

Holverson's SALEM, ORE. AT THE OLD WHITE CORNER

A 6 O'clock Store

New Linen Batistes Linen Lawns, Grenadines etc. Came ... Yesterday

Don't forget the great sale of children's dresses in the suit department. Percalé Dresses For children from 1 to 14 years nicely made and trimmed with lace. SPECIAL 45c each

Great Sale of all SUMMER SKIRTS All Summer Shirt Waists at Sale Prices.

BEN FRANKLIN Was the inventor of the double or bifocal spectacle lenses, which is now coming into such general use for those who have passed the meridian of life...

NEW TODAY. Wanted.—Three or four men to work in hay, at $1.25 per day and board.

For Rent or For Sale.—12-room house, partly furnished, large grounds, stable, etc.

Lost.—In the business part of the city, a point lace handkerchief. Liberal reward for return to 56 Marion street.

Found.—A black lady's purse, containing some money, manicure tools, a tie, handkerchief, over shoes, a sweater, a thimble never used, a powder brush, a fine tooth comb and a bottle of perfume.

A. M. Clough, Undertaker, 107 State street. Phone Main 1351, Salem, Oregon, successor to D. E. Huntsinger.

D. E. Huntsinger, funeral director, 155 Court street. Phone Main 801. Residence 21st street.

GOLD DUST FLOUR THE SIDNEY POWER COMPANY Sidney, Oregon.

A. T. WALN Agent Wheel Weather

When the sun shines now there will be some of the finest riding of the whole year. We have quite a number of the 1901 models of the Tribuna at $35, besides a plenty of the 1902 models, all heights, in blue and black, at $40.

Boys' Clothing All that's new and noble for summer wear. $1.00 Suit up

Good enough for anybody! ALL HAVANA FILLER

"FLORODORA" BANDS are of some value as taken from "STAR'S" HORSE SHOES, "SPRINGBARD" "STANDARD NAVY," "OLD PEACH & HONEY," "SAL LOG," "OLE YACINTY," "MASTER WORKMAN," Tobacco.

Leather toe clips, rubber grips, locks, bells, cyclometers, oils, graphites, that will be worth the while to see. Come today, and you'll get the pick.

Leather and Findings.—Malstick & Co., Portland.

Crochery and Glassware.—Meier & Frank, $90.70; Harrist & Lawrence, $112.42.

Drygoods.—T. Holverson & Co., $157.47; Meier & Frank, $212.42; Olds, Worthman & King, $154.85; Salem Woolen Mills, 200 yards tweed, at 95c, $190.

Contracts Awarded.—The asylum board this afternoon awarded several additional contracts, as follows:

Stationery.—Patton Bros., Salem.

Crochery and Glassware.—Harrist & Lawrence, Salem, and Meier & Frank Co., Portland.

Leather and Findings.—Malstick & Co., Portland.

Boots and shoes.—Irvin & Pettys, Salem.

Flour.—Corvallis Flouring Mills.

F. A. WIGGINS 255-257 Liberty Street, Salem

Walnut Slice Is all the rage in the East and we are making it fresh every day.

Genuine Penochre Stand Caramels Peppermint Chews Peanut Crisp Log Cabin Creams

POST OFFICE CHANGES

The Force At Salem is Slightly Increased

Cal Scoville, Veteran Driver, Takes Another Route

One addition to the clerical force and several minor changes in the subordinate places at the Salem post-office have been made since July 1st.

Miss Eva Dimmitt has taken a position as assistant money order clerk, at a salary of $500 per year. The addition of another clerk in this department was much needed, as the force prior to Miss Dimmitt's aid, had more than it could conveniently perform.

The familiar face of Cal Scoville, the veteran mail carrier, whose service extends over a period of forty years of almost continuous service is greatly missed from the mail wagon in the carrying of mails to and from the trains at Salem.

Mr. Scoville still retains the contract, but has employed Fred Schindler to perform the work while he drives the Salem-Lewistown stage, under sub-contract with A. Conner.

