

DISGRUNTLED.

Men Who Manufacture Misery.

The disgruntled man, the man who is sulky and dissatisfied under all conditions and circumstances, is to be found everywhere. Even at the sea side where he has gone for rest and recreation you'll find him early and sulky, grumbling at the weather, the people, the hotel accommodations, the board, and everything else. His scowling, sullen visage checks the flow of talk at the table, and hushes the prattle of playing children. Now and again one gossip says to another "The old chap's liver must be out of order." Somebody else says, "Perhaps he's suffering from kidney trouble." And a majority incline to the opinion that it's "just dyspepsia." And as it happens they are all of them right. His liver is sluggish. His kidneys are disordered. His blood is necessarily poisoned, by accumulations of effete matter. And last of all his stomach is "out of order." This is another case in which the logical sequence of statement

THE LAST IS FIRST.

The liver is sluggish because the stomach is diseased. The kidneys are disordered because the stomach and its allied organs of digestion and nutrition are "weak" and cannot supply adequate nutrition for the needs of the body. How do we know this? Because in so many cases, persons who had suffered with disease of heart, liver, lungs, kidneys, etc., have found these diseases entirely cured, when Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has cured diseases of the stomach and the other organs of digestion and nutrition.

"I was afflicted with what the doctors called nervous indigestion. Took medicine from my family physician to no avail. In looking over one of Doctor Pierce's Memorandum Books," writes Mr. Thos. G. Lever, of Lever, Richland Co., S. C., "I found my case described exactly. I wrote to you and made a statement. You sent me a descriptive list of questions, also hygienic rules. I carried these out as best I could, but thought myself incurable as I suffered so much with pain under my ribs and an empty feeling in my stomach. At night would have cold or hot feet and hands alternately. I was getting very nervous and suffered a great deal mentally, thinking that death would soon claim me. Always expected something unusual to take place; was irritable and impatient, and greatly reduced in flesh. I could scarcely eat anything that would not produce a bad feeling in my stomach. After some hesitation, owing to my prejudices against patent medicines, I decided to try a few bottles of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pellets.' After taking several bottles of each, found I was improving. I continued for six months or more, off and on. I have to be careful yet at times, of

is notorious for the miscellany it contains. Tops, string, apples, marbles, chewing gum, nails, jack-stones, are all mixed in one confused mass. What would be said of one who used that pocket which we call the stomach for such a heterogeneous collection of materials? This is done not alone by the human ostrich at the circus, but by thousands of good people who do not consider the relation of the stomach to the other organs of the body. The purpose of eating is to provide nutrition for the body. But how many people think of the nutritive value of food they eat? For the most part the choice of food is made to please the palate. The palate is a creature of education. It may be taught to crave things bitter or things sweet; to desire spicy or fiery condiments which irritate the stomach or dainties which distress it, and in which the food value is reduced to the minimum. As a rule the palate is taught to desire the most undesirable things from the viewpoint of nutrition. The result is that the stomach has to thrust a great quantity of straw to obtain one grain of nutrition.

The body is sustained by food properly digested and assimilated and converted into nutrition. But when the food lacks nutritive value the body and its organs must be starved. Exactly the same thing happens when the food eaten is nutritious, but the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition being weakened by disease, fail to extract the nutrition from the food provided. Then the body is starved also.

THE SIGN OF STARVATION

is weakness. A starved man can't work. A starved organ can't work; or at the best it works partially and ineffectively. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, by curing diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, enables the perfect digestion and assimilation of the food eaten, and this food converted into nutrition, builds up the body and all its parts and organs into sound health and strength.

"After I had received the advice which you gave me in regard to my treatment," writes Geo. Dornier, Esq., of 1935 Pulaski Street, Baltimore, Md., "I used your Golden Medical Discovery" according to directions. After using four bottles I considered myself cured as I have not felt any symptoms since. Had tried almost all remedies that I heard of that were good for dyspepsia, but without result. Finally I became discouraged and wrote to you for advice, with the above result."

TO DISCOURAGED PEOPLE.

The closing paragraph of Mr. Dornier's letter: "Finally I became discouraged and wrote to you for advice" would express the feeling of thousands who have written to Dr. Pierce. They have been growing steadily worse. As a forlorn hope they have written to Dr. Pierce and have been cured.

Persons suffering from chronic diseases are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter free. All correspondence strictly private and confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

ANOTHER INDUSTRY

Carpet Tumbler and Cleaning Plant Put in at Salem

Messrs Grover & Edwards, two young men, have just installed what is known as a tumbling carpet cleaner. It is a large wheel similar to a creamery churn and butter worker. The carpeting is put inside of this wheel, which is turned by a steam engine, and thus the tumbling motion beats out all the dust without injury to the fabric. This can be done so cheaply and thoroughly that when the process becomes known people will no longer beat their carpets to their great injury. These young men are intelligent industrious workers, and are entitled to the support of Salem people.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by E. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by E. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Miss Shirley In "A Young Wife"

Week's Engagement With a Strong Company at the Grand Opera House
The Best Appointed Modern Play-house on the North Pacific Coast

"A Young Wife," a modern melodrama by J. K. Tillotson, the well known writer of dramas of the sensational type, will be the bill. Last season when presented at the Fourteenth street theatre, New York, the play scored a run of over one hundred consecutive performances, and immediately after two high priced companies duplicated its triumph throughout the country.

But few stock theatres have as yet had the privilege of presenting it, and this will be its first presentation in this city at popular prices.

A powerful romance, thrilling incidents, good scenic effects, and a number of interesting characters have been the foundation for the success this play has met with. The action takes place in New York, and the Bowery, as well as Fifth Avenue, is represented in its characters.

A wealthy banker, his own son, an adopted son and his daughter-in-law are the principal figures. The son, a prodigal and an associate of crooks, unbeknown to his father is in love with his adopted brother's wife, and resorts to every means in his power to alienate her affections.

Being short of money he plans to rob his father's safe. While in the drawing room with a notorious crackman he is surprised by his father, and in the struggle follows him with a paper-knife.

He and his pal flee from the scene and the body is found by the young wife and she is accused of the crime. After many exciting complications and man days of suffering, she is finally cleared of the charge and her persecutor escapes punishment by committing suicide. There are many bright comedy scenes throughout the play, and a number of amusing up-to-date characters. This will be the Shirley Company's opening bill at the Grand Opera House next Monday, Feb. 24. Box office opens Monday at 9 a. m. Popular prices 25c, 35c, and 50c.
