EDITORIAL

THE JOURNAL published the statement of the superintendent of the Missouri state reform school at Booneville, Mo., to the effect that the school since it was established had only cost that state about $150,000, that it was self-sustaining and that all they had asked the legislature for the past year was $4,000 for an ice plant. This has been called in question by some, and Secretary of State Donbar has handed THE JOURNAL the State Auditor's report which throws some light on the management. The Missouri reform school is maintained from funds collected from the counties sending the boys and from their parents or relatives who pay for the care of boys. For the years 1900 and 1899 the amount received in this way was $100,312.00, and the expenditure was $104,995.64. The state auditor's report says the deficiency is supplied by an appropriation by the general assembly, but as the school had a balance of $7,821.05 in 1899 and a balance on hand Jan. 1, 1901, of $3,287.51, there is no evidence that the state has paid anything the past two years for support. Page 609, of the above report shows total expenditures of the institution since its establishment March 20, 1887, to be $997,741.84. This is the total for buildings, improvements, repairs, location, construction, support and contingent expenses. This does not bear out the superintendent's interview: "Since the school was established we have only cost the state about $150,000." We have sent him a copy of these facts and called his attention to the discrepancy. The intention of the Missouri state authorities seems to be to make the counties sending the boys pay for their keep, or to make parents or guardians pay the bill. We shall next get the facts of the total cost of the Oregon state reform school and compare the expense with that of Missouri. The facts will hurt no one, and may lead to a better system in Oregon.

Lincoln and Garfield were not killed by anarchists. If they had lived today their fate might have been the same as that of our late President. The new President is not safe against the assassin plottings of the anarchists, who aim not at the destruction of the individual, but to startle the world into the consideration of conditions by the propaganda of the "dead." So President Roosevelt is not safe for a moment from their assaults, and he will be justified in taking all steps allowable under the constitution to extricate this school of reformers from our country. That he will take rigorous steps no one can doubt, nor doubt that the nation will sustain them. There is one weapon Roosevelt can use if he will that costs nothing and that is better protection than any security that laws or walls of steel can afford.

A FEW FRESH HANDOUTS.

From the Last Issue of New York Life, America's Greatest Humorous Weekly.
The Cream of Society seldom rises on the Milk of Human Kindness.

"Don't you know it is unlucky to postpone the wedding day?" "But not if you keep on doing it."

Daughter: There will be literary people there.
Mother: Yes, and be on your guard with them.
"But how shall I know them, mother?"
"By their hair; long in the men, and short in the women."

2 missionaries, working 2 hours a day, can convert 2 Chinamen in 23 years, at an expense of $40,000. But three missionaries, working 3 hours a day at an expense of $60,000, can convert only 2 Chinamen in 20 years. How many missionaries, working 6 hours a day, can convert 1,000,000 Chinamen in 100 years, and what is the expense?

NEWEST BOOKS AND MUSIC.

At Life's Last Tavern.
How changed is all! * * * I long no more
To climb the heights where many fall;
But sit here, at Life's tavern door,
And smoke my pipe and quaff my ale.

If in the clouds of smoke that rise
And fade into the ether fast,
I do behold Letitia's eyes,
They lack the luster of the past.

It was but yesterday when she—
Knowing my heart adored her so—
Gave all her glances bright to me,
And yet it seems an age ago!

Far off I seem to see her now,
Before her kneeling worshiper,
The dust of years is on her brow,
The centuries are over her!

I dare not think what might have been,
Yet, as she comes at Love's command,
The heart thrills like a mandolin
Sweet by a lover's trembling hand.

And still I dream, when dreams are o'er,
Far off Love's voices faint and fail;
Here, at Life's ghostly tavern door,
I smoke my pipe, and quaff my ale.

Mr. Norman Hapgood follows up his life of Lincoln with a biography of Washington which will be published by the Macmillan Company next month.

