Have You Ever Tried Salem's Botanical Doctor?

He absolutely cures cancers, tumors, gravel, kidney and bladder troubles, bone diseases, asthma, skin diseases—all without the use of the knife or poisonous minerals or mineral of any kind.

Instructions.

My Dear Friend: You must bear in mind that this medicine is not a poisonous tonic, nor a stimulant, nor a temporary relief, which you get from poisonous drugs, where the results are sure death sooner or later. Those poisons go in your bones and destroy the life of them and create all kinds of diseases, cancerous tumors, consumption, dropsy, bone diseases, etc. Do not blame the medicine when it takes an effect and stir up the poisons or disease in the system. You must not expect to be cured in a few days, for your sickness or disease has been a long time coming on, and it will take a long time to get it out of your system. It will take months or a year to build up a new body from the bones up. This is what the people do not understand.

They are used to being humbugged. My medicines are composed of nature's herbs—what the human system requires. When the animals get sick they will help themselves to those herbs, for they have the instinct, and the people have not, so we have to make a study of it. It has been a life study with me. Do not get weary; this life is too short and too sweet to worry out of this world.

ORGANIZED LABOR'S NATIONAL HOLIDAY

Celebrated With Great Enthusiasm Throughout the States

Rival Organizations Join Hands and Present a United Front

Biggest Demonstration in the History of Labor Movement—Parade and Speech Making the Order of the Day

40,000 in Line.

San Francisco, Sept. 1.—The great parade in the history of unionism took place today. Fully 40,000 persons were in line. For the first time since the labor organization movement was started here, have unions presented such a united front. Five central bodies, covering the building trades council, the labor council and the city front federation joined hands in observing the day.

Every union in the city, and some from the adjoining bay cities, was represented in uniform and holiday regalia and full extent of membership. The first position was held by the allied printing trades; the second division by the iron trades, and the third by the team drivers' council, after which came the labor trades council, six divisions, building trades and water front federation. The parade was enlivened by numerous floats, representing the different industries; many bands furnished the music.

After the parade exercises were held at the Chutes, Mayor Schmitz acting as president of the day.

Minister Wu's Speech.

Binghamton, N. Y., Sept. 1.—In a Labor Day speech, Chinese Minister Wu, after arguing in favor of arbitration of labor disputes, claims that China has solved the problem, by adopting the profit-sharing scheme. He says he favored unionism for self-protection, and paid a high tribute to the American workman. Discussing Chinese exclusion, he said: "I assure you nothing has ever been said or done by me which was not beneficial to American labor. It has been my aim, not to secure the unrestricted admission of Chinese laborers, but only to remove unnecessary obstacles to the coming of merchants, students and the desirable classes. Hostile legislation against China hurts American laboring men, because China retaliates by decreasing her purchase of American products. America must find a market for her surplus, or her workmen will suffer."

Buffalo on Parade.

Buffalo, Sept. 1.—President Mitchell was advertised to speak here at the Labor Day exercises, but failed to arrive, hence the day was devoted to parades only.

Gathered Contributions. Chicago, Sept. 1.—In the labor parade an immense box was hauled, gathering contributions for the striking anthracite miners. Two flags, 12x24, were carried on each side to catch the coins thrown from the windows. Ten men, with megaphones, walked ahead, appealing to the crowds to contribute. Several thousand women were in the parade.

Demonstrations at New Castle. New Castle, Pa., Sept. 1.—President Shaffer was too ill to address the enormous crowd which arrived on the excursion trains from the surrounding country. A. M. Dewey, of Washington, D. C., was substituted as the principal speaker. The parade of the miners was three miles long. There were no disturbances.

HOW LIFE BEGUN

The origin of life is no longer involved in mystery, and is proved by the great evolutionists of the age. Darwin, Spencer, Huxley, Draper and others. Life originated in an electrical bio-plasm, a microcosm of infinitesimal size that has gone through countless ages, following closely the great law of nature, evolution, until man is the result. At the age of 40 (and many before this time) he begins gradually to give up the electrical force nature gave him to stronger bodies, weakness and disease taking its place. To avert the latter and stay its ravages, one should restore the lost balance by frequent supplies of electricity, brought as near nature's standard and requirements as possible. Dr. Darrin has the perfected apparatus and method for administering nature's remedy, and his success in the treatment and cure of diseases is simply unparalleled. The doctor makes a specialty of all diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat, catarrh, deafness, bronchitis, la grippe, dyspepsia, heart liver, bladder and kidney diseases. He permanently cures all female troubles, ulceration, displacements, painful menstruation, irregularities, etc., also genito-urinary and skin diseases, in either sex, such as blood taints, seminal weakness and lost vigor, hydrocele, varicocele and stricture.

