TRAGEDY RUN DOWN IN A SHACK NEAR SAWYER LAKE

Sheriff Cudihee of Seattle Has Him and Several Accomplices Surrounded --- The Oregon Desperado is Badly Wounded in the Hip, But Prepared to Fight to the Bitter End.

Seattle, July 17. -- Sheriff Cudihee and six deputies discovered Tracy in a shack at Sawyer Lake, where the bloodhounds lost the trail last Friday. Two accomplices are with Tracy, who is badly wounded in the hip.

MERRILL'S BODY RETURNED TO SALEM

Mrs. Waggoner and the Sheriff Both Coming to Claim Reward

Question Raised Over the Terms as Put Out by the State Prison Authorities

Opinions of Lawyers That the Discoverers of the Body Can Recover the Money

After The Journal went to press Wednesday night a telegram was received stating that Mrs. Waggoner, the woman who was out blackberrying with her little boy, would come to Salem with the dead body of Merrill, and claim the reward offered by the state for the "capture and return" of the "dead or alive" of either Tracy or Merrill.

intendent Oregon state penitentiary. Wore False Teeth. The inquest over the body of Merrill, the dead convict, has developed the fact that he has served terms in the Montana penitentiary, at Deer Lodge, one term under the name of McTague, and the other under the name of Carroll.

Merrill's Body Received. Sheriff Fred Deggeger, of Lewis county, Washington, accompanied by Mrs. Mary Waggoner, the woman who, with her son, found the body of Merrill near Chehalis, arrived in Salem on the 11 o'clock train this morning, and delivered to Superintendent Lee, the body of Merrill.

Claims the Reward. A formal interview between Mrs. Waggoner and Superintendent Lee was not had until this afternoon. Mrs. Waggoner claims the entire reward of $1500 that was offered by the state for Merrill's body.

The Remains Buried. The badly decomposed remains of the outlaw, dressed in a neat burial robe of black, and resting in a plainly decorated metal casket, were buried in the prison cemetery about 1 o'clock this afternoon.

Activity at Yakima. North Yakima, July 17.—It is known here that Sheriff Tucker late yesterday afternoon received a message from somewhere, which had direct connection with the chase after Tracy.

the sheriff has had a call to join in the Tracy hunt. The general belief is that Sheriff Cudihee is somewhere on the Palmer cut-off. Unless he walked through the woods or drove in a buggy along unfrequented roads, he has not left that region.

TWO MORE MEN ON THE PRISON WALLS

Night Force At the Oregon State Prison Has Been Increased

Persistent Efforts to Force Another Delivery From the Penitentiary

A Letter Has Been Intercepted That May Lead to a Capture of the Desperate Helpers.

The Journal has exclusive information that one, or possibly two, men were seen by the guards on the walls of the Oregon state penitentiary Tuesday night. It is beginning to be believed by persons connected with the prison management that, owing to the Oregon National Guard being in encampment at Albany, a general delivery of the 300 prisoners may be attempted.

are trying to help the convicts. The prison officials are very secretive about all the details, and a great deal is known that cannot be published, as it is believed that plans are perfected to frustrate any further interference or passage of arms over the walls. More Guards Needed. More guards and better shots, and a full force of night guards, are needed to protect the prison, and prevent a wholesale delivery of the 300 men incarcerated there.
