FUNERAL SERVICES

Burial of the Late Samuel L. Hayden.

The funeral of the late Samuel L. Hayden was held this afternoon at the family home on Cottage street, and was attended by a large following of friends. The casket was beautifully decorated with floral offerings, from the orders of Odd Fellows and Elks, of which deceased was a member, and also from family and church friends.

The services at the house were conducted by the Second Church of Christ, Scientist Mrs. J. Q. Wilson officiating, and were opened by the following hymn, the music by Mozart: I worship Thee, sweet Will of God, And all Thy ways adore; And every day I live, I seem To love Thee more and more.

When obstacles and trials seem Like prison walls to be, I do the little I can do, And leave the rest to Thee.

He always wins who sides with God, No him no chance is lost; God's will is sweetest to him when It triumphs at his cost.

Then the 91st Psalm was read in full, which was followed by silent prayer, closing with an audible recitation of the Lord's Prayer in concert. After this the following hymn, by Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy, was sung by the choir: Shepherd, show me how to go O'er the hillside steep, How to gather, how to sow, How to feed Thy sheep; I will listen for Thy voice, Last my footsteps stray, I will follow and rejoice All the rugged way.

Thou wilt bind the stubborn will, Wound the callous breast, Make self righteousness be still, Break earth's stupid rest; Strangers on a barren shore Lab'ring long and lone— We would enter by the door, And Thou know'st Thine own.

So when day grows dark and cold, Tear or triumph hark, Lead Thy lambskin to the fold, Take them in Thine arms; Feed the hungry, heal the heart, Till the morning's beam; White as wool, ere they depart— Shepherd wash them clean.

The service was closed by a recitation of the "Scientific Statement of Religion," from Mrs. Eddy's works, as follows:

"There is no Life, Truth, Substance or Intelligence in matter. All is Infinite Mind and its Infinite Manifestation, for God is all in all. Spirit is immortal Truth; matter is mortal error. Spirit is the real and eternal; matter is the unreal and temporal. Spirit is God, and man is His image and likeness; hence man is spiritual and not material."

Benediction.

At the close of the service the officers and members of Olive Lodge 1, O. O. F. took charge of the remains, and after the long funeral cortege reached City View cemetery, the remains were interred according to the rites of that order.

The following named members of the Marion county bar acted as pall bearers:

Frank T. Wrightman, Webster Holmes, A. O. Condit, Charles L. McNary, George H. Burnett, C. M. Inman, Frank W. Waters, Tilmon Ford, J. J. Murphy, Wm. Waldo.

Basket Social at Eola.

There will be a basket social and literary entertainment given at the old church building at Eola, on Saturday, March 22d, by the local talent of the town. Curtain will rise at 8 o'clock sharp.

All ladies are cordially invited to come and bring their baskets, and the gentlemen will be there to buy them. An interesting program will be rendered, and a grand effort will be made to entertain and make all enjoy themselves. The entertainment promises to be one of the best affairs of the season for that place, and a large attendance and interesting time is expected by all. Following is the program:

Song—America.
 Music—Instrumental.
 Farce—"A Red Hot Message."
 Tableau—Music, song and dance.
 Solo—Prof. Daggette.
 Music—Instrumental.
 A farce in one act—"A Quiet Family."
 Solo—A. E. Gardner.
 Instrumental Music—Miss Bertha Gardner.
 Farce, Ethiopian—Mrs. Pepper's Ghost.

Salem Man Was Interested

W. W. Skinner, the veteran Southern Pacific agent, was a particularly interested spectator at the presentation of "The Christian," at the Salem Grand Opera House last night. Mr. Skinner's mother was a native of the Isle of Man, and spent her childhood days in sight of the Castle Peel, with which Hall Caine associates the heroine of his famous novel that has been so successfully dramatized. Another coincidence in this connection, is the fact that Mr. Skinner now has relatives by the name of Quayle residing on the Isle of Man.

Thinks the Farmers Will Unite.

In spite of the difficulty of uniting the agriculturists and of the usual indifference to voting on an amendment, I believe the farmers will combine to support the initiative and referendum.

There are two or three Patrons of Husbandry on the board of directors of the Direct Legislation League of Oregon, and the granges of the state are well informed as to the value of this measure.

After a short consideration, at its last regular meeting, Macleay Grange No. 293 voted $5 from its treasury to be used in printing suitable educational leaflets on direct legislation. The hour has come for something more than resolutions in the grange.