Wm. Henderson, as mailing clerk, has exchanged places with Ben P. Taylor, letter carrier for route No. 2, in the city.

Sub-carrier for work during the summer vacation season have reported for duty, and, in order of service, they are: John H. Farrar, Ben T. Kunkler and Frank A. Baker.

Clas Hayden, rural free delivery carrier for route No. 2, has resigned his position. An examination will probably be held soon for the purpose of selecting his successor.

THE SEMI-ANNUAL AWARDS MADE

The semi-annual award of contracts for supplies to be furnished the insane asylum will soon be announced, as the management desires soon to place orders under the contracts.

A partial list of the bids is given below. No bids are given on the principle items—that of groceries—for the reason that the bids submitted by the several merchants are in complex form. No two bidders made an offer on the same complete list of articles to be furnished and for that reason the figures are omitted. The same is largely true of drygoods, where different firms have bid on different articles, and the bids herewith submitted cannot be used for comparative purposes.

E. C. Cross was given the contract for meats at $6.74 cents and G. Steiner will furnish 1000 pounds each of the following varieties of salmon: Chinook at 8 cents, steelheads at 9 cents, silver sides and bluebacks at 6 cents each.

Some of the other bids submitted were as follows:

Tobacco.—Geo. E. Waters—2200 pounds chewing tobacco, at 28 1/2c; $627; 1000 pounds O. K. Durham, at 26c, $260.

Groceries.—Roth and Graber, $5612. John Hughes, Weller Bros., Harrist & Lawrence and others bid on groceries also.

Booths and Shoes.—Irvin & Pettys, $267; I. Greenbaum, $159; Oregon Shoe Co., $290.40.

Leather and Findings.—Malstick & Co., Portland, $215.33.

Stationery.—Patton Bros., $62.14.

Flour and Feed.—Balfour, Guthrie & Co.—800 barrels No. 1 flour, at $2.63, $2067; 20 barrels No. 1 Graham, at $2.70, $54.

J. A. Aupperle, Jefferson—300 barrels No. 1 flour, at $2.64, $2376.

Salem Flouring Mills Co.—300 barrels No. 1 flour, at $2.64, $2376.

Corvallis Flouring Mills—300 barrels No. 1 flour, at $2.61, $2259; 20 tons of bran, at $18, $540; 20 tons of shorts, at $18, $540.

Crochery and Glassware.—Meier & Frank, $90.70; Harrist & Lawrence, $112.42.

Drygoods.—T. Holverson & Co., $157.47; Meier & Frank, $212.42; Olds, Worthman & King, $154.85; Salem Woolen Mills, 200 yards tweed, at 95c, $190.

Contracts Awarded.—The asylum board this afternoon awarded several additional contracts, as follows:

Stationery.—Patton Bros., Salem.

Crochery and Glassware.—Harrist & Lawrence, Salem, and Meier & Frank Co., Portland.

Leather and Findings.—Malstick & Co., Portland.

Boots and shoes.—Irvin & Pettys, Salem.

Flour.—Corvallis Flouring Mills.

To Assimilate Food see that your stomach and liver are in proper condition. To do it easily and pleasantly take

Beecham's Pills

See that your stomach and liver are in proper condition. To do it easily and pleasantly take Beecham's Pills

TWO STATE SENATORS ENDORSE PE-RU-NA.

HON. J. H. SAUER.

Hon. J. H. Sauer, State Senator from Douglas Co., to the Nebraska Legislature, writes from Frank's Hotel, Omaha, Neb., as follows: "Having tried Peruna I can commend it to all as a great tonic and particularly good as a remedy for catarrh."

Honorable Patrick Kennedy, Member of the Massachusetts Legislature, writes the following letter from the House of Representatives, Boston.

Dear Sir:—I have no hesitation in saying that after having tried dozens of other remedies without relief, I owe my better health and clear vision today to Peruna.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.

