CATARRH

The treatment of Catarrh with antiseptic and astringent washes, lotions, salves, medicated tobacco and cigarettes or any external or local application, is just as senseless as would be kindling a fire on top of the pot to make it boil. True, these give temporary relief, but the cavities and passages of the head and the bronchial tubes soon fill up again with mucus.

Taking cold is the first step towards Catarrh, for it checks perspiration, and the poisonous acids and vapors which should pass off through the skin, are thrown back upon the mucous membrane or inner skin, producing inflammation and excessive flow of mucus, much of which is absorbed into the blood, and through the circulation reaches every part of the system, involving the Stomach, Kidneys and other parts of the body. When the disease assumes the dry form, the breath becomes exceedingly foul, blinding headaches are frequent, the eyes red, hearing affected and a constant ringing in the ears. No remedy that does not reach the polluted blood can cure Catarrh. S. S. S. expels from the circulation all offensive matter, and when rich, pure blood is again coursing through the body the mucous membranes become healthy and the skin active, all the disagreeable, painful symptoms disappear, and a permanent, thorough cure is effected. S. S. S. being a strictly vegetable blood purifier does not derange the Stomach and digestion, but the appetite and general health rapidly improve under its tonic effects. Write us about your case and get the best medical advice free. Book on blood and skin diseases sent on application.

WHO HAS SURRENDERED, SCOTT OR SIMON?

Only for the purpose of commenting on the present political situation in Oregon does The Journal observe, with amusement, the present antics of the Oregonian in its ostentatious declarations for "reform." Hear it:

"It is a spectacle. Mr. Simon poses at Washington as a Republican senator, and demands 'recognition from the administration on this claim; yet he is the head and soul of a conspiracy in Oregon against the Republican party and its candidates, and through the relics of his dilapidated machine is working in a Democratic combination to make the legislature Democratic."

Suppose this were true, should it be any more effectual in disbarring him from "recognition by the administration" than similar action two years ago did on the part of the "Federal Brigade?" Every official representative of the administration two years ago was in a "combination to make the legislature Democratic," and, so far as Multnomah county was concerned, succeeded. These direct representatives of the administration two years ago, when combined, constituted the "head and soul of a conspiracy against the Republican party and its candidates," and it was wholly through this "conspiracy" that Senator Mitchell secured the seat he now holds in the Senate. Will the Oregonian deny this?

There is no difference whatever between the two situations. The fact that the present one has been brought about by the new primary law does not change the aspect of it, for the Oregonian frequently said, just before the primaries, in terms not to be misunderstood, that if Simon's friends should succeed, there would be a repetition of two years ago.

Why try to make fish of one and fowl of the other? Mr. Scott's interests may have changed, but he should not, for that reason, conclude that the whole people have become blind or daft.

Since Senator Mitchell was elected by Democratic votes sent to Salem through a "conspiracy" working in "a Democratic combination to make the legislature Democratic," is he entitled to "recognition" by the administration? And if so, why shouldn't Senator Simon become influential, even though he were guilty of doing the same thing.

AFTER TONGUE'S PLACE.

J. K. Weatherford, the Democratic nominee, is not the only man after Congressman Tongue's scalp. Geo. C. Brownell is a standing candidate for congress whenever the weather is propitious.

Mr. Brownell is prepared to sail in at any time that he can find the bars down in Tom Tongue's district and contest the nomination with him.

That is the real secret of his fight to be returned to the senate from Clackamas county. If he is returned he will mend his ways in the legislature, extend his influence, and prepare to capture the congressional district.

As the champion of the referendum he would rally a large section of the populist party, and probably a great many of the Socialists.

FAMOUS IN A NIGHT.

Congressman Cushman, of Tacoma, made the attack on the rules of the House, and on the rulings of the speaker that led to the overthrow of that parliamentary tyranny that has held Congress in a vice twenty years.

As a result of Cushman's bold attack the House has been carried against the sugar trust for the first time in many years. It was a square, non-partisan fight that did it.

On the decisive vote 123 Democrats and 124 Republicans voted together to kill a graft of $5,000,000 to $6,000,000 a year that has gone into the pockets of the sugar barons.

Mr. Cushman attacked the rivers and harbors bill last fall, and, as a result of his defiance of the bosses, his state gets twice the consideration and twice the appropriations.

If more men like Cushman would fight for the overthrow of bossism, and one-man-dictatorship, other great grafts and frauds would be stopped, and the people would get some rights. The leaders in Congress have no real interest in improving our rivers and harbors, except where it serves the interest of some trust or corporation.

LABORING MEN IN POLITICS.

That the laboring man of America has a place and a power in politics has been more thoroughly demonstrated this year than ever before, and furthermore he has been making a very thorough exposition of the fact that he intends to use his power. Last Monday, at the city election held in Hartford, Conn., Ignatius L. Sullivan, a clerk, who is president of the Hartford clerks' union, and who has been taking a very prominent part in labor circles, was elected mayor on a union labor ticket, and he is now the chief executive of a city which is credited with having more wealth per capita than any other municipality in the United States. A remarkable feature of the result of the election is the fact that Sullivan was elected as the representative candidate of a party which was defeated last year by a majority of over 3000 votes. This year the result was 6648 to 6134 in favor of the labor ticket, the change being attributed to the fact that in the fight this year there has been made a direct appeal to the laboring men to stand together and show their power.

The opponent of Sullivan was Major William B. Dwight, a prominent man, who is a member of a distinguished Connecticut family, who won honors for himself in the Spanish-American war. Name, family honors and wealth stood for naught in this campaign, however, for the laboring men got together, stayed together and won the day—just as they did in San Francisco, in Bridgeport, and in several other prominent cities during the past year. Whether a clerk who has never been able to command a salary of over $50 a month has the ability to rule the richest city of its size in the county, or whether an orchestra leader has the ability to fill the mayor's chair at San Francisco, remains to be seen, but the outcome of these city elections is certainly a demonstration that the laboring man has determined to use his political power.

