The Christian at Salem.
The Grand Opera House was filled as it has never been before on an ordinary midweek occasion to hear Edward Morgan and Elsie Leslie in a great play—"The Christian." A happy relief was experienced by the audience when it was realized that the double tragedy in which that volume finds its finale was not to be reproduced in the play, but in this dramatization John Storm is not killed by the mob, and does not have to strangle Glory Quaye, but they are united in their life work, with even a touch of repentance on the part of the refined villain. The audience was composed of the best people in the city, and there was a touch of spring gaiety in the presence of an unusual attendance of ladies in light colors—it was a brilliant assemblage. The whole play was nobly presented, scenery and each smallest part being excellent in appointment. The leading parts were presented with a finish seldom found in these days of stormy melodrama and ranting historical novels on the stage. Morgan and Leslie were under perfect control, and yet fully expressed their difficult parts in moments of great passion.

The electric effects in several scenes were an added splendor. Salem audiences are becoming more appreciative, and the actors were repeatedly called for and given a most cordial greeting. A little side event of the evening was the presence of the members of the Salem Press Club and their ladies, and they were a well behaved body of citizens. Their enjoyment of the evening's play was intense, and they were unanimous in extending their thanks to Manager Corday, of the theatre, and Manager Williams, of the players, and especially to Frank Meredith for his unflinching courtesy in enabling them to have this pleasure. The club hopes to make press night at the Grand an annual event. Following were present of the members and their wives: E. K. Gov. J. H. Fletcher, president of the club; Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Prescott, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, Judge and Mrs. N. J. Judah, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Toeva, Mr. and Mrs. E. Hofer, Mrs. Scott Bosorth, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davoy, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Clarke, of Gervais; Capt. Walter Lyon, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Minton, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Hofer and F. J. Wilson.

Will Play at the Concert.
LeRoy Gesner, who delighted an audience at the M. E. church Monday evening will play a solo at the band concert Friday evening. Those who were unable to hear him Monday evening will, no doubt, improve the opportunity of hearing one of the best violin players on the coast. Reserved seats are going fast, and there will be very few left after today. The concert throughout will be the best ever given by the band. A special feature of the evening will be the dance, consisting of fifteen numbers, and the music will be first-class.—Eugene Register.

FAT NERVES.

A whirl of excitement was recently caused among scientists by the discovery of "how nerves act".
Healthy nerves are fat nerves. It is fat in the core of a nerve that by hardening and softening creates nerve action.
Maybe this explains why Scott's Emulsion has always been such a remarkable remedy for nervousness,
Scott's Emulsion makes fat nerves. It feeds them with fat. Good for all forms of nervousness and for neuralgia.

THE JOHN-SONS CELEBRATE

Double Birthday Celebrated by Native Daughters and Sons.

One of the pleasantest family reunions in many a day occurred at the residence of Geo. W. Johnson, on High street, when a godly company of brothers, sisters, cousins and aunts mingled in congratulations, mirth bounteous repast, and no end of good will. It was the event of the birthday of Mrs. Johnson and her sister, and was observed in the good old-fashioned way. A list of invited guests is given below:
Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Johnson, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Johnson, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Conser, Albany; Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Jones, Albany; Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Johnson, Jr., Salem; Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Johnson, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Baker, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Jones, Soda Water; Mr. and Mrs. James Battey, Shaniko; Mr. and Mrs. Willis E. McElroy, Eugene; Mrs. J. W. Jones, Jefferson; Mrs. M. C. Smith, Turner; Mrs. Thomas A. Jones, Macleay; Miss Sallie Jones and Miss Clara Jones, Oakland; Mr. Clyde Johnson, Salem.
Aside from the sumptuous dinner of the occasion, which none knew better how to prepare than the generous hostess, the company enjoyed themselves by a right royal visit, recounting reminiscences of early days, trials, tribulations and joys, as well as music and singing, all of which was indulged in by young and old in a hearty manner.

Salem Man Gets Captain

Harold B. Flake, formerly of Salem, has just been appointed captain of a company in the United States regular army. He was popularly known while in Salem.
He was a student at Bishop Scott Military Academy, and later secured an appointment at West Point.
After graduation he was made a lieutenant in the Eighteenth regiment, U. S. Infantry, and sent to Texas.
His present promotion comes as a reward for faithful performance of duty.
Mr. Flake is the son of Mrs. C. Flake, who formerly taught in the public schools of Salem. They left here for the East about ten years ago.
Percy Flake, of Dallas, editor of the Pacific Woodman, is a brother of Harold Flake.
This advancement in rank is an especial distinction, as Mr. Flake is not yet thirty years of age.