Failed to Bag Their Quarry

upon their quarry. Pressed to desperation, Tracy here made a circuit, headed due north, and plunged into the outskirts of the lake, where he finally succeeded in casting the seot.

There is considerable interest in Salem in the forthcoming meeting of the State Board of Education, when new officers of the mute school are to be elected.

The Election Will Take Place Very Soon

There is considerable interest in Salem in the forthcoming meeting of the State Board of Education, when new officers of the mute school are to be elected.

Anderson Tells of His Trip.

Seattle, Wash., July 9.—Surrounded by a morbid crowd of men in the Renton saloon, John Anderson, the unwilling companion of Tracy, the outlaw, related his experiences since the night he left Port Madison in Johnson's white boat, until his rescue at the Gerrells house at 6 o'clock last night.

"We left Madison on Saturday night at 9 o'clock," related Anderson in his broken English. "We went to West Seattle, and arrived at daylight. I pulled the boat. Tracy held the gun over me all the way. We landed south of the West Seattle elevator under a trellis, and went directly into the woods at West Seattle. When it got dark we came across the bay in our boat, and landed at the sawmill at South Seattle. We then started on the railroad track toward Black River. We crossed a large hayfield and went into the woods. This was Monday morning. When we got into the timber, we cooked breakfast. We then rested until afternoon. At 3 o'clock we started through the timber toward Renton.

"Just before we reached the railroad bridge over Black River, we met four men, and Tracy said, 'Hello, Fred,' and jumped down the bank to where the men were standing. Tracy talked to the men for a few minutes. After the talk, Tracy left one of the men to watch me. He and the three others, after blindfolding me, went off and stayed about an hour. When they returned they brought a bottle of whiskey. Then we started out. Tracy forced me to walk in front, and he followed behind, accompanied by the four men we met on the bridge.

"We arrived at Renton about 11 o'clock and walked up the railroad track through the town one and a half miles east of the brickyard. Here Tracy tied me up, and he, accompanied by the four strange men, left me. They returned at daylight this morning, and we went further back into the brush and cooked breakfast. Tracy told me he would go away for awhile, but would come back in an hour. When he returned, he brought a little boy from Gerrells' house, and we walked down to the Gerrells place together. We were in the house about three hours, when Tracy took me out into the brush. At the river bank he said, 'Go down.' After looking up and down the river, Tracy tied me up and cautioned me to keep still. I lay in this position until called to by Mrs. Gerrells, when I hobbled out of the brush into her backyard, where this gentleman, indicating a newspaper man, untied the leather straps which held my wrists."

Seattle, July 9.—Tracy is not at the Renton cabin, and has again disappeared. The bounds are working near Oreilia. Three men, believed to be confederates, were arrested this morning at Renton.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. C. J. Willis, of Portland, was in Salem today.

Bishop H. L. Barkley, of Portland, spent the day in Salem.

Bert Long, of Portland, is visiting his parents in this city.

C. A. Schibredo and family have removed to Rosburg to live.

Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Morse and Mrs. W. A. Cusick have gone to Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Coshow and sons have gone to Seaside for an outing.

Mrs. W. E. Bathie has gone to Aumsville for a visit with relatives.

Miss Ada Duffy, of El Campo, Texas is the guest of Miss Emily Horgan.

Governor Geer visited his farm near Macley today. He made the trip a wheel.

Miss Lulu Jones, who has been visiting her brother, Superintendent Jones, of the blind school, has returned to Jefferson.

G. F. Rodgers, accompanied his family to Newport today, where they will spend the summer. Mr. Rodgers will return home next week.

Mrs. B. Catterlin and children, Mrs. Henry B. Theissen, Fredrick D. Theissen and Miss Nellie Theissen have gone to Newport for an extended outing.

NIGHT VISITOR AT PEN

Being Fired At By Night-Watch, He Disappeared

Increased Guard Force Defeats Entrance

The authorities at the state prison on Tuesday evening reported that during the previous night, a stranger had visited the premises. The visitor had evidently planned an invasion of the prison enclosure. He was detected upon the wall by Night Watchman Simpson, who fired at the figure, which immediately disappeared.