HARRAY LANE FOR SENATOR.

The Citizens' ticket at Portland has put up Dr. Harry Lane for senator against Henry McGinn. He will, if he makes a canvass, throw a piercing searchlight on Portland politics, and, incidentally, some on McGinn.

Lane is known to be caustic and vitriolic, and can entertain a crowd with funny stories at the expense of the other fellow, and Judge McGinn will find he has run up against something exciting before he is through.

Dr. Lane should dig up Judge McGinn's speech in the state convention of Republican clubs three years ago, when he pilloried Jack Matthews as beyond compare the worst stuffer of club rolls in that organization.

McGinn then showed how Matthews stuffed Republican club rolls with membershipthat did not exist, and got himself into the convention on names that were taken from the tombstones in the cemeteries.

If that will not put McGinn out of business, he can show how McGinn once sat in a Simon convention on a proxy for a dead man from the state of Washington. There are other matters full of diversion, and as Lane has a strong sense of humor he will not hesitateto flay his opponents in a campaign where they have laid themselves open completely.

THIS IS RIGHT TO THE POINT.

The subsidy bill cannot pass this session, and probably not next. But the mischief has been done. A few vacant Republican seats in the next Congress will testify to Mr. Hanna's activity.—Oregonian, April 19th.

But you are supporting Mr. Mitchell, who voted for the Hanna subsidy bill that will make "vacant Republican seats in the next Congress." Query: If the people had a direct vote on senator, or had direct nomination in Oregon, as they have in Arkansas, the agents of trusts here would be turned down just as Jones was turned down in Arkansas. If we had that law Mitchell would have voted the other way, probably.

MR. HIRSCHBERG'S OIL WELL.

Mr. Hirschberg, the Independence banker, is putting up, or rather putting down some of his own good money to bore a deep well for oil, or coal, or any other old thing. He calls it his sinking fund.

He did not organize a stock company to go blowing in other people's money. The Journal commends his enterprise and public spirit, and hopes he will make a rich strike.

In too many such alleged public enterprises there is only a desire on the part of the managers to spend capital not their own, and bore not the earth but pocketbooks.

Mr. Hirschberg has not got into hot water, but he has struck a strata of salt water that precipitates 1½ pounds of salt to the gallon. He has also struck plenty of gas. He is having the salt and gas analyzed. For all these labors Mr. Hirschberg deserves public thanks.

FURNISH AND GEER.

While Mr. Furnish may be a "business" man, a swift politician and an ideal man for governor in the eyes of the Jack Matthews faction, he is not ot be classed with Governor Geer in some ways.

For instance, he will hardly be invited to participate in national campaigns alongside of men like Governor Nash, of Ohio, Governor Shaw, of Iowa, or Governor Odell, of New York.

He will hardly figure on great occasions when receptions are given to presidents, and meet men like McKinley and Roosevelt, and make impresaions as favorable to Oregon as Geer did.

The last time Geer was with McKinley at San Francisco, the latter deplored the Oregon factional fight, and said: "Mr. Geer, you are of the kind of man we need in the Senate."

ROOSEVELT ON GOVERNMENT.

At New York Saturday night the president expressed a sentiment that is worthy of framing in gold and printing in letters of silver.

Speaking of civic betterment, he said the man who counts is the man who makes himself a force for decency, cleanliness, and righteousness.

"The man who counts must have qualities: He must be honest; he must have courage."

Character and integrity must go hand in hand in the make up of the men who promote good government.

The hands of the clock of progress cannot be set forward by men who do not keep time themselves with the demands of the age for civic betterment.

The Boers claim that the American mules are responsible for prolonging the war in South Africa, and General Kitchener, the British officer, claims that the mules are responsible for some of the worst defeats of the British. There you have two opinions of the mule.

The Senate deserves another roast for having called upon Senator Simon, of Oregon, to preside the other day. All the papers on the coast had the news, but one paper in Portland. Could you guess its name?

Barely have we secured the quelling of insurrections in the Philippines when the insurgents in Congress overthrow the sugar trust, and override the rulings of the chair.

It is doubtful if the British atrocities in South Africa can match the inhuman treatment of the natives of the Philippines administered by American army officers.

The only unconditional surrender the Boers have been guilty of was when they turned over General Methuen, after he was wounded and taken prisoner.

The Boers have no money, and, therefore, no rights to exist. But that the American people are their friends is as certain as that the administration is not.

Geer was only a common plug farmer, and no higher up in fraternal orders than Odd Fellows and Maccabees—unfit to be governor or senator.

Vegetarians are laughing in their sleeves at the unconscionable advance in prices by the meat trust. Meats will decline when Congress rests.

The British have altered their treatment of the Boers very much since General Delarey returned wounded Methuen to them without terms.

The Journal is delighted to see an old friend from Iowa, Hon. J. S. Clarkson, appointed surveyor of customs of the port of New York.

A fight has been begun in the Kansas City courts to dissolve the beef trust, and then it will be in the soup.

The time seems to have passed in Congress when no Republican member dares have any mind of his own.

Washington papers chronicled the sudden death of John Horsfall by falling from a horse—a grim pun.

If the devil exists, and has ever met up with a philanthropist, he knows Cecil Rhodes by this time.

Salem is no longer to be in the list of jay towns, so far as organized labor is concerned.

Will the Nicaragua canal go the same way that the Chinese exclusion bill did went?

The first Salem woman to adopt the new style, and wear "sox," will certainly be in it.

Next there may be an insurrection in the Senate again st Bark Hanna.

Now it is the Boers who are considering peace proposals.
