MERRILL'S BODY HAS BEEN FOUND

Where He Was Murdered By the Fiendish Tracy

Has Been Identified By Warden Janes of the Oregon Prison

Dressed As He Was When Last Seen With the King of All Living Outlaws

(Daily Star Special to Capital Journal)

Seattle, July 15 .- Merrill's body was found by a small boy named Roberts, yesterday near the main road, below Chehalis, the place described by Tracy. The boy saw a hand and foot projecting from between two logs. He called the superintendent of the reform school. Westendorf. Deputy Sheriff Brinker and a newspaper man watched the body all night. Coroner Green, of Lewis county, has gone to bring the body into Chehalis. Everything confirms the Tracy story, as the body is dressed as last seen when he and Merrill were together. Found by a Woman.

Portland, July 15 .- Merrill's body was found yesterday. The discovery was kept secret until the arrival of Warden Janes, of Salem. It was found by a woman who was blackberrying.

The Victim of Tracy.

The finding of Merrill's body exactly orresponds with the story of his killing as given out by Tracy himself. The im with as little compunction as he vould a mosquito that had become troublesome, while Merrill, the more; ntelligent man of the two, relied upon Fracy's fairness and being a fellow prisoner who had suffered hardships with him. These feelings would not find a place in Tracy's breast any nore than in a panther's. Merrill had not killed any one, and only shot Ingram by accident, and by turning state's evidence against Tracy might have saved himself from hanging. The heory is that the escapes had some words, and at the first opportunity tion at the first opportunity.

Supt. Lee Notified. On Monday afternoon Superintend sage from Sheriff Edward Deggeler, of Chehalis, Lewis county, Washington: In case Merrill's body is found dead will reward be paid?" In reply, Mr. Lee sent the following: "The language of the reward will govern mater. In any event we will pay well for return of body." A few hours late Superintendent Lee received a tele phone message from Sheriff Deggeles informing him that a body supposed to be that of Merrill's had been found by a young boy near Chebalis, and near the point designated by Tracy as the scene of Merrill's morder and bur-