A thorough search was made yesterday, but no trace of the visitor could be found. While the prison officials do not know who the man could have been, they are satisfied that his motive, at least, was not a good one.

In making his rounds of the interior of the penitentiary enclosure, about 10:30 o'clock Monday evening J. B. Simpson, inside night watchman, saw a man standing upon the bridge bordering upon the prison wall, near the northeast corner of the penitentiary yard. Without warning, Mr. Simpson, who is an uncle of the wife of the murdered guard, Frank B. Ferrell, fired, and the man leaped from the wall, and, in the intense darkness, made his escape. The man appeared on the wall near the post of J. B. Arbogast.

Since the escape of Merrill and Tracy, the guards at the prison have been especially vigilant, to the extent at least that the small force of night employees is capable. Recent happenings at Oregon's state penitentiary will doubtless lead to a thorough investigation by the legislature of the needs of the institution, and how to improve conditions, that a repetition of the tragedy of last month may be averted.

Failed to Bag Their Quarry

upon their quarry. Pressed to desperation, Tracy here made a circuit, headed due north, and plunged into the outskirts of the lake, where he finally succeeded in casting the seot.

There is considerable interest in Salem in the forthcoming meeting of the State Board of Education, when new officers of the mute school are to be elected.

The Election Will Take Place Very Soon

There is considerable interest in Salem in the forthcoming meeting of the State Board of Education, when new officers of the mute school are to be elected.

Anderson Tells of His Trip.

Seattle, Wash., July 9.—Surrounded by a morbid crowd of men in the Renton saloon, John Anderson, the unwilling companion of Tracy, the outlaw, related his experiences since the night he left Port Madison in Johnson's white boat, until his rescue at the Gerrells house at 6 o'clock last night.

"We left Madison on Saturday night at 9 o'clock," related Anderson in his broken English. "We went to West Seattle, and arrived at daylight. I pulled the boat. Tracy held the gun over me all the way. We landed south of the West Seattle elevator under a trellis, and went directly into the woods at West Seattle. When it got dark we came across the bay in our boat, and landed at the sawmill at South Seattle. We then started on the railroad track toward Black River. We crossed a large hayfield and went into the woods. This was Monday morning. When we got into the timber, we cooked breakfast. We then rested until afternoon. At 3 o'clock we started through the timber toward Renton.

"Just before we reached the railroad bridge over Black River, we met four men, and Tracy said, 'Hello, Fred,' and jumped down the bank to where the men were standing. Tracy talked to the men for a few minutes. After the talk, Tracy left one of the men to watch me. He and the three others, after blindfolding me, went off and stayed about an hour. When they returned they brought a bottle of whiskey. Then we started out. Tracy forced me to walk in front, and he followed behind, accompanied by the four men we met on the bridge.

"We arrived at Renton about 11 o'clock and walked up the railroad track through the town one and a half miles east of the brickyard. Here Tracy tied me up, and he, accompanied by the four strange men, left me. They returned at daylight this morning, and we went further back into the brush and cooked breakfast. Tracy told me he would go away for awhile, but would come back in an hour. When he returned, he brought a little boy from Gerrells' house, and we walked down to the Gerrells place together. We were in the house about three hours, when Tracy took me out into the brush. At the river bank he said, 'Go down.' After looking up and down the river, Tracy tied me up and cautioned me to keep still. I lay in this position until called to by Mrs. Gerrells, when I hobbled out of the brush into her backyard, where this gentleman, indicating a newspaper man, untied the leather straps which held my wrists."

Seattle, July 9.—Tracy is not at the Renton cabin, and has again disappeared. The bounds are working near Oreilia. Three men, believed to be confederates, were arrested this morning at Renton.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. C. J. Willis, of Portland, was in Salem today.

Bishop H. L. Barkley, of Portland, spent the day in Salem.

Bert Long, of Portland, is visiting his parents in this city.

