Salem's Best Store

We have a field of tempting bargains, just mellow ripe and ready for your garnering. We realize that summer goods, like summer grain, unless harvested at the right time, lose their value. The longer they remain in the store, the less valuable they are. Therefore, we have slashed into the price of everything in the summer line making our loss now your gain, rather than that we both should lose (we the profit and you the pleasure of wearing the goods) by having to carry them over into the fall months.

THE OLD PRICE ON ALL LINEN, DUCK AND CRASH SKIRTS HAS BEEN CUT SQUARE IN TWO. A VOTE IN THE KIMBALL PIANO CONTEST GOES WITH EVERY 25 CENT PURCHASE, ASK FOR THE TICKET.

CARLTON ACKERMAN WEDDING

A beautiful home wedding occurred at noon Monday at the residence of Hon. and Mrs. J. H. Ackerman of this city, their daughter, Miss Lillian Ackerman being married to Edmund F. Carlton of Joseph, Oregon.

The decorations of the home in honor of the event were lovely in the extreme, an abundance of ferns and flowers being every where. The entrance hall was beautiful with pink La France roses, and the parlor was in white and green, and red flowers in the dining room gave a brilliant effect.

The wedding service was conducted by the Rev. W. G. Elliot, jr., of Unity church; Miss Caroline Ackerman, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. The wedding party was preceded when entering by the little sister of the bride, Bella Ackerman, who carried a basket of flowers.
At the conclusion of the ceremony and extension of congratulations an elegant luncheon was served.

Those attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. G. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Sherrieb, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Cockerline, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Jones, Mrs. J. N. Brown, Mrs. M. E. Vandervel, Mrs. Barnes Rand, Mrs. Wm. Will, Mrs. A. A. Burton, the Misses Helen Hibbard, Mercedes Brinkerhoff, Marie Vandervel, Jennette Brown, Ollie Carlton, Messers. Herbert Carlton, J. G. Swan, D. J. Hardman and Master Delbert Burton and Master Vivian Brown.
Mr. Carlton is principal of the school at Joseph Oregon and they have gone to that place to reside, going by way of The Dalles.

Atlantic City, N. J., Aug. 13.—Alexander C. Botkin, of Montana, chairman of the United States Code Commission, has arrived here to spend several weeks. Mr. Botkin is accompanied by his stenographer and devotes a portion of each day of his vacation to official labors. The duty of the code commission includes the revision of all the laws of the United States of a general and permanent nature, but it is at present engaged in pursuance of the special direction of Congress in revising the laws relating to the organization, jurisdiction and practice of the federal courts. In an interview Commissioner Botkin said: "The commission will recommend a number of more or less radical changes. The most important of these is the consolidation of all original jurisdiction in the United States district court and making the circuit court take the place of the present circuit court of appeals as the intermediate court of review. If the changes proposed are adopted by Congress, judges of the circuit court will be wholly relieved of the trial of cases in the first instance and will perform only the duties attaching to an appellate court. Various changes in practice will also be embodied in the report of the commission in the interest of uniformity, simplicity and convenience."
Mr. Botkin believes that the commission will be able to report the revision of the judiciary title before the next session of Congress. It recently submitted a project for a United States penal code designed to cover the numerous omissions and defects in the present criminal laws.

SOUTH AMERICA TROUBLES

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—Oscar Malin, United States Consul at Colon, Colombia, reports to the State Department that guerrilla fighting has been going on at six different points between Colon and Panama.

New York, Aug. 13.—A dispatch from Panama to the Herald says: The troops daily expected from Buena Ventura have not yet arrived. It is rumored that General Pinto, Governor of Cauca has resigned, but this is not yet confirmed.

The General Pinzon (the converted yacht Nanunua) has not yet returned.

New York, Aug. 13.—Senor Arterea de Brigard, consul-general for Colombia in this city, has received the following cable dispatch from Acting Governor Aristides Arjona of Panama: "Traffic continues unhindered, predatory warfare carried on around railroad has produced no alarm. General situation is satisfactory."
The railroad referred to in this message is that owned by the Panama Railroad Company, for the protection of which President J. Edward Simmons has asked the government to send a warship.

Consal-General de Brigard characterized as untrue the assertion by the revolutionist that they have 8000 men under arms in the department of Panama. "It is also untrue," he said, "that the government has done nothing to conciliate the liberals. President Marroquin has issued several decrees guaranteeing freedom. The government does not, as has been stated, persecute the families of the revolutionists. In fact, the family of General Uribe is in Bogota now enjoying the same privileges as mine would were they there."
The steamer "Alone" has just arrived from Savannah and Cartagena. One of her officers said: "Very little news is permitted to get out, although it is known on the coast that some desperate fighting has recently taken place in the interior."

WOODBURN COMPANY INCORPORATE

The Union Light and Power Company has filed articles of incorporation at the county clerk's office. The incorporators are A. R. Kurts, W. M. Kurts and C. U. Miller, the principal office being at Woodburn. The business of the corporation is that of dispensing light, heat, water power and telephone service in Marion and Clackamas counties. Capital stock $50,000.