A Maid of Venice will be the title of Mr. F. Marion Crawford's new novel. The period of the story is the end of the Fifteenth Century when the Queen of the Adriatic was nearing the time of her greatest splendor.

The publication of Mr. Gelett Burgess's poems in the little volume entitled "A Gage of Youth," which is announced by Small, Maynard & Company, will be quite likely to surprise many people, who, remembering "The Purple Cow" and the "Gonp" verses, of the "Lark" have thought Mr. Burgess's muse to be the singer of the totally absurd.

Booker T. Washington's anecdotes, and the stories about him, have had no small part in making him famous. He has put the best ones, and many of them, in his Autobiography, "Up from Slavery." The publicity and success to which the work has achieved leads to separate these stories and edit them for newspaper use.

The last two volumes of Doubleday, Page & Co.'s "Personal Edition" of George Eliot, are to be particularly notable in that they contain each a hitherto unpublished portrait—of George Eliot, herself, and the other of father, Robert Evans, both drawings by Mrs. Charles Bray. The two volumes contain respectively the poems and essays, and they will complete a most laudable effort on the part of the editor and publishers to the works of the greatest English woman novelist into a form to be best appreciated by twentieth century readers.

The "New" Lippincott poetry has come to stand for something besides space-filling. In the October number may be found excellent examples from Felix N. Garson, who wrote the sonnet to Queen Victoria, republished with editorial comment in the London Times, Clinton Scouler, Clarence Umay, Guy W. Green, Paul Laurence Donbar, Charles Hanson Towne, and Frances du Signon.

Latest Musical Publications.
Everyone has heard of or seen the delightful play, with its scenes of rural life, entitled "Lovers Lane." It is on the beautiful story of this play that Max S. Witt and Robt. F. Roden's latest faring, "He A Long Lane That Has No Turning," is founded.

Otto Langey, the composer of the celebrated "Mandolin" Mexican serenade, has just written a beautiful new serenade called "Verona." Every music lover should have it.

All those music lovers to whom the beautiful ballad "In The House Of Too Much Trouble" appealed strongly, will be delighted with "A Little Empty Nest," the latest by the same authors. "Don't Butt In" is the old title of a new song, which is a big hit with Lew Dockstader, the famous minstrel, this season. It is by Johnson, Cole & Johnson, the writers of May Irwin's hits last season.

The new book, "The Puppet Crown," is the latest from this year, and Harry Dowling Sutton's waits of the same title will be one of the big hits.

George Pimrose, the popular minstrel, is singing a new song, "When The Jack O'Lantern Starts To Walk About" in his show. It is a splendid success for him.

The above publications are issued this month by Joseph W. Stern & Co., the "House of Hits" who are also agents for the celebrated Hawkes Sonorous Band Instruments and the Bears "Majestic" Stringed Instruments. They are pleased to send their illustrated catalogue free, upon application to their main office, 34 E. 21st Street, New York.

No External Symptoms.

The blood may be in bad condition, yet with no external signs, no skin eruption or sores to indicate it. The symptoms in such cases being a variable appetite, poor digestion, an indescribable weakness and nervousness, loss of flesh and a general run-down condition of the system—clearly showing the blood has lost its nutritive qualities. It becomes thin and watery. It is in just such cases that S. S. S. has done some of its quickest and most effective work by building up the blood and supplying the elements lacking to make it strong and vigorous.

"My wife used several bottles of S. S. S. as a blood purifier and to tone up a weak and emaciated system, with very marked effect by way of improvement."
"We regard it a great tonic and blood purifier."
—J. H. Durr, Princeton, Mo.

SSS is the greatest of all foods, and you will find it the appetite invigorator, strength returns, and nervousness vanishes as new rich pure blood once more circulates through all parts of the system.

S. S. S. is the only pure vegetable blood purifier known. It contains no minerals whatever. Send for our free book on blood and skin diseases and write our physicians for any information or advice wanted. No charge for medical advice.
