Notice of Removal.

We beg to inform the public we will open our new offices in the old First National bank building on September 1st, occupying the rooms formerly used by the bank. In our new quarters we are equipped with a commodious fire-proof vault, and will establish a "Safe Deposit" system, to the privileges and benefits of which we respectfully call the attention of the general public. Valuable papers, documents, silverware, jewelry, etc., or anything of a valuable nature, may be securely deposited with us at a moderate cost. Deposits are strictly confidential, and a private room for the examination of your papers or boxes has been provided. We are also prepared to act as agents or trustees.

We also desire to call the attention of those contemplating buying or selling real estate to the fact that the recent activity in land circles makes it paramount that the title be abstracted and perfected before the time of sale or purchase. Delays and a possibility of the loss of a sale may thus be averted. We are prepared to abstract your title with all dispatch consistent with careful and painstaking work.

We thank our patrons for the many business and personal courtesies of the past, and trust to merit a continuance of the same. We respectfully solicit the patronage of those desiring the advantages of our "Safe Deposit" system.

Just Like a Circus.

There are times in a person's life when they feel "enough is as good as a feast" but anyone enjoying the satisfying performance of Warren & Day's Uncle Tom's Cabin Company, at the Avenue Theatre this week will gladly stand for all that is coming to him.

When the average theatre-goers read an announcement that an Uncle Tom's Cabin Company will appear at such and such a time he is apt to note the same with a smile and some sage remarks regarding ancient history's resurrection, etc., yet in nine cases out of ten, when the night arrives for the production of the play he will be found patiently waiting his turn at the box office when the "circus comes to town" expression on his face; his family in a row, or if not possessed of such a blessing he has probably borrowed several babies for the occasion to lend dignity to his coming. He can't resist seeing the play again. He likes to feel his brain excited, his nerves tingle as the play is depicted on the stage.

Uncle Tom's Cabin as a story is "old yet ever new," having the same charm to enchain the attention of the reader, the same power of exciting the wondering curiosity of the children as in olden times, and will for ages to come occupy a niche in the memory's pages side by side with the never-to-be-forgotten history of our soldiers of the Rebellion.

As a play, Uncle Tom's Cabin has never been equalled by any other dramatized story in fidelity of detail, clearness of outline and strict adherence to the story. In this day of dramatized novels turned out by hundreds on the strength of the book's sale, few are successes, and it is a pleasure to enjoy a standard success that has withstood time and triumphed over the "fads" of the hour, as has "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

As presented by the Warren & Day's company, everything conspires to make us forget it is only "acting," even the dogs present such ferocious, blood-thirsty appearance that we sigh from thankfulness at the escape of Eliza from the slave drivers.

The company has been chosen with careful attention to their peculiar fitness for the characters they are to represent. The scenic effects are on a lavish scale, new and together with costumes, are of the time of the period.

Although we can well endorse the opinion of the press of other cities in saying it is the best representation of Uncle Tom's Cabin now on the road.—E. Atkinson' Pittsburg Press, April 18, 1901.

In Salem under a huge tent which will be erected on Commercial street, between Oak and Bellevue, Wednesday, September 3d, for one performance only.

Open Air Dinner Party.

Tuesday evening last Mrs. P. H. Raymond gave an open air dinner at Fairmount Park, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. G. Stalger, of Portland, and Mrs. La-follet, of California. The affair was one of the most enjoyable of the season, being an entire departure from the beaten and conventional path of the average dinner. When all had partaken of the bounteous collation huge bonfires were lighted, and the hours passed all too soon, beguiled as they were with song, jest and story.

Those present were: Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Cusick, Judge and Mrs. R. S. Bean, Judge and Mrs. George H. Burnett, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Ellsworth, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. August Stalger, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Jordan Purvine, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. Francisco Seelye, Judge and Mrs. C. E. Wolvorton, Mrs. La-follet, of California; Mrs. Sophia Monroe, Mr. B. H. Wagner, Miss Leona White, Miss Miriam Heulst, Miss Edna Price, Master La-follet, of California, Master Bean.

PERSONALS.

Rev. P. S. Knight was in Portland today.

L. H. McMahon spent the day in Portland.

Mrs. F. A. Moore is visiting relatives in Portland.

Miss Emma Miller has returned from a visit with friends at Jefferson.

Miss Gertrude O'Brien has returned to Albany, after a short visit with the Misses Coshaw.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hoyer, of Portland, are visiting in this city, with Mrs. Hoyer's relatives.