Debating at Manzanita Hall.
The victory in debate won shortly before Commencement by Manzanita Hall, a preparatory school for boys at Palo Alto, California, for its principal rival, has aroused some curiosity as to the grade of work done by this school and principals will be glad to know that one of the judges on this occasion, himself an old Harvard debater pronounced the work of the Manzanita boys equal to the best he had ever seen done by a preparatory school.

Manzanita Hall bears the same relation to Stanford University, which is also located at Palo Alto, that Exeter does to Harvard. It is doing just as careful and thorough work as that famous Eastern preparatory school, and the fact that its students are admitted upon certificate to the leading Universities of the East, as well as of the West, shows that the grade of work done is of equally high standard. Particular attention is paid to outdoor exercise, and the fact that living is cheaper there than in the East, together with its incomparable location in the beautiful Santa Clara valley, renders Manzanita Hall an ideal home school for boys.

The recent gift of Phillip K. Gilman, who is a graduate of Manzanita and of Stanford, adds two thousand birds to Manzanita Hall's collection, making it one of the largest, if not the large collection owned by any preparatory school in the country. The Fall term opens September 5. Only boys with the highest recommendations are taken, as the Principal becomes personally responsible for their welfare.

LEARNING A TRADE.
The Danger of Making a Specialist.
It is generally to the interest of an employer that an apprentice should learn his trade as a whole, but only a little section of it, says Joseph Horner in Cassier's Magazine. It pays better to keep a lad repeating the performance of one section of his craft than to teach him all. More money is made. But the apprentice becomes a young specialist, a prig in his teens, cocksure over some little piece of handicraft at which he may earn something over his normal wages, and many a lad does not become disillusioned until he has to face the world and try his luck in other shops.
And therefore the best shops in which to place a lad are not the big establishments, but the small ones, where every class of work is done and where tools and appliances are often scarce. A lad will learn more in these than in those replete with every appliance and minutely subdivided into sections and groups.
The best training for a lad today is that which he can evolve for himself. The greatest evil that can befall him is to become a specialist and nothing more while in his teens. Yet that is what must happen if he spends several years tending machines or doing repetitive, unvarying tasks in one big establishment.
The best training, therefore, today is that gathered by the peripatetic youth. If a lad cannot gain experience in one place, he should move about, gathering as much as he can accumulate with one firm, then on to another, and attending training schools as opportunity offers. His views become broadened, he becomes self-reliant, and in time, having found his true work, he may settle down as a specialist.

The Reading Cure.
Reading aloud is recommended by physicians as a benefit to persons affected with any chest complaint. The recommendation is made because in all cases of lung trouble it is important for the lungs to be kept in exercise by which the chest is in part filled, and emptied of air, for the exercise is strengthening to the throat, lungs and muscles of the chest.
Reading aloud can be practiced by all and besides being a curative act can be a pleasure and profit to both reader and hearer. In this treatment it is recommended that an overdose of medicine be avoided, that the reading be, deliberate, without being allowed to drag, that the enunciation be clear, the body be held in a easy, unstrained upright position, so that the chest will have free play, and that the breathing be natural and as deep as possible without undue effort.

GILBERT BROTHERS

Judge Bellinger Hears Arguments and Orders Testimony Before a Referee.
At Portland yesterday the attorneys appeared before Judge Bellinger and argued the matter of declaring Gilbert Bros. bankrupt. H. J. Bigger appeared for the petitioners and J. N. Brown for the Gilbert Bros.
The petitioners moved that testimony be taken before Referee John Bayne, in Salem, which was granted, although the same was opposed by the attorneys for Gilbert Bros. The court further ordered that Gilbert Bros. might examine their witnesses before the court in Portland if they desired, upon condition that they pay any additional expense entailed thereby. The referee will now be obliged to give ten days' notice, when testimony can be taken before him, and Sept. 10th, has been set for the hearing before Judge Bellinger in Portland.

BORN.
REYNOLDS.—At the family home, No. 100 Ferry street, Sunday, August 11, 1901, to Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Reynolds, a son.

DIED.
WORKMAN.—At the family home, four miles southeast of Salem, Oregon, on the Macleay road, on Monday, August 12, 1901, at 9:30 a. m., Mrs. Emma O. Workman, wife of Henry J. Workman, aged 41 years, of heart trouble.

Mrs. Workman had been an invalid for a number of years, yet her death was sudden and unexpected. She had gone into the yard feeling quite well, but in a few minutes her little daughter heard her calling and went to her, when she found her gasping for breath. Mr. Workman, who had gone to a neighbor, was summoned but her death occurred before his arrival. An attack of heart failure is presumably the cause of her death. Her husband and little daughter, aged 11 years are the remainder of the family.

The Ohio Ensilage Cutter and Blower
One of the most modern money savers yet introduced for the dairyman and stock raiser. The one we have on display in front, will cut and elevate 12 tons of home silage as high as forty feet. The fan for the silage is made of No. 12 sheet steel, which is very stiff and substantial, and will not rust out in a few years. The fan is mounted directly on the pulley shaft, which easily attains a speed of 600 revolutions a minute. The Ohio self-feed cutter is well known, time tried and tested. Self feed saves more labor and earns more dollars than any other feature about an ensilage cutter. It saves three-fourths of the labor in feeding, and the cutting capacity is increased 33 1/3 per cent.
