Its a Shame

To have to slash prices on fine summer goods the way we are doing, but our fall goods are coming in and room made for them. It's a snap though, for the housewife of econor ical mind, for it is the chance of her life to get beautiful summer fabrics of all kinds at ridiculously low prices. For Instance: We've taken the build of our Lawns, Dimities, Organdles, Swisses, etc., at prices varying from 12c to 30c per yard and put them all on a table at the astenishing price of

Then there's a line of Summer Corsets, good values at 60c-that we're closing out at 39c.

SHIRT WAISTS take up room that we must have for winter goods, and we've cut the very life out of the prices of them all.

Summer underwear and Hoslery can be bought now at our store for less than you would suppose.

Come in and see if there isn't something you can use at a SNAP PRICE. Our cierks are all polite and courteous and if you don't buy there's no harn done. We will gladly show you what bargains are, and we think you won't be able to restrain the temptation to

MISTER JOHNSON ARRESTED

an Ugly Knife

Leave the City

Salem's colored population came near being reduced by one on Friday evening. Early last evening William G. Johnson, who has a dark brown complexion, got drunk and gay at the same time, and, arming himself with and ugly looking knife that had a blade 41/2 inches in length, he started; out to find Wm. Banks, also colored. and against whom he imagined he had a grievance. It is claimed that John son found Banks, and having followed his prospective victim about for some ime, Johnson confronted his colored brother, and, placing the blade of the knife to Banks' breast, threatened him with sudden annihilation if he should make any outcry or attempt to reach for his gun. Before Johnson could do bodily harm . Banks dislodged the knife from the hands of his adversary, and sought the police officers to whom he related his troubles. Officers Lewis and Murphy found Johnson later in the evening, and he wa lodged in the city jail.
