

Uncrowned Queens.

In the original meaning of the word every woman was a queen, for the word queen meant woman. In monarchic countries the wife of the king became the queen—the woman. In America we give the word back its original meaning and every woman becomes a queen.

For the cure of diseases peculiar to women. It will cure any disease which is curable by the use of medicine, and often cures diseases pronounced incurable by local physicians, or which they state are curable only by surgery.

"Favorite Prescription" establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It is the best preparation for motherhood; tranquillizes the nerves, encouraging the appetite and inducing refreshing sleep. It makes the baby's advent practically painless.

"For five years my wife was in an almost helpless condition, suffering from female weakness," writes J. B. Everitt, Esq., of Hagerman, Washington Co., Fla. "Last September I decided to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. She took several bottles of the medicine and gave birth to a ten-pound son on January 31st, 1895. She is now sound and well and doing her household work."

"I gladly recommend Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription" writes Mrs. J. W. G. Stephens, of Mills, Northumberland Co., Va. "Before my third little boy was born I took six bottles. He is the fittest child and has been born and I suffered very much less than I ever did before. I unhesitatingly advise expectant mothers to use 'Favorite Prescription.'"

Sick women, especially those suffering from disease in chronic form, are invited to consult Doctor Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence held in strictest secrecy and womanly confidences are guarded by the same strict professional privacy observed by Dr. Pierce in his personal consultations with sick women at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. Address, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

as is conducted by Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., that it has to deal so many times with the disappointed hopes of women who have missed of the happiness of maternity. But it is one of the glad privileges of this same medical correspondence bureau that in the greater number of such cases, the obstacles to maternity are overcome by the establishment of the womanly health.

State officers on specified salaries without fees, the convention was not sincere in its action and the plank was slipped in simply to hoodwink the public and secure the votes of a few unthinking electors. Now the Oregonian, which is the Bible of the Oregonian in Oregon, substantiates that statement in an editorial under the caption of "Nothing in It."

Still The Journal believes that under the all circumstances the Republican county ticket should be elected. The Republican legislative ticket is composed of men of more than ordinary business ability and stability of character, that will not pass laws that impose new taxes, and will not create new offices at the dictation of the push politicians. The three senators and the five representatives will be found to be a unit for good business progress and good business policies, and will not be found executing the bidding of bucketers and traffickers in spoils. The delegation stands unpledged to anything but the reform principles that pervaded the county convention, and are expressed in the resolutions and platform adopted by the convention in Marion county. Those reform principles will be reiterated on the county canvass, and will be fully discussed by the candidates on the Republican ticket, and by the opposition. The people of this county should not hesitate to demand pledges to be more publicly given from these Republican candidates, and thus emphasize the demand for politics that will surely make this the best governed and most prosperous county in the state. It is also the duty of the minority candidates, and should be performed, without regard to the election.

The people have this satisfaction, that the Marion county convention was not conducted under the control of one faction, under boss rule or at the dictation of any clique. While the convention was under the control of Governor Geer and Senator Simon's friends, no effort was made to shut out the minority in the formation of the county ticket, or the legislative ticket. In fact, prominent and active members of both factions were put on the ticket. No Republican was shut out of the convention on account of his views or convictions on any public or political question. That is the Marion county idea of political freedom and fairness, and the only thing the people have to guard against is the manifestation of push methods, which are always more prevalent in the joint party than elsewhere. With those influences kept under control, the people have reason to expect progress and good government at the hands of the Republican party of this county. This is not said at the instance or solicitation of a single candidate on the Republican ticket, or at the request of the committee or any manager. These statements are made solely on the basis of the facts or the situation, and warranted, we believe, by past history.

GEORGE REPLIES TO HARVEY SCOTT In a letter to a Portland paper Gov. Geer says: When your Salem correspondent asked me a day or two ago "for an interview about my senatorial candidacy," I answered that I "had no senatorial candidacy, and, therefore, nothing to say on the subject." What I said should have been stated in his report, but, since it was not, and in view of the column of irrelevant gossip which followed, I feel called upon to say that my present disposition is to quit politics, for all time, not at all in a soured way, but as a matter of good judgment.

As an exclusive, or even as a partial business, it is more likely to lead an honest man to the poorhouse than anywhere else, and the uncertainty of its success, coupled with the certainty of willful misrepresentation and unmerited abuse, more than outweighs its pleasures. It has been frequently charged that I am no politician, an accusation which I have never been disposed to deny. I may be pardoned for adding that I do not desire to acquire that accomplishment, as long as it implies an ability to fathom the mysteries of Multnomah county politics, and to keep perfect peace with its kaleidoscopic panorama of shifting scenes. The man who is your friend there this year may be your bitterest enemy next, although your first notification of the change is the onslaught.

What is nourishing food at one time is quite likely to be destructive poison at another, and that, too, without any change in condition whatever, so far as an outside Republican in the hayseed ranks can discern. Public questions of large import and the public welfare are lost sight of, the only one being who is best equipped to survive the promediated onset of the campaign vilification. The factional fight in Multnomah county dominates Oregon politics so completely that a campaign is not a contest between Republicans and Democrats, but between Republicans. Principle is lost sight of in the struggle for personal supremacy. The situation is not inspiring to one who would be glad to be free from it all, and to work toward higher ideals.

"NOTHING IN IT." Astoria Budget, Dem. A few days ago the Budget stated that while the Republican state convention endorsed a platform in which it declared in favor of placing all USELESS HEALTH OFFICER. The Senate is to appropriate $20,000 to improve the quarantine station at Astoria. This recalls the fact that Dr. Fulton enjoys a sinecure as state health officer at a good salary, with practically nothing to do.

GETTING THEIR REWARD. If the 35 anti-Republican members in the last legislature had stood like a solid wall they could have named a senator.

AN IMPORTANT MATTER. As on all other important matters, the Oregon delegation in congress is divided as to who shall go on the congressional committee.

KEEPING YAQUINA CLOSED. It is stated that the Senate will increase the House appropriation from $19,000 to $75,000 for Coos bay, and $26,000 to $55,000 for Siuslaw.

THE REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET. After the fine business record made by the Republican county government of Marion county, assisted by a Democratic tax collector and a clerk behind push control, the taxpayers and voters will do well to continue that kind of administration. The Republican county convention endorsed that administration of county affairs, and put up men who are in harmony with the spirit of that program—not to run the county in debt, to give the people a business administration, and reduce taxes. After keeping their pledges as they have by wiping out $100,000 debt and reducing the running expenses from $90,000 a year to $44,000 a year, the voters and taxpayers can do no better than to say they endorse that sort of politics and county government. But the people should remember that eternal vigilance is the price of good government. This condition of affairs cannot be maintained in Marion county by leaving the political managers a free hand to do as they

There is one plank in the Republican state platform for which the Oregonian bespeaks a friendly but not too zealous consideration. It is the one on salaries for state officers. It is an implied pledge, but unless we mistake, it has a hard row to hoe in the way to redemption. It is essentially altruistic. It doesn't warm the hearts of any considerable fraction of the boys. In short there's nothing in it.

Where is the man who is going to take off his coat and invest time and money in some effort to save the state treasury from a system of vexatious, demoralizing and unconstitutional fees? Who is going to pay out good money to some lawyer to draft such a bill? Who is going to sit up all night learning a speech in its favor? Who is going to trade his vote for president of the senate or speaker of the house in return for a favorable committee report on salaries for state officers?
