morning:

You hear these words every day; as often as you meet your friends just so often are these words repeated. More than likely you speak the same signifisant words yourself, and no doubt you do feel far from well most of the time. Mrs. Ella Rice, of Chelsea, Wis., whose portrait we publish, writes that

It was a few moments after 4 p. m. all of which was caused by falling and while President McKinley was holding a doctoring with physicians and numer-

Then came commotion. Three men threw themselves toward the would-be assas sin. Two of them were United States MANAGER-Faithful, energetic man to secret service men who were on the lookout and whose duty it was to guard against just such a calamity as had here befallen the President of the Nation. The third was a bystander, a negro, who had only an instant previously grasped the hand of the President. In a twinkling, the assassin was borne to the ground, his weapon was wrested from his grasp, and strong arms pinloned him down. Of the multitude which witnessed or bore part in the scene of turmoil and turbulence, there was but one mind which a emed to retain its equilibrium, one hand remained steady, one eye which gazed with unflinching calmness and one voice which retained its even tenor and faitered not at the most critical juncture. They were the mind, and hand, and eye, and voice, of Presideat Mckinley. After the first shock Fry's Drug Store of the assassin's shot be retreated a step. The President's assailant in the neantime had been hustled by the Exposition guards to the rear of the building, where he was held while the building was cleared, and later he was turned over to Superintendent Bull, of the Buffalo police department, who took the prisoner to No. 13 police station and afterwards to police headquarters.

As soon as the crowd in the Temple of Music had been disperard suffic ently the President was removed in an automobile ambalance and taken to the Exposition hospital, where the examination was made. The best medical skill was guests. The bride was attended by her summoned and within a brief period several of Buffelo's best known practitioners were at the patient's side.

The President retained the full exerperating table and subjected to an anaesthetic. CAUSE OF FALLING HAIR.

Kill the Germ. Falling bair is caused by dandruff which is a germ disease. The germ in where it destroys the vitality of the hair, causing the hair to fall out, digs up the cuticule in little scales, called danlruff or seurf. You can't stop the falling hair without curing the dandruff, and you can't cure the dandruff without killing the dandruff germ. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." New bro's Herpicide is the only hair preparation that kills the dundruff germ. Herpicide s also a delightful hair dressing.
