The Ready-to-Serve Cereal makes one chummy with good sleep.

Sweet, crisp flakes of wheat and malt—eaten cold.

Jim Dumps had scarcely slept a wink.
All night he'd toss about and think.
But that's all past—he'll ne'er endure Insomnia. He's found a cure!
"Tis 'Force.' At night when lights are dim It soothes the nerves of 'Sunny Jim'.

Wouldn't Believe at First.

"I wouldn't believe it till I tried it, but 'Force' is a cure for insomnia. I used to stay awake night after night. Now I sleep like a baby. I'm just before going to bed, and sleep and I have become good friends again."

The Latest Yarn.

A Pittsburgh drummer tells this new yarn: I always carry a bottle of Kemp's Balsam in my grip. I take cold easily, and a few doses of the Balsam always makes me a well man.
Everywhere I go I speak a good word for Kemp. I take hold of my customers—I take old men and young men, and I take them confidentially what I do, when I take cold. At druggists, 25 and 50 cents.

EDUCATIONAL.

Business men require trained help

The modern business college is a result of business requirements. The business man now looks to the school to supply his help. Therefore, a young person now has but scant opportunity of success in business without a thorough training such as he may secure at the CAPITAL BUSINESS COLLEGE.

This school has an established reputation for supplying competent help to business men.
This fact should not be overlooked by young people when deciding which school to attend.
We offer cheap living, skillful teachers, pleasant rooms; in fact all the advantages one could wish. Send for catalogue.

TO THE INCREDULOUS

There Was Never the Man who was Fooled or Humbled—He Humbled Himself.

The human race affords in itself a most singular study. There are among the many classes of thinkers, those who repose too much confidence in others, too little confidence in themselves, or no confidence in anything.
The man who knows it all himself, the man who thinks somebody else knows it all. The egotist and the simpleton and the skeptic. Recognizing the fact that people require more substantial evidence than mere words and promises, Dr. Darrin resorts to the most legitimate method of advertising himself by advertising his cures. That those among the community may be offered an opportunity of investigating before calling in person upon the doctor, the following names are published, bearing evidence of the doctor's ability and skill, as well as successes.