We wish to see our state affairs in as good a financial condition as are those of Marion county at the present time—for which many thanks are due The Journal.

A MEMBER MACLEAY GRANGE.

Prune Growers Are Satisfied

A few days ago A. R. Prescott, a Portland correspondent, inquired at the office of the Willamette Valley Prune Association, in this city, to learn what activity there was in the prune market. He was informed that sales were being made at the association price, a 2 1/2-cent basis for the four sizes, or 5 cents for the 40-50 size in 25-pound boxes. This statement having been published, a Portland dealer questioned its truthfulness, and challenged the association to show any bona fide sales at that price. H. S. Gile, manager of the association, was seen, and asked for more complete information. He said:

"When asked regarding the prune market, I made a statement of facts for the information of the public. I did not seek publicity, but gave information that the Portland paper considered of interest to its readers. To give dealers the names of firms with which we are doing business would be foolishness on our part, and unfairness toward our customers. I have been employed as manager of the association, and it makes no difference to me whether dealers believe we are making sales at our prices, or at any price."

R. J. Spencer, a prune grower, who is a member of the association, was asked today whether he knew anything concerning the prices being received for association goods. He said:

"I do not know what prices Mr. Gile is selling the fruit for. I know that the association books show that sales are made at 5 cents for the 40-50 size in 25-pound boxes, or a 2 1/2-cent basis. We growers are getting our money on that kind of a showing. Mr. Gile is employed on a salary. If he is selling at less than association prices and making up the difference out of his own pocket, that is something we do not know about. All we care about is the amount we get."

To Mark Heroes Graves

On yesterday afternoon's freight train there arrived in Eugene 18 government headstones, to be placed over the graves of the Spanish war veterans who are buried here, and for a number of the dead veterans of the civil war, says the Guard.

There are fourteen of the latter, and four of the former. However, the Lane County Veterans' Association ordered eight stones for the Spanish veterans, and it is not known why only four were sent. They are consigned to J. J. White and C. C. Kauffman, quartermaster of the G. A. R. and Veterans' Association, respectively, who will shortly arrange for setting the map.

The monuments came from the United States quartermaster's department at Washington, D. C., and furnished free for the graves of all men who participated in our country's wars. The monuments are of white marble, about four feet high, a little over a foot wide, and the inscriptions are nicely designed.

Gypsy Stanley Sentenced Again

Clyde Stanley, who this morning completed the serving of a sentence in the county jail for larceny, was arrested on a second charge of larceny. The first was a ten-day sentence for the theft of a clock from a Church-street residence. On being released from jail the second complaint was filed against him, charging him with the larceny of some wearing apparel from the residence of Mrs. Waldport. He was arraigned before Justice O'Donald, admitted his guilt, and was sentenced to twelve days' imprisonment, in default of the fine of $6. He says that no other charge can be brought against him in this line, as he has stolen nothing else.

Condition of the State Treasury

State Treasurer Moore expects to be able to call outstanding state warrants on the general fund about April 15th. Since March 10th no warrants have been endorsed, but have been paid, as presented, out of the state taxes for 1901 already paid. These amount to $128,241.28, but only a small proportion of the counties have made payments. Columbia and Lake counties, however, have paid their taxes in full. The majority will, at present, pay only one-half the amount apportioned to them, and turn over the remainder before December 1st, as they are allowed to do under the new law.

The scalp bounty warrants will continue to draw interest for some time, as there was no allowance made for their payment, and they will be called when the legislature makes provisions for them.

DIED.

CAMPBELL.—At the Salem Hospital, Salem, Oregon, on Friday, March 20, 1902, Mr. W. A. Campbell, aged 56 years.

Deceased has been for the last year a resident of South Salem. He was taken to the hospital for the purpose of having an operation performed, but was too weak, and died soon after reaching there.

He leaves a wife and four children: Mrs. W. A. Campbell, Mrs. J. W. Sayre, Miss Nellie Campbell, Roy Campbell and Maude Campbell. A little nephew also resided with them.

They came to Salem from Vancouver, Wash. Mr. Campbell was a veteran of the Civil War, having been a private in company G, 25th Wisconsin Infantry.

The Grand Army of the Republic, Sedgwick Post, will conduct the funeral services at the Leslie M. E. church, at 2 o'clock on Saturday, and he will be buried in the soldiers' lot in City View cemetery. Rev. R. C. Blackwell will deliver the funeral sermon.
