New York, Aug. 29,-Pierpont Morgan issued a circular this morning, in which he makes the remarkable statement that he has plans looking toward the amalgamation of all the transportation interests in the Southern states, and appeals to the stockholders of the Southern Railway to follow the example of the Reading Railway, and give him control by voting a trust for the period of five years. He says the events of the past eighteen months in the Northern Pacific deal, reveal the danger to which a corporation is ex posed if outsiders have an opportunity to purchase a control in the open market. Non-assenting stockholders are given a veiled threat that unless they comply prior to September 15th, they can't share in the benefits of voting
