Justice Moore's Lecture.

Justice Moore lectured to the usual fine and intelligent audience that gathered at St. Joseph's hall. Previous to the lecture, Rev. P. A. Olivetti rendered a vocal solo, a patriotic selection, in a charming manner, Miss Lena Benoit playing the accompaniment, and after the address, "America" was sung by a quartet consisting of Mrs. R. A. Kirk, M. S. Ruby Gault, Rev. Olivetti and M. J. Petzel.

SOUND AS A DOLLAR

That is the result of a course of treatment with Scott's Emulsion. We have special reference to persons with weak lungs and sensitive throats.

Scott's Emulsion does some things better than others. This is one of them. It has a peculiar action on the throat and lungs which gives them strength and makes them tough.

That's how Scott's Emulsion drives out coughs, colds and bronchitis. It keeps them out, too.

We'll send you a little try, if you like. SCOTT & BOWNE, 400 Pearl Street, New York

SALEM SOCIAL WORLD
AND PERSONAL MENTION

Birthday Surprise.

On Tuesday, January 28th, a lot of the friends and neighbors of Rinaldo L. Jones, of Morningstar, gave him a call on his birthday and it was a genuine surprise to that gentleman, as it was the occasion of his 77th birthday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Blundell, Mrs. Sybert and son, Mr. and Mrs. Bennett and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Guild and son Harry, Mr. and Mrs. DeLong and Miss DeLong, Mrs. F. N. Derby and son and daughter. The party brought refreshments and had a very enjoyable social time playing games, singing and instrumental music. Mr. Jones was about as lively as any of them, playing the violin with his old-time energy and almost getting young and old to tripping the light fantastic too. Mr. Jones has lived in Oregon nearly nine years and is a better man physically than when he landed here.

Wedding Anniversary Surprise.

Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Hammett N. Lacy were surprised by a party of friends coming in to spend the evening with them, the occasion being the seventh anniversary of their marriage. Delightful refreshments were served, and a good social time was indulged in until a late hour.

Those present were Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Mott, Mr. and Mrs. Comfort, Miss Byars, Mrs. W. H. Byars, Miss Grace Babcock, Mrs. Ida P. Babcock, Miss Kitty Harbord, Mrs. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Schenck, Miss Ewena Schenck, Mrs. Squire Fannar, John Barna.

"For Her Sake."

If a good show for little money is capable of successful appeal to the patrons of the Grand Opera House it is altogether probable that the new Russo-Siberian play, FOR HER SAKE, will be greeted by a crowded house this evening. This piece is credited with being one of the most pretentious amusement enterprises on the road this season, from the point of view of scenic effects and the size and quality of its cast. Some of its climactic effects are calculated to stir the blood of the most blasé theatergoer. Prices, 75c, 50c and 35c. Box seats $1.00.
