

WM. J. FURNISH'S RECORD AS A DEMOCRATIC SHERIFF

Samples of His Bills Under the Old Fee System--If a Good Business Manager Could Make Forty Dollars a Day Out of that in Umatilla County, What Could He Make Out of the State System of Fees and Perquisites Still in Effect?

(From the Weston, Umatilla County, Leader, Ind.-Rep.) That Mr. Furnish is a business man of thrift and enterprise in behalf of Mr. Furnish is indicated elsewhere by the figures given by a Pendleton correspondent concerning his record as a Democratic sheriff. Perhaps, with his enlarged opportunities as a Republican governor of Oregon, he would become president of numerous other banks, and thus add to his laurels as a "self-made" man.

Furnish's Record as Sheriff. A letter dated Pendleton, May 6th, contains the following exposition of Wm. J. Furnish's record as sheriff: Citizen Furnish has been imposed upon. The man who wrote his speech did not know his record. Mr. Balleray has been charged with it, but he is not guilty. He would not write the following, which is copied from his Ashland speech:

"I take it that in the election of a governor the people are merely selecting a business manager whose duty it is as chief executive of the state to look after the business affairs of the state, and to see that every state institution is managed with the utmost economy, and that for every dollar of your money you receive 100 cents worth of benefit in return. The various state institutions should be equipped, provided for and managed in a manner becoming the state. At the same time the strictest integrity and economy should be exacted in the management of every institution and every department thereof."

It is a consolation to know that Citizen Furnish, the patriot of Umatilla County, has experienced a change of heart.

Following is a sample of his strict economy when sheriff of this county:

BILL BY A BUSINESS MANAGER. UMATILLA COUNTY.

FIRE FAMINE DEATH

In the Island of Martinique

Vessels Are Pressed Into Service for Relief Duty

Destruction of Villages Heretofore Unreported

Fort de France, May 12.—Practically every available vessel here is pressed into service for relief duty at St. Pierre and environs. Food and other supplies are being hurried to the scene. Relief parties are working under tremendous difficulties. A terrible stench arises from decaying corpses, and, aside from attending to the immediate wants of the survivors, the work is centered in disposing of the bodies. Firewood, quicklime and petroleum is used for this purpose. The water supply is tainted, or has altogether disappeared. The refugees are in dire distress. It is estimated that thousands of persons who escaped the flowing lava died from lack of food and water. The vaults in the Bank of Martinique are intact. They contain $400,000. The streets cannot be traced on account of the covering of lava, which continues to run down from Mount Pelee, although in lessening quantities. The refugees are being transported to this city as rapidly as possible.

Geography of the Island Changed.

The beach for a great length from St. Pierre is strewn with debris of ships destroyed. All trees on the island are bent seaward. The cruiser Suetet and the cable ship Pouyer Quartier have saved 1000 persons from the town of De Precheur. The commander of the Suetet says the geography of the island is visibly modified. Crevasse openings, new hills and valleys being suddenly formed. The refugees say the new crater is opening in many directions, rivers are overflowing their banks, and large areas on the north end of the island are submerged. Other districts are crowded with refugees. Almost total darkness continues.

Town Disappeared.

Paris, May 12.—The following note was posted this morning by the minister of colonies: "A dispatch from the governor of Martinique advises the ministry that out of a population of 26,000 there are very few survivors. These survivors are able to furnish some information as to the destruction of St. Pierre. The town was overwhelmed and disappeared in a quarter of an hour."

Volcano Still in Eruption.

The following was also posted: "The ministry of marine received from the commander of the Suetet a telegram announcing that his cruiser, with the help of the Danish cruiser, Valkyrie, and the French Cable Company's steamer, Pouyer Quartier, is to bring back to Fort de France, the entire population of De Precheur. The volcano, the commander says, is still in eruption. There has been a fresh flow of lava from the crater over the north end of the island. The situation at Guadeloupe is excellent."

Fifty Thousand Homeless.

Washington, May 12.—The secretary of state today received from Louis Ayme, United States consul at Point a Pitre, Guadeloupe, who was sent to Martinique with instructions to investigate the St. Pierre situation, the following dispatch: "Disaster complete. City wiped out. Consul Consul Frenth and family are dead. The governor, with 20,000 inhabitants, perished. Fifty thousand are homeless and hungry. Suggested that the Red Cross society be asked to send codfish, flour, beans, rice, salt, meats, and biscuits as quickly as possible."

