How's Your Purse?

One Salem lady says she would rather be judged by the outside appearance of her purse than by what is in it, because she says everybody sees her purse, and it's nobody's business what's in it. This is certainly the case, but while we are talking about purses, we want to remind you that Hinges has the newest thing in purses, the latest designs and styles of leather, including, morocco, seal, alligator and monkey skins, all direct from the factory, and he is prepared to please the most particular customer. He also has a fine line of silver initial letters to place on purses when wanted. See his line.

COLORED WOMAN ARRESTED

Wanted in Pocatello, Idaho, For Robbery

Taken From Train at Salem--Habeas Corpus

Sarah Glenn, a colored woman, was taken off the southbound California overland Wednesday night, and detained on a charge of robbery. The arrest was made by Chief of Police Gibson and Night Officers Lewis and Murphy, on telegraphic advice from the authorities at Pocatello, Idaho.

The woman was found in the Pullman car, and was in company with a colored man, whose name was not learned. When taken from the berth the officers took possession of a purse that was found beneath the pillow. The man remonstrated, claiming that it was his individual property, but the officers would not see it that way, and the trip to the police station was begun. The colored couple were permitted to walk together, and everything went all right until State street was reached, when the man remarked that he guessed he would go back, but Chief Gibson thought differently, and with some persuasion the man was induced to accompany the party. Chief Gibson's suspicions that the fellow had succeeded in getting hold of the woman's purse was confirmed at the police station, when, upon being searched, a lady's pocketbook containing $205 in greenbacks was found in his possession. He then swore that the purse with the larger amount of money was his property, but doubt remained in the mind of Chief Gibson as to which of the man's tales was correct, and he retained both of the purses. The second purse, and to which Shields, state secretary of Oregon. Delegates will be in attendance from all colleges in the state, and from the city associations of Portland, also several members of the state board will be present.

Entertainment for all must be provided by the association of Willamette, and the co-operation of all interested in the University is earnestly requested. Any one who can possibly entertain one or more delegates will be conferring a great favor upon those responsible by informing Miss Sophia Townsend of the fact at once.

the fellow first laid claim, contained about $25.

The city jail has no accommodations for female prisoners, and the woman was placed in the county jail for the night. The man was released, since the request from Idaho did not ask for the arrest of either the woman.

It is believed that the woman's escort is from Portland.

To Secure Release.
A petition to secure the release of the prisoner by writ of habeas corpus was begun this afternoon. The petition will be argued before Judge Holne at 4 o'clock this afternoon. W. T. Humes, of Portland, W. H. Holmes and Webster Holmes, of this city, have been employed by the woman, and the further detention of the prisoner, pending the arrival of the warrant from Idaho, will be vigorously opposed. The petition alleges that the woman is detained as a prisoner without a warrant of any kind, or through any legal process. Deputy Prosecuting Attorney J. H. McNary will appear for the state.

Not a Word from Idaho.
Chief Gibson has not heard a word from the Idaho officers since late Wednesday evening, when he received a telephone message from the Portland police, who, acting on the advice of the Idaho officers, requested the arrest of the woman. The chief is anxious to receive a telegraphic warrant for the arrest of the woman, for he thinks that in such event he can hold the woman. There is a question as to whether a prisoner can be held on a telegraphic warrant, and the validity of such a warrant has never been tested in the Oregon courts. In event such a warrant arrives before the court, for hearing the petition, the legality of such a proceeding in criminal cases will probably be passed upon for the first time, as both sides seem determined to win out in the case at hand. None of the details of the crime for which the woman is wanted have been received, other than it is for robbery.

"Council" Opening

"The Council," an elegant new saloon of the Capital City, was formally opened Wednesday evening by Fred Neckermann. The furnishings and equipment are the best, and it ranks second to none in the city. Friends by the score frequented the place, and paid their respects to the proprietor, who is one of the pioneer liquor dealers in the city, and one whose acquaintance extends throughout the valley. A delicious lunch was served, and the health of the house and its proprietor were freely offered. Mr. Neckermann has every reason to feel proud of his new business venture.

OLD TICKET NAMED

Citizens' Hold an Informal Meeting and Adjourn

Mayor Bishop and the Other Officials Again to Stand

An informal conference was held Wednesday evening to ascertain whether Mayor Bishop would again consent to stand for re-election for the third term as mayor.

He agreed to give his final answer to the request of the friends of the Citizens' movement at another meeting, to be held this evening. Mayor Bishop does not want the office, and will only take it if the entire administration is in perfect accord with the reform principles. The situation developed a strong feeling in favor of asking the whole present administration to stand for re-election. There may be two changes made in the board of aldermen, as Alderman Walker declines to again be a candidate on account of poor health, and J. P. Frizzell, who declines to serve further as street commissioner, may be substituted for Alderman Ripps in the second ward, who, it is understood, desires to become a candidate for street commissioner.

In Republican Circles.
The Republican city committee did not meet last night, as intended, the Illinois Club election and other affairs interfering, but it will meet this evening.

Sir Francis Delmar

The Hindoo Wonder

Recognized as the World's Greatest CLAIRVOYANT

And Psychic Palmist.

Has arrived in the city and can be consulted on all affairs of life. The Hindoo Wonder is too well known in this country to need much introduction, but for the benefit of the few who may not have heard of him he will say that he is a graduate of the occult colleges of India and France, and has been a professional medium for the past 15 years, the past year in Spokane, Wash., where he gave the very best satisfaction to all.

Professor Delmar guarantees to tell you what you came for or charge you nothing. This is fair, is it not? He will tell you what you came for without asking a single question; no matter what your troubles are, he will guide you out of them with success on your side; he will give you names, dates, facts and localities in a way that will astonish the most skeptical. It may be of vital interest to you to know the outcome of your present distress. The happiness of your future life may depend upon the right solution, and proper advice. The Hindoo Wonder makes no mistakes. All his predictions are true, and may be relied upon. You may wish to know if it is advisable to make a change in business, in love or in marriage. Shall I succeed in my new undertaking? Can I trust my friends? Have I enemies? When shall I marry? How often shall I marry? Shall I ever be divorced? Does another share the love that rightfully belongs to me? If so, who? Am I loved in return? Have I a rival in my love? Whom shall I marry? How many children will I have? When will my domestic troubles end? How can I make my life and home happy? When will my absent friend return? Why do I not receive a letter? Should I invest my money? In what should I invest? Is my disease curable? Shall I win my law suit? Delmar tells you all these things and a great many more. He settles lovers' quarrels, reunites the separated, and shows how to overcome all difficulties.

He is ever ready to assist those with small capital to find a quick and sure paying statement. If you wish to make a sure paying investment see Delmar. Hundreds have been made independent for life through his advice and counsel. He can do the same for you.

No matter what your past experience with clairvoyants has been, call and see this wonderfully gifted medium, it will cost you nothing unless you are perfectly satisfied with what he tells you. Delmar should not be classed with the many so-called mediums and cheap pretenders; he is far superior to anyone you have ever seen, and a call at his office will convince the most skeptical that Prof. Delmar is far above the average medium in every way. Don't fail to call! A reading may save you many mistakes in the future.

Remember, no fee accepted unless you are perfectly satisfied. Lady in attendance. Lessons in palmistry and mediumistic person developed in short time at reasonable rates.

Parties so arranged that you will meet no strangers, as the professor has his own private waiting room. Office hours 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. daily. Prices reasonable and within the reach of all. Call early and avoid waiting. Everything treated as sacred and confidential.

Readings by mail just as correct as if you called in person. Send $1 with full name, age and date of birth, with any questions you may wish to ask. Replies will be sent promptly. Address all mail to
