

WILL MAKE A DRY TICKET

Marion County Prohibitors Will Hold an Assembly

The Marion county Prohibitionists propose to participate in politics again this year. A full ticket for legislative and county offices will be placed in the field. The nomination of such candidates and the naming of delegates to the state convention is the object of a mass convention of the Prohibition workers of the county, to be held at the W. C. T. U. rooms, in this city, on Wednesday next, the 30th inst.

In the holding of a convention, and the formation of a ticket, Marion county Prohibitionists find they must comply in several particulars with provisions of the amended election laws of the state. The statutes on the subject provide expressly that the privilege of regularly holding primaries and county conventions, and the naming of a ticket, belongs only to such political parties as at the last general election cast at least 5 per cent. of the total vote recorded. In this county, at the last election, the Prohibitionists cast about 200 of the 6,000 votes deposited, or less than 4 per cent. The law provides that parties casting less than a 5 per cent. vote, can place a ticket in the field upon a petition signed by 5 per cent. of the voting strength of the county, or by a mass assembly that must be composed of at least 100 members. The Prohibitionists in the county will attempt to gain a place on the electoral ticket through the work of a mass assembly, which has been called to be held in Salem next Wednesday, simultaneously with the Republican county convention.

The dancing party given at Tioga Hall Wednesday evening was the fourth of a series of six parties, and proved the most successful yet managed by the Capital City Gaiety Club. About forty couples tripped the light fantastic, and thoroughly enjoyed the program of sixteen numbers. Rittine's orchestra, a popular local musical organization, furnished music of the best class, which is a prime element in making a successful dancing party. The fifth party will be given on the first Wednesday evening in April.

vincing than any rant, and he manages to give the exact shading to every motion and feeling it is his desire to interpret. Perhaps the greatest work he did last night was in the scene in which Storm, driven mad by the fear that Glory's life will lead to her downfall, bids her say her prayers and make ready to be put beyond temptation, but he was exceedingly strong in his scenes with Drake and Lord Robert Ure, while his portrayal of the moods of the clergyman was artistic in the extreme.

"Miss Leslie is one of the few 'prodigies' who have grown to be fine actresses. As 'Glory Quayle,' she has a difficult part, but she throws herself into it with an earnestness that is the fortune of few women to command, and her youth and beauty assist her greatly in her interpretation.

"The remainder of the cast is much the same as last year, and, with the exception of 'Polly Love,' fully as good, even better in some places. The mob scene is splendidly done by a crowd of people, who have been trained for it, and the women who compose Glory's music hall associates do their parts unusually well. The scenery is elaborate in the audience could ask."

Prices, $1.50, $1.00, 50c.

The White Slave.

The first visit of "The White Slave" since the beginning of the new century will certainly draw big crowds to the Grand Opera House, where it will be given on Saturday evening next, with a matinee in the afternoon.

A whole year has been given to active preparation of this play, the stage director has had his opportunity, the scene painters and electricians have worked diligently in perfecting new scenes and "light" effects, and, more important than all these, a really excellent dramatic cast has been secured—one that far exceeds in point of excellence any former organization presenting Bartley Campbell's beautiful drama.

Every detail of the new production has been given careful attention, and judging from the enormous success which has attended every performance in other cities, "The White Slave" has many years before it as an attraction that crowds will flock to see.

Saturday, March 22. Evening and matinee. Prices, evening, 75c, 50c and 35c. Matinee, 50c and 25c.

W. F. Duels, Silverton, 10,000 pounds, at 12 cents.

The Excitement Not Over

The rush to the drug store still continues and daily scores of people call for a bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the Throat and Lungs for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis and Consumption. Kemp's Balsam, the standard family remedy, is sold on a guarantee and never fails to give entire satisfaction. Price 25c and 50c.

A Minister's Mistake.

A city minister was recently handed a notice to be read from his pulpit. Accompanying it was a clipping from a newspaper bearing upon the matter. The clergyman started to read the extract and found that it began: "Take Kemp's Balsam, the best Cough Cure." This was hardly what he had expected, and, after a moment's hesitation, he turned it over and found on the other side the matter intended for reading.

IN THE AIR

The Germs of La Grippe are Conveyed Through the Atmosphere.