Entire End of Martinique Destroyed.

Marselles, May 12.—Commandant Bangs of the Colonial Infantry, who was here, but whose relatives were in St. Pierre at the time of the eruption, received news from the ministry of the colonies that 600 inhabitants of Morné Rouge, seven kilometers from St. Pierre, were saved.

Rain of Ashes and Stones Unabated.

London, May 12.—Advises from St. Vincent indicate that the death list in the island will reach 500. The damage is confined to the north end of the island.

Paris, May 12.—The minister of marine this morning received a cablegram from the war ship Suetet, dated Fort de France, saying: "A squad of marines explored St. Pierre Saturday. The town is a mass of ruins, under which the victims lie buried. It is impossible to advance to the north end of the island, owing to a rain of ashes, which is most intense. The volcano still presents a menacing appearance, and last night rumblings, accompanied by flashes and projections of ashes and stones, occurred."

Five Hundred People Perish.

St. Thomas, May 12.—Apprehensive glances are cast in the direction of the island of St. Vincent, where more than 500 people have already perished in the la Souffrieres eruption. The eruption also destroyed cattle and sheep, ruined harvests, dried up the streams, and compelled the inhabitants to flee to the capital. Immediately after the first rush of lava to the sea an immense tidal wave rushed landward, sweeping everything before it. This occurred on the 7th, the eruption continued the next day and earthquake shocks threw down many houses, and damaged much property. The force of the eruption grew, and gradually the old crater, as well as the new orifice joined in the bombardment of Wallibou and Richmond valleys, compelling the inhabitants to escape to the Chateaux Belair for shelter. Dense dust clouds covered the whole island, and, blowing seaward, fell 40 miles away. At Toutama and Orange Hill buildings were demolished and stock killed by a shower of lava stones and ashes, which fell continuously for more than two hours. It is feared further accounts will tell of much greater loss of life than heretofore reported.

Great Jehovah! Didn't Goer do enough for Harvey Scott? Has he got to have a dummy for governor?

The men fought over a meal in the dining room at 67 North Second street. It is said the murderer has served a term in the penitentiary. NOT GOING AWAY

A Rush of Business Causes Dr. Darrin to Postpone Leaving Salem Until July 6.

Dr. Darrin, the eminent physician and specialist, at the request of many friends and the great interest shown by the suffering and afflicted, has consented to stay in Salem at the Willamette Hotel until July 6th. His offices are crowded from morning to night and the doctor, no doubt, is the hardest working man in town.

The truly wonderful cures he has accomplished are being testified to by a host of afflicted sufferers, who can be seen and consulted on the miraculous cures in their behalf. It is safe to say that no specialist has attained the prominence of Dr. Darrin in this country, and he cannot help but meet with grand success.

He is not simply a medical practitioner, but a physician of a very high order of merit, a scientist, whose years of close study, close observation, close practical experience, has enabled him to draw not only testimonials, but personal endorsements from the leading men of the country—congressmen, judges, etc.—and whose success in the medical field is today without parallel. Dr. Darrin has an enviable rank in his profession as a wonderfully successful physician. He is essentially original in his methods of practice, and those who have been under his treatment are surprised at the newness and novelty of his system of practice by electricity and medicine. His honest and straightforward advice before taking a case has won for him the confidence of patients, as well as the general public. The doctor is a gentleman of genial, social nature, and his private practice is marked by the formation of a personal friendship with those whom he comes in contact. He is without doubt one of the most thoroughly qualified physicians now before the public, as his wonderful cures, that we have heretofore published, can testify.

TRAGIC MID-AIR DEATH

Gas Ignited from Petroleum Motor

Causes Frightful Balloon Explosion In Paris

Occupants Fell Like Shot to Stone Pavement

Paris, May 12.—The tragic death of the Brazilian aeronaut, Servero, which occurred early this morning, has shocked Paris. Servero started from the balloon shed about 6 o'clock. The balloon ascended easily, and reached an altitude of 300 yards, when a few pedestrians in the street saw a volume of gas escaping from the balloon, and the aeronaut was seen standing in his slip gesticulating wildly. The next moment a frightful explosion occurred, caused by escaping gas being ignited from the petroleum motor. The balloon was blown into shreds, and its occupants, enveloped in flames, fell like a shot to the stone pavement. The bodies of Servero and his assistant were dashed to pieces. Mme. Servero witnessed the tragic death of her husband.
