

TIDAL WAVE FOR CHAMBERLAIN IS MOUNTING HIGHER

Most Remarkable Movement in the History of Oregon Politics--How the Spurious Leadership of the Republican Party is Quarrelling Over the Senatorship--Reports of the Counties Send in Estimates that Indicate a Landslide Against Furnishism.

Portland, May 24.—Encouraging reports of the most flattering character are pouring into the headquarters of the Democratic state central committee.

Williamson, apparently was given to understand that he was to be the state candidate for the United States senate.

At a Republican rally here on the evening of Saturday, May 10th, Chairman Lewis announced Mr. Fulton as the next United States senator.

On the other hand, everything is serene at the Democratic state headquarters, and such encouraging news is received from day to day as to paint the political skies a rosy hue for those who follow the banner of Mr. Chamberlain and his fellow nominees.

The general estimate of Chamberlain's plurality here is 1000, while Weatherford will not get as large a Republican vote, but will carry the county by 400 or 500.

Travis will poll from 50 to 75 majority in June.

Delegates to the Republican state convention and republican workers here are receiving letters from W. F. Matthews, Republican state chairman.