No one can escape the la grippe germ because when an epidemic of the disease is prevailing the air is laden with it.

The reason that every one does not have the disease at the same time is because the persons who enjoy perfect health are able to successfully resist and throw off the infection, while those, who for any reason are not in the best of health, fall ready victims.

The first symptoms are those of acute catarrh, resembling a hard cold, and if prompt treatment is applied at this time it can easily be broken up; one of the best remedies at this stage is Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, sold by druggists everywhere, and if taken freely, say one tablet every two or three days, the danger of pneumonia and serious complications will be averted.

The Rev. L. E. Palmer, Baptist clergyman of Ceresco, Mich., makes a statement of interest to all catarrh and gripe sufferers. He says: "Stuart's Catarrh Tablets have certainly been a blessing to me. I have used them freely this fall and winter, and have found them a safeguard against la grippe and catarrh troubles, from which I have suffered for years. I feel that I can freely and conscientiously recommend them."

Persons who suffer from catarrh of the head and throat are very susceptible to la grippe, and such will find a pleasant, convenient and safe remedy in Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are composed entirely of harmless antiseptics, and may be used as freely as necessary, as they contain no cocaine, opiate or poisonous drug of any kind.

United Artisans Entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Clough entertained about sixty members of the Artisan Assembly at their comfortable home in North Salem Tuesday night. The guests were invited to partake of a rabbit supper, and all present anticipated a delightful feast of Belgian fare. Before refreshments were served a program was rendered, consisting of the following numbers:

Instrumental—Miss Bertha Clough.

Address of welcome—Rev. W. C. Kautner.

Vocal solo—Miss Florence Price.

Recitation—Miss Laura Sharp.

Vocal solo—Miss Mae Jones.

Reading—Mr. T. H. Hubbard.

Vocal solo—Mr. E. A. Kurts.

Bone shaking—Mr. Henry St. Helen.

Vocal solo—Mr. C. D. Minton.

Reading—Mrs. Ella Watt.

Solo—Mr. Charles Ostrander.

Address—Rev. C. A. Rabing.

Song—Quartet.

When refreshments were served, the rabbits proved to be only rabbits in form, but not substance. Together with them was served ham sandwiches, pickles, cheese, coffee, cake, ice cream and oranges. The remainder of the evening, for several hours, was passed in social games and amusements.

The matter was put into the hands of the police, who were able to discover that in signing the bills the man had used a solution of iodine of starch, which, when first used for writing, appears much the same as ordinary ink, but completely disappears in the course of a few weeks, and, although traces of the chemical may subsequently be discovered, nothing can make the writing show up again. Finding that his victims had discovered his method, the schemer desisted, despite the fact that the chances of the police obtaining a conviction against him were very remote indeed.

DISAPPEARING WRITING.

The Way a Big Swindle Was Successfully Worked in Paris.

A number of Parisian swindlers were recently defrauded of a very considerable sum of money by a swindler who relied upon the success of his scheme entirely upon the peculiar properties of iodine of starch. Posing as a man of considerable wealth, whose money was tied up in such a manner that he could not realize without heavy losses and prohibitive concessions he claimed, he obtained various large amounts of money in exchange for bills dated to stand for three months.

No one for a moment suspected that there was anything in the least degree shady about the man or his transactions, and when he made it public that he had been successful in selling his Chinese concession at a large profit his creditors were naturally certain that he would meet his bills.

To their immense surprise, however, when they came to look through their papers to find the bills they only found bills with blank spaces in the places where the swindler's name should have been and had actually been. They clamored round him for an explanation of the strange affair, but he denied that he had ever given any of them bills and defied them to sue him for repayment of the loans, and the fact that the bills were devoid of the swindler's signature rendered them absolutely worthless.

The matter was put into the hands of the police, who were able to discover that in signing the bills the man had used a solution of iodine of starch, which, when first used for writing, appears much the same as ordinary ink, but completely disappears in the course of a few weeks, and, although traces of the chemical may subsequently be discovered, nothing can make the writing show up again. Finding that his victims had discovered his method, the schemer desisted, despite the fact that the chances of the police obtaining a conviction against him were very remote indeed.
