

SALEM SOCIAL WORLD
AND
PERSONAL MENTION

Socialists of Oregon.

R. R. Ryan, candidate for governor on the Socialist ticket, furnishes the following:

"The Socialists of Oregon are increasing very fast. We will have 100,000 workers in the field, and make our fight on reform issues, demanding initiative and referendum, the direct vote of the people, the placing of all state officials on a flat salary, not to exceed $2000, and all fees, perquisites and appropriations to report to the treasury, and the payment of all warrants upon presentation. The Socialists will poll a large vote, and if the labor unions cast their strength with us it is quite likely that we may elect a large portion of our ticket. We will very likely carry Clackamas, Coos, Curry, Douglas, Jackson, Linn and Lincoln counties."

Society for Bird-Study.

Mr. Lord, whose recent lectures on birds created so much enthusiasm among bird lovers, will be in Salem Saturday evening, for the purpose of organizing a club for the study of birds. This club will be similar to the one in Burroughs club of Portland; and several people have already expressed interest. A meeting is to be held in the parlors of the Unity Church, corner of Chemeketa and Cottage streets, at 8 p. m. this evening. All are interested in bird study are invited to be present.

A Trip for Health.

Eugene Breyman, of this city, expects to leave Monday, accompanied by Dr. Tamesie, of the Salem Hospital staff, for New York City, for medical treatment. Mr. Breyman will be gone for some weeks, and expects to secure the best aid that modern science can give. He goes over the Pacific and New York Central, and has secured a thorough drawing of a car from Portland.
