MERRIMENT WITHOUT THE AID OF WINE

By Mrs. E. D. Geer, Press Sept. W. C. T. U.
"While wine and friends laugh merrily without the aid of wine." The writer once belonged to a society, and at each weekly meeting we sang just before closing a song containing the above line. This is what the temperance man can do; and if he is a true Christian as well (this means women too) he cannot say "I will take existence lightly and keep out of the way of the wretched and mistaken ones;" but he takes a cheerful, sunny view of life, resting on truth and fact co-existing with practical spirituality ever to make men and self better than they are. He has a warmth in the clasp of friendship forever lingering on the land; a consoling voice that swells with eternal echo on the ear; a dew of mercy falling on the bruised and troubled heart. He cares not whether your hand be hard or soft, whether you have been the inside of a college or the outside, whether the world account you noble or ignoble; he has gathered so much of the heavenly atmosphere about him that he is not afraid of being contaminated. Communion with God kept David pure in Babylon. He knows that what we need in this world is men and women in Christ Jesus, modifying, sweetening and strengthening each other. Christ their model, had all the best characteristics that pertain to either class, and to be like Him they are to forget themselves, and cultivate the best gifts and graces. Does this temperance man use a stimulant? Yes, one that never fails, and yet never intoxicates—Duty. Having fought for a clear brain he is quick to see where in it lies, nor does he think the path is sad or gloomy; on the contrary, duty performed puts a blue sky over him, and in his heart the skylark, happiness, spread forth his willing wings, his thoughts soar far above the world and he sings the praise of the Savior that has called him out of darkness into the glorious light.
The Arabs have an allegory that every man has two angels, one on the right shoulder and one on the left, if at midnight the man has asked forgiveness for any misdeed committed during the twenty hours previous, the angel on the right writes in the book of life with joy and gladness the word "Forgiveness," but if at midnight the man has not repented or asked to be forgiven, the angel on the left records the deed and the angel on the right weeps.

THISTLES AND DANDRUFF.
An Interesting Parallel and a Valuable Deduction Therefrom.
Cutting down thistles no more relieves the land of thistles than does scouring the scalp cure dandruff. In each case permanent relief can only come from eradicating permanently the cause. A germ that grows up the scalp in marching for the hair root where it saps the vitality, causes dandruff, falling hair, and baldness. If you kill that germ, you'll have no dandruff but a luxuriant suit of hair. Newbro's Herculide is the only hair preparation in the world that cures dandruff, falling hair and baldness by killing the germ. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect."
Marion County Jail.
Harry Dunsen, who has served six months in the county jail for breaking a prison window, was released this morning.
There are only two prisoners remaining in this depot of detention, viz: John Kelly and E. T. Zumwalt, both of whom are awaiting trials at the October term of the circuit court.

OF SPECIAL INTEREST
To Hay Fever Sufferers.
Sufferers from hay fever and summer catarrh will be interested to learn that there is a new, simple, inexpensive but effective home treatment for this obstinate and baffling disease, and that a little booklet fully describing the treatment will be mailed free to any one by addressing the F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.
Doubtless this statement of a cure and positive preventative of hay fever will be received with skepticism by the thousands who have found the only relief every year was a change of climate during the summer months.
But whether skeptical or not it will cost nothing to investigate this new treatment. Simply send name and address on a postal card to F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich., for the booklet which besides describing the treatment contains a concise treatise on the cause and character of this peculiar disease.
