FLAX INDUSTRY AT SALEM

Dr. Deimel of Linen-Mesh Underwear Fame Coming.

Woman's Flax Fibre Campaign May Bear Fruit after all.

A private letter from Mrs. W. P. Lord, of this city, conveys the information that Oregon and probably this city will be made the seat of a very important flax industry.

Mrs. Lord, who devoted several years to establishing the reputation of this this state for the production of flax fibre, has been at San Francisco pushing her hobby and has been in conference with Dr. Deimel, the head manager of the Deimel open-mesh linen underwear manufacturing establishments in Germany, and has decided to come to Oregon and establish a factory.

Dr. Deimel was in Salem a few years ago and introduced his wares and they bave had a great cale on the coast. In a letter received at Salem Sunday, Mrs. Lord says :-

"Mr. Deimel has been detained from his trip to Oregon at San Francisco by illness in his family but will go sometime this month. He is quite in earnest about placing his business in the state and will go to Europe in February, when he thinks it probable a director of the company will return with him who is also desirous of seeing a linen plant established in Oregon. It will certainly be a fine thing for our state and will be a matter of rejoicing to me. The doctor thinks favorably of Salem on account of the water power and cheaper living for

Mrs. Lord expresses the hope in clos ing that the people of Salem will heartily co-operate with Dr. D m el to secure this industry as his concern is an establishment doing a business that runs