C. A. Schibredo and family have removed to Rosburg to live.

Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Morse and Mrs. W. A. Cusick have gone to Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Coshow and sons have gone to Seaside for an outing.

Mrs. W. E. Bathie has gone to Aumsville for a visit with relatives.

Miss Ada Duffy, of El Campo, Texas is the guest of Miss Emily Horgan.

Governor Geer visited his farm near Macley today. He made the trip a wheel.

Miss Lulu Jones, who has been visiting her brother, Superintendent Jones, of the blind school, has returned to Jefferson.

G. F. Rodgers, accompanied his family to Newport today, where they will spend the summer. Mr. Rodgers will return home next week.

Mrs. B. Catterlin and children, Mrs. Henry B. Theissen, Fredrick D. Theissen and Miss Nellie Theissen have gone to Newport for an extended outing.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. C. J. Willis, of Portland, was in Salem today.

Bishop H. L. Barkley, of Portland, spent the day in Salem.

Bert Long, of Portland, is visiting his parents in this city.

Going Camping

IF YOU ARE BE SURE TO BE WELL PROVIDED WITH

Blankets

Did you ever try ours? They're made in Salem and the prices can't be touched by other retailers. You see the middle man is eliminated. COLORS—gray, mottled, scarlet, white, vicuna, etc. Prices per pair $3, $3.75, $4.00, $4.50, $4.80, $5, $6, etc.

Other Suggestions

If you will have to travel many miles over dusty roads, you'd better get one of our

Dusters $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.50, each

And won't the sun be hot! You will want a

Straw Hat We have them at 15c to $2.00. A cap will also be a useful article. Our prices are 15 to 75c

Sweater

And several NEGLEGGEE SHIRTS. We have good shirts at 50c; others up to $2.75, for the finest Pongee Silk. We might also mention our outing suits, coat and pants, only $8 to $10—but then the place to get everything in men's wear is at the Salem Woolen Mill Store...

254-256 Commercial Street.

Rambler $35 - $40 BICYCLES

CUSHION FRAME, 1902 $50 CHAINLESS CUSHION FRAME $65

Call and see the 1902 RAMBLER CUSHION FRAME, it is 305 days ahead of all.

ROCKING CRANK HANGER does away with the flat and clumsy spring. CALL AND EXAMINE IT, YOU WILL LIKE IT.

Bicycle Sundries Of all descriptions at prices as cheap as anywhere, and we have just what you want.

SHIPP & HAUSER 258 Commercial Street. Opposite Capital National Bank.

Celebrated Wolff-American Bicycles

Are the most perfectly constructed bicycle made. The bearings are dust-proof, self-oiling and will run a thousand miles without requiring additional oil.

1902 Model 55, $40 1902 Model 55, Superb Ruby Finish, $45 1901 Model, $35 1902 Special Model, $25

We fit any coaster brake, $5 extra. See our elegant line of high-grade bicycles at 156 State street.

Merritt Davis, Agent.

Come and See Us

Before you start on your summer outing. We have just what you want and are now making a specialty of your wants. Everything carefully packed ready for shipment when desired.

Fuller & Douglas, Grocers

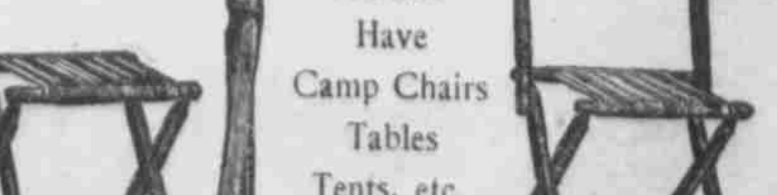

142 State St., D'Arey Bldg. Phone Main 2261

Your Vacation

Will be more complete if you take one of our

Palmer Hammocks

We also Have Camp Chairs Tables Tents, etc.

Buren & Hamilton HOUSE FURNISHERS

OUR PRICES ARE 15 TO 75% BELOW THE MARKET