S. T. Richardson Wins Case.
Judge Boise has decided the case of Butterick vs. Richardson in favor of the defendant, S. T. Richardson.
The suit was brought by his cousin, Lizzie Richardson-Butterick, to have set aside a receipt signed by herself, which released S. T. Richardson from all liability as guardian of herself and estate, and was also a receipt for all the other property due her, a segregated account of which was given.
In deciding the matter the court reviewed the testimony in full, and by his findings completely exonerated Mr. Richardson from any fault in the matter.
He found that Mrs. Butterick received all the property due her from the estate, and that some of the same had been used by Richardson for his own benefit; that plaintiff knew the affairs of the estate fully at the time she signed the release, and the act was performed without the least influence from her guardian. The suit was dismissed with the decision, which brought out every point in the matter. John A. Carson and P. H. D'Arcy were attorneys for Richardson.

Don't fail to have your eyes examined and fitted with eye glasses by Dr. C. W. Roberts. At the Cottage till March 30th.

INTENSE SUFFERING

From Dyspepsia and Stomach Trouble.
Instantly Relieved and Permanently Cured by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.
A New Discovery, but Not a Patent Medicine.

Dr. Redwell relates an interesting account of what he considers a remarkable case of acute stomach trouble and chronic dyspepsia by the use of the new discovery, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.
He says: "The patient was a man who had suffered, to my knowledge, for years with dyspepsia. Everything he ate seemed to sour and create gases in the stomach. He had pains like rheumatism in the back, shoulder blades and limbs, fullness and distress after eating, poor appetite and loss of flesh; the heart became affected, causing palpitation and sleeplessness at night."
"I gave him powerful nerve tonics and blood remedies, but to no purpose. As an experiment I finally bought a 50 cent package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at a drug store and gave them to him. Almost immediate relief was given, and after he had used four boxes he was to all appearances fully cured."
"There was no more acidity or sour, watery risings, no bloating after meals, the appetite was vigorous and he has gained between 10 and 12 pounds in weight of solid, healthy flesh."
"Although Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are advertised and sold in drug stores, yet I consider them a valuable addition to any physician's line of remedies as they are perfectly harmless and can be given to children or invalids or in any condition of the stomach with perfect safety, being harmless and containing but fruit and vegetable essences, pure pepsin and Golden Seal."
"Without any question they are the safest, most effective cure for indigestion, biliousness, constipation and all derangements of the stomach, however slight or severe."
A twenty per cent. reduction in Cuban duties has been agreed upon by the Republican congressmen.

Another Heavy Damage Suit.

T. J. Brown, of Roseburg, who was in the employ of the Southern Pacific Company on March 15, 1900, as a trainman, and whose arm was greatly injured on that day by the explosion of the air reservoir connected with an air brake, has begun suit against the company in the United States court in Portland to recover $10,000 damages on account of said injury, says the Review.

The complaint states the airbrake on one of the freight cars, on which he was employed, would not release the brakes thereon, and the wheels of the car would not rotate, but were made to slide on the rails of the track. It was the duty of the plaintiff to release the air reservoir to prevent the brakes from sliding, and as the valve was stopped and would not work, he jarred said valve with a small rock, to loosen any foreign matter which might have gotten into it, which he says was quite a common thing to do, and the reservoir being cast too thin, exploded and shattered plaintiff's arm. He further alleges that although such defects could have been easily ascertained, the defendant carelessly and negligently provided the defective machinery for his use, by reason of which he was injured.

German Bloodfinch.

Wm. Brown shows in the window of his store on Commercial street a bird which he secured in Germany during his recent visit there. It is a Bluefinch or Dandyfuff, called in English as "bloodfinch."
It is of the variety the same as the grosbeak, so common here in the springtime.
The bloodfinch is about the same size as the above named bird, and is of a color seldom seen on American birds. The breast is of a dull blood color, and the head and wings are black.
It both sings and whistles, and proves quite an attraction on the street.
