KEEP YOUR BLOOD CLEAN

Christmas Weddings

Stout-Mulkey

At the residence of Mr. and Mrs Lewis Stout at Mehama, Or., On Christmas day, 1901, at high noon, Mr. Columbus A. Mulkey and Miss Mary E. Stout both of that place.

The contracting parties are general favorites in the community and will make their future home at Portland.

The bride is a most excellent young lady of sterling character and high accomplishments, while the groom is a very excellent young man of high social standing and persuing studies of a high order of culture.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H. Jones in the presence of the immediate friends and the families of the contracting parties. The bridal party standing under an arbor of evergreen typifying the wishes of all friends for the happy couple that their lives be one of continuous joy and beauty.

Immediately after the ceremony the large company was led to the dining room where all that tempts the appetite was to be had, and to which all paid their respects by indulgence to satisfaction.

Many very beautiful presents were presented with the best wishes of donors for the long life and greatest joy of the happy groom and his bride.

Van Buren—Burton.

At the home of Mrs. Lucretia Burton, Twelfth and Chemeketa streets, occurred the marriage of her daughter, Miss Anna Burton to Mr. William Van Buren, on Wednesday, Dec. 25, 1901. The ceremony took place at one o'clock and was performed by Rev. Ronald McKillop of the Baptist church. The decoration of the home for this occasion was brilliant, an especially pretty arrangement being made. The bride is the next youngest daughter of Mrs Burton and the groom is a salesman in the furniture store of Buren & Hamilton. They went to Portland in the afternoon for a short visit with Mr. Van Buren's parents, and will make Salem their future home.

Moore-Kline.

Mr. Frank J. Moore and Miss Nellie Kline were married Wednesday, December 25, 1901, at the home of the groom's parents, Judge and Mrs. F. A. Moore, the Rev. H. A. Ketchum officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Kline, of Silverton, and has lived in this city for several years. The groom is engaged in the bicycle business, being a member of the firm of White & Moore, of Liberty street. Only the relatives of the two parties were present. The Moore residence was beautifully decorated with the usual Christmas-time flowers and plants. Mr. and Mrs. Moore will reside at the corner of Chemeketa and Marion streets.

Eoff-Swartz.

Miss Belle Swartz was married to Mr. Henry Eoff yesterday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Swartz near this city. The marriage was solemnized by Rev. J. B Early, a number of relatives and friends of the parties being present. Mr. and Mrs. Eoff will make their home in Portland where Mr. Eoff is employed in a mercantile establishment.

Pearle—Williams.

George L. Pearle and Miss Jessie Williams were married yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. O. P. Mauzey of North Salem, by Rev. Ronald McKillop of the first Baptist church. They have gone to Portland and The Dalles, to be absent about ten days.

Medford Wedding.

Dr. J. M. Keene of Medford was among the victims of Hymen on Christmas day. He wed at Frisco Miss Mollie Baumberg, also of Medford. They were united at the First Presbyterian church. His hosts of Marion county friends join in congratulations and would be glad to give the Doctor and his bride a more cordial welcome nearer at home if they should come this way.

GARFIELD—WILSON, at the Christian parsonage in this city at 3:30 p. m. Tuesday, Dec. 24, 1901, Miss Laura B. Wilson to Charles C. Garfield, both of Marion county, Geo. C. Ritchey, minister of the First Christian church officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Garfield will make Salem their home.

WAYMIRE—McAFIE—On Dec 23 1901 at 62 Erie street, San Francisco Ernest M. Waymire and Miss Sadie Maude McAfie, both of Santa Rosa, California the Rev. John. A. B. Wilson of the Howard street M. E. Church, officiating.

CHATFIELD—SMITH, in this city Dec. 25, 1901, by Rev. John Parsons. Miss Clara M. Smith and Mr. Curtis W. Chatfield. The marriage was performed at the residence of the officiating minister.

SHAW CHURCH QUESTION

Trustees Make a Correction or Two.

The Church Has Not Been Closed to Elder Scaggs.

SHAW, Dec. 23. In JOURNAL of Dec. 18th inst, the many readers of your paper are informed that the trustees of the M. E. Church, of Shaw closed the church against Mr. Scagge, who has been preaching there.

The writer whose name does not appear, claims that "it is a union church;" that it was built with the understanding that Mr. Scagge was to preach there; that "the people turned it over to the M. E. church at Turner."

All of the abve statements are untrue and misleading, hence should not pass without correction.

The church in question is not now nor never was a union church. Witness the language of the original subscription which was circulated for funds with which to build the church:

Shaw, Oregon, June 1894.—We the undersigned agree to give the amount set opposite our names for the purpose of building a Methodist Episcopal Church in or near the town of Shaw, Marion County Oregon. Said amounts not to be paid unless a subscription is obtained equal to two thirds of the cost of the building.

Payments to be made to the pastor or to any member of the building committee."

To the above was attached the name of nearly every citizen who then lived in or near Shaw. In accordance with the above, the lots were deeded, the charter recorded, all materials bought and paid for and the building dedicated in the name of the "M. E. Church of Shaw."

The church has never been turned over to the M. E. Church at Turner.

The statement is ridiculous in the extreme.

As to the matter of understanding that Mr. Scagge was to preach, it may be said that the building has been occupied by the M. E. Church Service once in two weeks; a "Union Sabbath" School in the afternoon of every Sabbath—with rare exceptions, and Epworth League services nearly every Sunday evening at 7 o'clock in winter and 8 o'clock in summer, also prayermeeting much of the time on Thursday evenings for the past seven years, and all of this time Mr. Scaggs had not appeared on the scene.

During part of the time the Presbyterian ministers from Turner have preached; and occasionally a minister of the Christian church and visiting ministes of other denominations have occupied the pulpit. The doors of this church have never been closed to any religious denomination except Mormons.

A few months ago, Mr. Scaggs, with the consent of the trustees and co-operation of the members of the M. E. Church held a series of meetings, at the close of which he left an appointment to preach once a month on Sunday afternoon. No consent was asked, no objections offered. Recently, he began another series of meetings. No, consent asked and no objections made. At the close of these meetings he left an appointment for services for Sunday evening, the evening which has been occupied by the Epworth League for more than seven years.

The Trustees of the church requested Mr. Scaggs to make no further appointments on Sunday evening. This written request was handed to Mr. Scaggs by Mr. Durfee, who assured him there were no objections to his use of the church on Sunday afternoons when not occupied. No further appointments were made and it is now claimed that the doors of the church are closed. Some one has erred. In justice to the trustees, the community at large and the people of Shaw this explanation is made. Trustees,

C. R. DURFEE,

An Excellent Combination.

The pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well known remedy, SYRUP OF FIGS, manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxative principles of plants known to be medicinally laxative and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxative, cleansing the system effectually, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers gently yet promptly and enabling one to overcome habitual constipation permanently. Its perfect freedom from every objectionable quality and substance, and its acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, without weakening or irritating them, make it the ideal laxative.

In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from senna and other aromatic plants, by a method known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. only. In order to get its beneficial effects and to avoid imitations, please remember the full name of the Company printed on the front of every package.
