Everything in Readiness for Celebration

Weather Permitting, Event Will Be Grand Success

The general committee held a final meeting Wednesday night, and everything is in readiness for Salem's monster Independence day celebration tomorrow. Inclement weather alone an prevent the most successful demonstration held in Oregon's capital ity. From the firing of the early morning salute until the final number of the program has been executed the entertainment for the occasion will be continuous and adequate to satisfy all who may attend. Every detall has been carefully attended to, and be had from either of the river banks the members of the several commit- which will afford ample room for the tees are entitled to much credit for their faithful and untiring work in behalf of the celebration. Committees never worked harder nor uncomplain ingly devoted more time to the work than did Salem's enterprising young ousiness men this year.

Immense Crowds. Weather permitting, the attendance will be enormous. 'But with Salem's faithfully for about two weeks, and elastic capacity for entertaining, and her enviable reputation for playing the able in the improved playing of the role of hostess, all will find accommo dations and entertainment. Steam boat excursions will be run throughout the day between Salem and Independence, connecting at the latter place with the motor railway to Dallas, and thousands will come by rail and team. The general committee will secure some vacant store building prominently located in which a number of chairs will be placed for the purpose of providing a resting place for the ladies and children during the day. Morning and Forenoon Exercises. Early morning salute.
