UNITED MINE WORKERS

Discuss Sympathetic Action By Railway Men.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., May 22,-The exscutive committees of the United Mineworkers from districts Nos 1, 7 and 9 met again today to consider the strike situation. It is stated that the most important matter under consideration will be upon the probable sympathetic action of the Brotherhoods of Railway Engineers, Firemen, Conductors, Brahemen and Switchmen.

Settlers Want Reserve Opened. Chehalis, May 22 .- A petition is be ng circulated among the settlers owning land on the Rainier reserve, in the Cowlitz and Cispus valleys, in Eastern Lewis county, asking that all the reserve lying in the two valleys be thrown open to settlement. The reasons given in the petitions are that the people who have settled upon lands within the limits of the forest reserve are widely separated from each other, and can have no hope of further settlement as long as the lands remain within the limits of the reservation: that the area of taxable land is small, and the revenues arising therefrom are inadequate to build
