, and leave granted to defendants A. T. Gilbert and M. E. Gilbert, to file answer, Brown, Wrightman & Meyers were appointed by the court for the receiver. Claud Gatch.

A suit entitled Mary A. Sweet, plaintiff, vs. Allie G. Farnham, E. J. Farnham, her husband, E. R. Osterhoudt and Mrs. E. R. Osterhoudt, his wife, defendant has been filed in department two of the circuit court. The parties of the suit are heirs of H. D. Osterhoudt, deceased, and the real property belonging to the estate consists of 267 acres of land in this county which has been appraised at $4,000. The plaintiff alleges that the defendant E. R. Osterhoudt was and is indebted to said estate to the amount of $2000 for an advancement made before the death of H. D. Osterhoudt, and a just partition of the property is asked.

HORSES SMASHED BUGGY

Quite an exciting runaway took place on the corner of Com'l and Chemeketa streets at 11 o'clock today. A four-horse team, hitched to a wood wagon and owned by a Mr. Weider, was left standing in front of the postoffice, when they became frightened and started down the street at a fearful rate of speed.

Mrs. Best, an aged vegetable peddler residing in Polk County was driving a single horse a short distance ahead of the wood wagon, and before she could get out of the way the large horses in the lead jumped clear on top of the buggy, completely demolishing it. Mrs. Best fell under the buggy, and was surrounded by wheels and two fallen horses. She was rescued by A. S. Kightlinger, jrs in time to avoid being kicked to death by one of the horses. Mrs. Best is not seriously hurt but she is quite badly bruised. Strange to say the horses pulled out all right with out a scratch, but the buggy is so badly smashed that it is not worth repairing.

Reception for Mrs Morgan.

A reception was given by Elizabeth Holverson, Friday evening, at her home on Chemeketa street, in honor of her guest, Mrs. Edna Morgan of Newcomerstown, Ohio. It was an especially enjoyable affair and the pleasure of the guests was greatly added to by the excellent music furnished by Mrs. F. A. Wiggins, Miss Remoh Holland and Miss Hirsch. Guessing games were the principal pastime, the names of cities being chosen for the guesses. Miss Georgia Giltner won the first prize in the contest, and the consolation prize was awarded to Miss Marie Vandorsol. The rooms were artistically decorated, and worthy of especial note were the handsome gowns worn, which added greatly in making a brilliant scene of the whole.

Among the invited guests were the following:

Mrs W. Morse, Mrs R. Boies, Mrs E. M. Hurd, Mrs F. A. Wiggins, Mrs L. Westcott, Mrs P. Sreat, Mrs Downing, Mrs G. Rogers, Mrs J. Roberts, Mrs A. B. Gillis, Mrs E. P. McCormick, Mrs E. Hamilton, Mrs Alice Dodd, the Misses Marie Vandorsol, Maud MacKay, Lenora Kay, Blanche Kautser, Edna Price, Carrie Horst, Stella Hurst, Helen Calbreath, Virgie Byrd, Bertha Byrd, Hortense Kimball, Ella Rineman, Francis Richardson, George Giltner, Lucy Williams, Blanche Belle, Cora Talkington, Jessie Freyman, Lena Freyman, Esther Collins, Renoch Holland, Constance Holland, Carrie Willis, Ethel Hughes, Genevieve Huges, I. tie Bennett, Gussie Giesy, Mae Boise, Margaret Cooper, Agnes Gilbert, Katherine Gilbert, Lou Hirsch, Maud Hirsch, Leona Hirsch, Gertie Hirsch.

HENS IN JUSTICE COURT

How Biddy Became a Witness and Decided the Case.

For the Defendant Who was Able to Win Her Own Against able Counsel.

The ordinary legally conducted trial for justice is a grave matter and should, and usually does, receive serious attention from all parties concerned in it, even to the lookers-on, but the trial conducted over some alleged stolen hens Friday afternoon in Justice O'Donald's court was without a serious feature, except to the plaintiff and defendant, the former being Mrs. Jennie Harding and the latter Mrs. S. Allin. Mrs. Allin conducted her own case and the state was represented by John Bayne. The jurors were, James Batchelor, J. C. Brown, J. M. Bigler, W. Dennis, A. Olinger and J. H. Campbell and after some deliberation returned a verdict of not guilty.

Several neighbors were called as witnesses and some conflicting facts in the testimony heard. The pedigree of the hens was given and all present undoubtedly learned several things about poultry and the capabilities of certain stock that may prove of value. It was alleged that four hens were stolen but since that time, July 6th, two of them have disappeared and of the two remaining ones, a pet called "Biddy" of Bart Cochran variety, was of especial interest to the witnesses, and she was led from the hand of Mrs. Allin to prove her ownership, and she certainly was watched as she slowly walked across the room when called and ate the wheat out of the witness' hand. General enjoyment of the amusing and ridiculous climax and situations prevailed, and the court was several times compelled to call for order, but the case, fortunately was only a "hen" trial.

POST HOLES SOLD

Sheriff Durbin this morning sold under execution fourteen electric light poles and post holes erected by F. R. Anson, including the franchise. They were bid in by C. F. McCormick Cutting Machinery

In its Weight In Light Draft In Lack of Side Draft In Strength and Durability In Cost of Maintaining

This latter is a most important question, and one that purchasers sometimes overlook. McCormick parts, when you need them are to be had of us, at once, and the price of the parts point for point are much lower than those of other machines. Then, too, the parts are made heavier and more durable than other machines.