Mrs. T. B. Cornell and daughter have returned to Jefferson, after a visit with Salem relatives.

Misses Maggie and Agnes Coleman, who have been visiting in this city have returned to their homes near Silverton.

Dr. J. H. Coleman, of Willamette University, has gone to Caldwell, Ida., to attend the Idaho conference of the Methodist church.

Hon. J. N. Williamson, of Prineville, congressman-elect from the second congressional district, was in the city Friday evening, and returned to Portland this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McMillan, of Month, were in Salem last week, to report progress in the treatment the former is receiving by Dr. Darrin. He is so far improved, his wife says, that the family can hardly whisper that he does not hear it.

DO YOU HEAR?

IF YOU CANNOT UNDERSTAND CAPITAL LETTERS, YOU MUST BE DEAF.

Do You Want to Hear.

Mr. A. G. Byers, of Independence, Or., was in town the other day and reports his cure of total deafness by Dr. Darrin as permanent. He was so much pleased with the result that he brought his father for treatment for other troubles. We give below his sworn statement, given last June:

How Young Mr. Byers Recovered

Mr. A. J. Byers, of Independence, accompanied by his son, A. G. Byers, called at the Journal office this afternoon and made a statement relative to the condition of the younger man. He has been deaf from his infancy, and the difficulty gradually increased to such extent that he was almost totally deaf. Two months ago the young man came to Dr. Darrin, at Hotel Willamette, for treatment, and today called at the Journal office to state that he can hear as well as anybody. The reporter talked to him in a low tone of voice, and his hearing was as good as the best. This remarkable cure of necessity makes the young man feel happy, and his father is more than pleased. Their purpose in coming to The Journal office was to make a statement to the public concerning the wonderful cure.

A. G. BEYERS.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, E. Hofer, a notary public, in Salem, Oregon, this 10th day of June, 1902.

(Seal) E. HOFER,

Notary Public for Oregon.

Another Equally Remarkable Cure.

C. R. Durfee, a farmer residing near Shaw station, is one of the happiest men in the county. For over 23 years he was deaf in the left ear, his hearing being entirely destroyed, while his right ear was entirely normal. After treating with Dr. Darrin, at the Hotel Willamette, Mr. Durfee can hear perfectly in the left ear, and is loud in his praises of the physician who so successfully treated him. Mr. Durfee says the restoration of his hearing is a great relief to him, for he can now hear every sound, and locate it. Miss Nellie, the daughter of Mr. Durfee, was also cured by Dr. Darrin of deafness and granulated eyes about two months ago. Mr. Durfee called at The Journal office, and volunteered the above statement.

Dr. Darrin's Place of Business.

Dr. Darrin gives free examination to all, and when necessary gives medicine in connection with electricity.

The poor treated free from 10 to 11 daily, except medicine. Those willing to pay, 10 to 15; evenings, 7 to 8; Sundays, 10 to 12. Those wishing treatment should call soon, as some cases require attention during course of cure. Catarrh and chest troubles yield more readily during warm weather. Sufferers from this class of troubles should have them attended to at once. Errors of youth, blood taints, gleet, impotency, varicocele, deafness, catarrh and stricture a specialty. All chronic male and female diseases treated at $5 a week, $20 a month, or in that proportion of time, as the case may require. No cases published, except by permission of the patient. All business relations with Dr. Darrin strictly confidential. Letters of inquiry answered. Circulars and question blanks sent free. Eyes tested and glasses fitted. Dr. Darrin's offices are at the Willamette Hotel, Salem, until November 1st, only.

TWO YEARS AGO.

There are lots of good things the doctors know nothing about. We frequently cure people of disease after the doctors have given them up. If the disease comes from over work, dissipation, of exposure, causing weak and watery blood, and loss of flesh and strength, we have the one sure remedy in Dr. Gunn's Blood and Nerve Tonic. These tablets taken with meals turn the food into rich red blood, making strong steady nerves, and increasing the strength, building up solid flesh at the rate of 1 to 3 lbs per week. This means health. For nervous prostration, loss of memory, or a pale, sallow complexion, a better remedy was never made. Doctors know nothing about this remedy only the fact that we make cures; as we have been doing this for twenty years we know our method to be the right one. Druggists sell Dr. Gunn's Blood and Nerve Tonic for 75c per box, or 3 boxes for $2, or sent by mail on receipt of price. Write us for a pamphlet telling all about this great medicine. Address Dr. Gunn, Philadelphia, Pa. For sale at Dr. Stone's Drug Stores. 1