He Would Not Take $500. Mr. Editor: I deem it a duty to tell the public, through your paper of the remarkable cure Dr. Darrin performed on me two years ago. I was taken with a contraction of the cords of my neck, which drew my head to one side. I went under his treatment by electricity and medicine, and was cured in five months so I could bend my head in any position, and have been permanently well ever since the cure. I am no hand to puff doctors, but in justice to the afflicted, as well as the doctor, I cannot let this opportunity pass. I would not take $500 and be placed back where I was before treatment. I have resided near Talent, Or., the past 12 years, and will gladly answer all questions. JAMES HARVEY, JR.

Dr. Darrin's Place of Business.

Dr. Darrin gives free examination to all, and when necessary gives medicine in connection with electricity. The poor treated free from 10 to 11 daily, except medicine. Those willing to pay, 10 to 15; evenings, 7 to 8; Sundays, 10 to 3. Those wishing treatment should call soon, as some cases require attention during course of cure. Catarrh and chest troubles yield more readily during warm weather. Sufferers from this class of troubles, should have them attended to at once. Errors of youth, blood taints, gleet, impotency, varicocele, deafness, catarrh and stricture a specialty. All chronic male and female diseases treated at $5 a week, $20 a month, or in that proportion of time, as the case may require. No cases published, except by permission of the patient. All business relations with Dr. Darrin strictly confidential. Letters of inquiry answered. Circulars and question blanks sent free. Eyes tested and glasses fitted. Dr. Darrin's office are at the Willamette Hotel Salem, until November 1st, only.

LABOR DAY AT SALEM

Capital City Fittingly Observes the Holiday

Creditable Parade, Good Speeches and Lively Sports

Two Hundred Union People Were in Procession—Will Conclude With Grand Ball Tonight

Salem's labor organizations have every reason to feel proud of their initial celebration of Labor Day. The program of exercises was fitting and appropriate, and was very successfully carried out. The day was generally observed throughout the city. The state, county and city officers were closed, and were also the banks, and the business houses suspended operations at the noon hour, and all joined in the observance of the day.

The Parade. The day's program was initiated with a street parade, in which the several labor unions of the city and the Federal Union participated. The formation of the procession was made at the city hall shortly after 1 o'clock. A. C. Hoff, bookkeeper for J. J. Dalrymple, was the grand marshal, and, although the business was new to him, he performed the office as well as a veteran could have done. His aides were C. A. Bort, from the painters, and Ed. Swayzee, of the barbers' organization. The line of march was followed as originally announced, as follows:

South on High street to Court; west on Court to Commercial; south to State; east on State to High; counter-march to Commercial; south to Willamette Hotel, and counter-march on Commercial to Marion Square.

Two hundred union people participated in the parade, which reflected great credit on the labor organizations of the city. Headed by the Elks' Union band, the procession moved shortly before 2 o'clock. After the band came a carriage with Hon. Frank Davey and E. H. Flagg, the speakers of the day. This was followed by several carriages with 14 of the lady members of the clerks' union. The balance of the parade was made up as follows: Clerks' union, 21 men walking; barbers' union, 16 strong, with union lay between the barbers and the clerks, numbering 8; painters, paper-hangers and decorators; 25; carriage with Mrs. Peterson and Miss Della Walker, members of the typographical union and 25 members of the same organization on foot; carpenters' union with 48 men; Federal Labor union, numbering 35. The procession was followed by an express wagon containing a crate in which was a live pig, with the accompanying placard, "Guaranteed Union Made."

It was admitted that the real contest for the prize for the best uniformed Harry Wilson, an amateur cigar-maker, but at press hour he awards had been made. Only a part of the unions appeared in costume. The painters made a fine appearance. They wore white suits and black caps, and carried a three-foot rule each, to which was tied a blue ribbon. The barbers were determined to look their best, and they certainly did. They were attired in white jackets, with black trousers and gray ping hats, and carried cases. The cigar-makers wore an appropriate emblem of their trade. It consisted of a white ribbon, upon which was printed a blue union label. It made a very attractive badge.

Unfortunate Accident. About 1 o'clock this afternoon occurred the only accident to mar the day's festivities, when Wm. Baker, one of the marshals of the day, was thrown from his horse, and badly bruised. He was about to start when his horse commenced bucking, and threw the rider to the ground, also falling upon him. In a futile attempt to get to his feet, the animal fell several times more, and each time full weight upon the breast of the prostrate rider. Finally, when the animal was freed, Mr. Baker was taken into the Dr. Stone
