

A Strong Woman

Town City, Iowa, Aug. 15, 1900

My wife was sick for three years. We tried everything without relief and spent much money. My wife tried Wine of Cardui and four bottles cured her. She took two more bottles, knowing she would have to work hard during the hay harvest and she would not be able to get about, but since she has been taking Wine of Cardui she feels better and stronger than when 20 years of age. JOS. A. EISENHAFER.

Mrs. Eisenhaver had tried everything during her three years sickness and had spent considerable money. She was weak and could hardly get about for three years before she took

WINE OF CARDUI

Now, after taking the Wine of Cardui, she can work with her husband in the hay field. That is hard work, but it is not as injurious to a woman's health as labor in stores, factories and offices where thousands of girls are closely confined year after year. With the aid of Wine of Cardui she feels better and stronger than when 20 years of age.

Cardui a woman can do any reasonable work and enjoy good health. The health that Wine of Cardui brings makes a woman vigorous in body and mind. Freed from those terrible devastating pains a woman grows well and strong naturally. Wine of Cardui regulates the disordered menstruation and cures leucorrhoea, falling of the womb and periodical pains in the head and back caused by standing or sitting a long time in the same position. Theodor's Black Draught puts the bowels, stomach, liver, kidneys and blood in proper shape. Greatly increased strength and endurance is the natural result. Most cases are cured quickly. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui and 25 cent packages of Theodor's Black Draught.

PAPERS ON THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS

The Journal has arranged to print a series of papers on the public schools and the first one appears today.

It is from the pen of the eloquent young clergyman of the Yew Park United Brethren church.

It was read at the Salem ministerial union at the request of that body and was the subject of a prolonged discussion in which many good thoughts about improving our public schools were brought out.

The ministers union is an able body of men and they are deeply interested in education. The Journal has secured these addresses and will print them in the next few issues.

They are all friendly to the public schools and will help make public sentiment to uphold the good work of the past and make still greater progress possible.

PUT THE OFFICIALS ON A SALARY

The first step toward putting any corporation in order is to find out exactly what the fixed charges of operation are and what the income is.

With this in view THE JOURNAL has opened a campaign to put all officials on a flat salary and put all fees and emoluments above a stated salary into the treasury.

When the people know exactly to a cent what they are paying each one of their state officials there will be a basis for reform and improvement and better business methods.

The state superintendent of schools says all the fees of his office are now going into the treasury. This has only been for a few years, and is contested. Other superintendents took the fees and others may do it again.

For many years all the fees of that office were taken by the official, whether there was any law for it or not. It is a question whether all fees collected by a state official do not belong to the state.

THE JOURNAL has received general support in the press of all parties for starting this campaign and for starting it right.

Prominent Republicans have assured THE JOURNAL that they favor this reform and will help put it through their conventions.

A prominent Democrat who is in the councils of that party has called in says he will favor a platform to make the five offices cost about $40,000 a year instead of $80,000 as at present.

The people who favor reform principles in our state affairs are not going to be particular who does it so it is done honestly and fairly and there are men in all factions of Republican party who favor it.

JOURNAL X RAYS

Salem will launch another club Monday evening—the Commercial.

There is no smile quite so complacent these days as that of the Salem gas metre.

Of course no state board is responsible for its clerk. No one is responsible for anything. This is a funny world.

Close buyers who have investigated are confident that Salem holiday goods are being sold much lower than at Portland.

There are only a few shares of stock in the fruit growers' union to be taken. It will be the grower's own fault if he remains unorganized.

There is a whole lot of bargains offered by our merchants to holiday shoppers such as were never offered before. Their ads are full of information.

Salem men never concede the superiority of any city over their own. Besides Salem is the best governed city this side of the new Jerusalem.

That Y. M. C. A. orator fell down on Salem public spirit when he admitted this town had done what Denver could not do—put up a home for the boys.

An exchange says perhaps Harvey Scott is slated for Governor himself. If he made as good a one as he did a textbook commissioner, he'd be a corker on some things.

"Not dead but sleepeth" on an eastern Oregon tombstone, was shockingly modified to the discomfiture of the too-soon-married widow, by the addition of: "With another fellow."

THE JOURNAL is overrun with ads, but they are all for the purpose of showing the people that this is the best place in the state to buy your holiday presents and the ads. are full of helpful hints.

A Salem paper that is managing candidates for the whole Republican party says the Loney boys are working to get a delegation for Fulton. Well, that is no crime. There are worse men than Fulton for Senator.

Gov. Patrick A. Collins, mayor of Boston, is a shining example of what poor but gifted boys can do with American opportunities. At 14 he was working in the coal mines of Ohio. At 20 he was a Boston cabinet-maker by day and an enthusiastic law student by night. Before he was 30 he was eminent as a lawyer and a national Democratic leader. At 40 he was in Congress, and his last post of public service was as our Consul-General at London. Boston workmen, from w. o. ranks he graduated, are naturally proud of him.

Salem has plenty of organizations. It needs men of nerve to back propositions and enterprises on something more than a peanut scale of magnificence.

Uncle Sam will get his back up one of these days and buy back a few of those transcontinental railroads he sold for a song a few years ago and break the back of the trust.

Everybody is going to have a chance to indulge in that luxury of western Oregon—shoveling the beautiful.

OREGON HOP GROWERS

The Association Backs up Messrs. Durst and Feller.

The executive committee of the Oregon Hop Growers Association has denied the report regarding a friction between the association and M. H. Durst in the forming of the pool. The rumor was alleged to have been started in Portland, and was to the effect that Mr. Durst had denied that the association had anything to do with the formation of the pool or that Francis Feller would accompany him to London to conduct the sale of the consigned hops. The letter is as appended:

"Lest certain items disseminated by the 'press' may be misleading we desire to state that the proceedings in the formation of the London shipment of pooled hops—have been entirely harmonious—and unanimously acquiesced in—of the hop in the pool more than five-sixths have been secured from stockholders of the Oregon Hop Growers' Association. These growers are not worrying—believing their interests are well protected by their contract formulated and agreed upon by the Oregon Hop Grower's association and Mr. Durst who has advanced nine cents per pound without recourse to each individual grower having hops in the pool—also by having one of their number—Mr. Francis Feller—who is one of the directors and treasurer of the Oregon Hop Growers' Association associated with Mr. Durst in the sale of the hops in London. Mr. Feller is a pioneer farmer and hop grower and one of the heavy taxpayers of Marion county. The growers in the pool have the utmost confidence that Mr. Feller will spare no pains to make this shipment a success, and will see that every grower is treated fairly and impartially—we also believe that it is the full intention and highest interest of Mr. Durst to get the market price for these hops so as to make good returns on the entire lot. Many of the growers think that the results of this pool will be so satisfactory that a run larger shipment will be made next season on a similar plan."

Pneumonia Prevented.

Among the tens of thousands who have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for colds and a gripe during the past few years, to our knowledge not a single case has resulted in pneumonia. Thos. Whitfield & Co., 240 Wabash Avenue, Chicago, one of the most prominent retail druggists in that city in speaking of this, says: "We recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a gripe in many cases, as it not only gives prompt and complete recovery, but also counteracts any tendency of a gripe to result in pneumonia." For sale by Dr. Stone's Drug Store.

Salem people were shocked this morning and did not know it.

ACTIVITY IN PRUNE MARKET

The prune Market yesterday and today received a notable impetus. Prices have jumped one quarter of a cent and there is a good demand for the best quality of goods. Nearly three fourths of the Italians are sold and those who wished to dispose of their holding could do so without trouble. Many, however, are still holding for higher prices.
